HOW HANNA SAT ON QUAY.

"It won't be Teddy Roosevelt,"
Said Hanna, big and fat—
It won't be Teddy Roosevelt;
You may be sure of that.
It may be Long or Wolcott,
Or Bliss, or even Tim;
But it won't be Teddy Roosevelt,
For I'm opposed to him.
"I am opposed to Teddy
Because of Platt and Quay,
I know the people want him,
But I will have my way."
Thus came about this episode,
A spiky little spat,
Between two politicians
Well known as Mark and Matt.
"Perhaps it won't," said Matthew Quay,
And shook his head a bit,
"But I'm inclined to figure
That Teddy will be 'it."
Mark Hanna is a mighty man,
Long-headed and all that;
But there are also others—
For instance, Mister Platt."

Quay scratched his head and knit his brow,
And looked toward the South,
Then winked at John P. Elkin,
But opened not his mouth,
Then Elkin smiled at Reeder,
Said Reeder: "I believe—
Between us two—that the Old Man
Has something up his sleeve."
Next day at the convention
A mighty tumult rose—
The wily man from Beaver
Had something to propose:
A little resolution
Concerning delegates
That caused some consternation
Among the Southern States.
The wise ones understood it,
And yelled till they were hoarse,
While Hanna hastened to remark:
"Why, Teddy's 'it' of course.
You see the people want him,
And they must have their way,"
And that is how Mark Hanna
Sat down on Matthew Quay."

Lupole-Leonard.

Mr. Millard M. Lupole, of Dents Run, Pa., and Miss Liddie E. Leonard, of Driftwood, Pa., were married at Emporium on July 2nd, by Squire M. M. Larrabee. The happy couple left on the afternoon train for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, New York City and other points of interest, on their wedding tour, returning to Huntley on July 6th, where a reception was held in honor of the event, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Nelson, at 8 o'clock p. m. About fifty intimate friends partook of a royal feast prepared by the bride's aunt Mrs. A. F. Nelson, and it is needless to say that the small (?) enters did ample justice to the good things. The bride and groom received many handsome and useful presents. The writer, with a host of friends joined in congratulations and best wishes for a long, happy and prosperous life of the twain. D.

Curious, But True.

An exchange prints the following curious item: "Tie a string about a yard long to a common door key. Then hold it in the right hand and hold it so the key will clear the floor four or five inches. If you can hold the key steady enough it will begin to swing back and forth in a straight line. Let another person take your left hand in his and the motion of the key will change from the pendulum to a circular swing. If the third person will put his hand on the shoulder of the second person, the key will stop. Try it and explain it if you can."

A Star Course.

It is not improbable that a Star Course will be conducted in Emporium the coming season. Rev. O. S. Metzler and several interested parties have the matter under consideration and if the requisite encouragement is given the movement by the whole people it will be undertaken.

It is proposed to secure the best talent in the lyceum business and this will necessitate a big outlay of money and impose heavy burdens of responsibility upon the committee, but if it will lend a hand the project can be made a success.

These courses are now successfully conducted in all the leading towns of the country, and their merit and advantage appears in the refinement and elevation of the tastes of the people, and in giving them a high class of musical and literary attractions during the months of winter. Particulars will be furnished later. Now then, let the people give the matter their earnest thought and consideration.

Do You Endorse Him?

A number of Emporium Republicans were induced to attend a so-called convention recently held at Warren and vote for Ex-Senator Emery for Congress—a trap laid for them. Now comes along the democratic congressional convention and endorses the nomination of the so-called Independent Republicans, not however until Senator Emery came out in a letter repudiating one of the corner stones of Republicanism and declared himself a free trader. At the democratic county convention recently held at Smithport delegate John O'Brien of Bradford, read a private letter from Mr. Emery, in which that gentleman condemns a protective tariff. In all seriousness, we ask the supporters of Senator Emery, in Cameron county or the 27th district, who believe in the cardinal principles of Republicanism, how will you swallow this man Emery?

Obituary.

Cora, daughter of A. H. and Clara Crosby, born at Odin, May 18, 1878; died at the Buffalo Woman's Hospital corner of 7th and George St. just before sunset, June 30, 1900.

