WHAT THE BOYS SAY

Congressionally—Facts Worth Consideration.

Mr. Emery accepted the Independent Republican nomination for Congress in the Bradford notification meeting with a great flourish of trumpets. What constitutes this Independent Republican organization?

Kane Republican.

The Philadelphia Press says: "The Bradford Star whose owner, a brother of ex-Congressman C. W. Stone, was a candidate for the Congressional nomination against Sibley, now supports the whole ticket, including Sibley. This is a pretty generous return for the slaughter of Congressman Stone two years ago."

AN UNCERTAIN POSITION.

Warren Mirror.

In Mr. Emery's speech of acceptance his reference to the monetary issue was very disappointing to many and especially so to some who were considering the matter of giving him their support. Judging from the equivocal meaning of his remarks upon this important question it appears that he has determined to assume a sort of luke-warm position in the matter so as not to offend his coterie of followers who are possessed of variegated political ideas. It is the general impression that as this is one of the most pertinent issues of the campaign that Mr. Emery should have dealt with it conclusively in his platform and not shifted the responsibility by stating that he will be governed, if elected, as the will of the majority at large demands.

EMERY AND HIS PLATFORM.

Franklin Citizen-Press. On Thursday last Hon. Lewis Emery, Jr., in a public speech at Bradford, accepted the Democratic nomination for Congress in this district, but he particularly repudiated the Democratic platform and presented one of his own in the form of a funny attempt to "straddle" both the Republican and Democratic platforms, with an endorsement of the "Middle-of-the-Road" Populist party in favor of governmental ownership of railroads.

The "half-and-half" plan of Mr. Emery to catch the Democratic party vote is grotesque and amusing. In defining his views on the question of expansion he practically declares that "the Constitution follows the flag," but immediately attempts to qualify his position in such a way as to soften the dose so that it may not nauseate Republicans whose votes he hopes to obtain.

Warren Mail.

As was expected and intended by the managers, Mr. Emery accepts the chance to run against Mr. Sibley for Congress on the Democratic and Mugwump ticket. After a good deal of effort a meeting was held in Bradford last Thursday evening. Largely attended by ladies and personal friends of Mr. Emery living in Bradford and vicinity, but the attendance of voters from Warren, Cameron and Venango counties was very small and disappointing. There was a good deal of red fire and hurra boys, but a lack of real, effective good accomplished in behalf of Mr. Emery. His speech was rambling and pointless, with a good deal of big I and little u—the personal pronoun being conspicuous from start to finish. He does not want to go to Congress, yet he accepts the chance offered him like a drowning man grasping at a straw. He says he is a Lincoln Republican, yet he enters a contest against the regular nominee of his party. A beautiful specimen of a Lincoln Republican! A regular burlesque on the term. His platform is cunningly put together, and is intended to catch "suckers" from all parties. He straddles every issue; carries water on both shoulders, and ponders to every political taste. In his whole speech he does not advance a single argument against the election of Mr. Sibley. Not the least excuse or apology does he—a Lincoln Republican—offer for assuming the role of a party wrecker. His plan is to catch Republican votes with the understanding that the Democrats will vote for any man in their mad desire for revenge upon Mr. Sibley, and will flock to the support of Mr. Emery—a Lincoln Republican! We think that somebody will be badly fooled and sucked-in by this farce. All Democrats are not fools or idiots, and they know they have a friend and a faithful, popular representative in Mr. Sibley, who has proven himself to be too good a representative to be turned down by the people of this district at the mere behest of a few disgruntled politicians who are after his scalp for their own personal benefit.

Do You Want a Change?

In the above five words is the issue of the political campaign this year, in county, district, state and nation. The Omaha Bee says this is a simple question that every citizen will ask himself before he casts his ballot and the verdict will depend upon the conclusion reached by a majority of the 15,000,000 voters who will record themselves on one side or the other next November.

It cannot be gainsaid that the American people are as prosperous and well to do this year as they ever have been. Do the American people want a change?

Does the great army of wage-workers, who are better fed, better clothed and better housed now than they have ever been, want a change?

Do the American farmers, whose products are in steady demand at good prices at home and abroad, want a change?

Do the merchants and tradesmen of this country, who are doing a larger business in the aggregate than ever before, want a change?

Do the manufacturers and employers of labor in mill and factory, whose products are marketable now at fair profit, want a change?

Do the professional men, whose services command higher remuneration than ever before, want a change?

This is the poser which neither Mr. Bryan nor any of his champions will be able to answer satisfactorily. They will talk about the Declaration of Independence, about the crime of 1873, about the beauties of free silver coinage, about the disastrous gold standard, about the menace of imperialism and militarism and about the rapacity of the trusts. But all these subjects are overshadowed by the question that dominates all men who are constantly striving to better their condition, but do not willfully and deliberately expose themselves and their families to a relapse to the distressing hard times experienced before the advent of McKinley and the ascendancy of Republican politics that have restored confidence, raised the national credit and set the wheels of industrial and commercial activity into motion.

What the average man would like is a holiday the day after a holiday.—Chicago News.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Green Co., Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by L. Taggart. Aug

A Mother Tells How She Saved Her Little Daughter's Life.

I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my little daughter had the dysentery in its worst form. We thought she would die. I tried everything I could think of, but nothing seemed to do her any good. I saw by an advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended and sent and got a bottle at once. It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the house. I saved my little daughter's life. I am anxious for every mother to know what an excellent medicine it is. Had I known it at first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my little daughter much suffering.—Yours truly, Mrs. Geo. F. Burdick, Liberty, R. I. For sale by L. Taggart. Aug

A Baby's Birth is very much like the blossoming of a flower. Its beauty and perfection depends entirely upon the care bestowed upon its parent. Expectant mothers should have the tenderest care. They should be spared all worry and anxiety. They should eat plenty of good nourishing food and take gentle exercises. This will go a long way toward preserving their health and their beauty as well as that of the little one to come. But to be absolutely sure of a short and painless labor they should use