Dependent on her own resources she entered the class of '98 at the College of Commerce at Scranton, from which she graduated and immediately after entered the employ of W. H. Sullivan, of Austin, where she won the regards of her employers. But Buffalo presented better advantages and she accepted a situation there last October, only to fall a victim to the epidemic of measles prevailing there in March. She partially recovered but a relapse brought on a complication of diseases against which the best physicians were powerless to contend.

In the strength of youth prepared for a life of usefulness she was called to depart, leaving sorrow in her home for its abiding guest. She was a member of the Presbyterian Church.

Her funeral was held July 3d in the little M. E. Church in Odin where Rev. Torkington preached a sympathetic discourse from the book of Revelations, last chapter, 3d and 4th verses.

There were many flowers, emblems of the lovely sweetness of her affection. Interment at Inez, the old Homer Cemetery where the dust of four generations of her kindred mingle to wait the resurrection.—Austin Republican.

Many of our citizens will remember this estimable young lady, who some years ago made her home with Mrs. Daniel Downey on Fifth and Vine St., and who won the affection of all who became acquainted with her.

Not from Emporium.

Rob't Stout committed suicide at Ridgway on Monday by jumping into the Clarion river. It is reported that Stout came from Emporium, but as far as we can learn the unfortunate man does not hail from this place. It is also reported here that the suicide belongs in Renovo.

Death's Doings.

ROBISON.

Miss SADIE ROBISON, aged 17 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Robison, died at the family residence on West Fifth street, last Monday morning, after an illness of many months with that dreaded disease consumption. The deceased was highly respected by all who knew her and her death is a severe shock to her devoted parents.

The funeral will be held from the M. E. Church this (Thursday) afternoon at two o'clock. Deceased was a member of the M. E. Sunday School—Mrs. S. L. Stoddard and Mrs. R. P. Heilman's class—and was very highly respected and spoken of by the Supt., Mr. T. E. Lloyd.

Surveying State Lines.

W. P. Mitchell, the well known surveyor of this city, with eight assistants is now engaged in making a survey of the state land in this section recently purchased by the state forestry reservation. There are nearly 100,000 acres embraced in this block of lands, which is to be known as the A. C. Hopkins reservation. The lands are in Clinton, Centre and Cameron counties. The work of running the lines was begun on what is known as the Kulp & Wolverton tracts on the Big Sandy and Panther creeks, tributaries of Beech Creek. Mr. Mitchell thinks it will take four to five months to make the surveys. Five thousand acres of the reservation is in Cameron county, all the rest being in Clinton and Centre—Clinton Republican.

Well Paid for Sitting up all Night.

Maseus Braun, a newspaper man, who obtained a verdict of $750 against W. Seward Webb, as president of the Wagner Palace Car company, because, after paying for a berth on a sleeping car, Mr. Braun found another man in his bed and was compelled to sit up all night, last Friday had that verdict confirmed by the city court's refusing to grant a new trial. The judge said he considered $750 little enough for such an inconvenience as Braun had suffered. The decision makes an important precedent and purchasers of berths in sleeping cars will know more about their rights than they ever did.

Burglar Caught.

Yesterday an Italian employed on the Emporium & Rich Valley R. R., made a wholesale raid upon "Italy," while his companions were at work, stealing watches, revolvers, rings and other valuables. The culprit had only been employed by the company a few days. The entire crew came to Emporium and succeeded in capturing the thief, who was taken before Squire Larrabee and default of bail was locked up. He is sure of a free trip down the river.

From Driftwood Gazette.

C. F. Laughton and wife spent a couple of days last week in Philadelphia. Mrs. J. O. Brookbank and daughter Ray have gone to Sizerville to spend the summer. Miss Margaret Murphy of Emporium visited friends here a couple of days last week. Miss Francis Huntley, who won the post graduating diamond medal at the Chicago musical college, has returned to her home in this place.

India Famine.

The First National Bank has forwarded $34.02 for relief of India famine sufferers. Contributions paid into the bank for that purpose.

BRIEF MENTION.

Three prisoners are now confined in Fort Swope.

There is quite a demand for dwelling houses in Emporium.

The restaurant (?) has departed, much to the satisfaction of West Fourth street residents.

On the way over, all references to icebergs will be considered personal by Croker.

A blind man may not see merit in others, though he can easily feel his own importance.

The Cuban voter cannot work off the story about having voted for every president since Jackson.

The Democratic party will never forgive the Republican party for making the country prosperous.

Judging from the demand for seats, national conventions would be a paying institution if put "on the road."

The platform ought to commend Bryan for the good he has done the country by staying out of the White House.

Constable Wygant brought a prisoner down from Sizerville yesterday, charged with robbing a trunk at Baldwin's camp.

Governor Stone has granted Birriolo, the Blossburg murderer, another respite, fixing the date of execution for October 30th.

"A man in love setting up his brains as a gauge of his position is as one determining a ship's longitude from a light at the masthead."

"If a man hoards riches and enjoys them not," says the Chicago News, "he is a fit companion for the donkey that dines on thistles when grass is plenty."

Friday evening of this week at 7:30 o'clock, the literary department of the Epworth League will give an interesting literary program. Everybody invited.

A huge rattlesnake was killed, a few days ago, near the residence of Hon. G. W. Warner. The warm weather is driving the snakes to the streams for water.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Baptist Church will serve supper, and ice cream and cake in the church parlors, Friday, July 20th. Supper 25c. The public patronage is respectfully solicited.

Our troops against the Chinese is like trying to dip a river dry with a tin-cup. No matter how many are killed their number seems to remain the same, and after a storm are many times multiplied.

"Our prayers are limited by our knowledge, but they are answered out of the wisdom of God. For that reason they are perhaps as often denied as granted, and in the denial the petitioners are most truly heard."

About sixty or seventy-five workmen, consisting of masons and carpenters, are transforming the land on Freeman Run selected for the pulp and paper mill site, into a veritable scene of industrial activity and in a short time one will begin to see the great effects of the men's efforts.—Austin Republican.

The President has acted in regard to China at exactly the right time. His declaration that no war is intended against that country although Americans will be protected to the fullest extent, and that the United States will endeavor to "maintain the territorial and administrative entity" of the empire, joined with the dispatch of additional troops, shows to the world that he proposes to maintain American interests despite greedy self-seekers abroad and cavers at home.

An exchange hits the nail pretty near the head when it says: It is the duty of the country editor to lie—it's a fact. He is supposed to say a whole lot of nice things about people who die—things that are not true. In fact it is his duty to outpuff a locomotive. As long as he lies he is all right and stands well in the community; but let him tell the truth—gee whiz! he brings on a storm worse than a cyclone. The class of editors that tells the truth are dead—to the newspaper world. They are now earning an honest living on a farm, or running a buzz saw in some coffin manufactory.

Ex-Senator Emery, the Democratic candidate for Congress against Mr. Sibley, is entitled to the thanks of the voters for the frank avowal on expansion and protection which he made in accepting the nomination from the McKean county Democrats. Mr. Emery is in favor of hauling down the Stars and Stripes in the Philippines and he is also opposed to protection! If, after that declaration, there are any Republicans who cast their vote for him they will do it in the knowledge of the fact that they are voting against the openly avowed policy of their organization, and in favor of one who has pledged himself to work and vote against it in Congress.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

EASTMAN'S KODAK

FRIDAY, Fair.
SATURDAY, Fair.
SUNDAY, Probably showers.

You can carry it in your hands, on your shoulder, in your pocket or on your bicycle. You press the button and the Kodak will do the rest.

LLOYD'S LONG RANGE FORECAST OF THE WEATHER AND EASTMAN'S KODAK.

BOOMING.

Spring trade is booming, notwithstanding the general complaint of dealers about the weather, forest fires and dull trade. We are up to date, away ahead of any previous season. Why? Clear-sighted men and women have discovered where they can get best and the most for their money in wall paper; in gloss white enamel paint, that will not turn yellow on exposure; in curtains that go up and down; in bicycles that will run ahead of anything on the road; in fishing tackle that catches the trout; in books and stationery that will interest you; in the news counter that has all the news that was, is and will be; and a good cigar that will smoke as free as the smoke in the forests.

That's why the people are flocking here as never before.

HARRY S. LLOYD.
