Zinc and Grinding Make Devoe Lead and Zinc Paint wear twice as long as lead and oil mixed by hand. The Hughesville Fair. The Hughesville fair, which has been outdoing many of the fairs in Central Pennsylvania in the display made and the number of people in attendance, promises to outdo itself this year. Preparations are being made for the greatest exhibit ever made and the side attractions will be many and interesting. The premium list has been revised and enlarged, while many improvements have been made on the grounds in the way of buildings and conveniences. The purses for racing has been enlarged, and there promises to be the largest string of fast horses present ever entered at a county fair in this State. The fair will extend over four days, Sept. 18, 19, 20 and 21. Williamsport Fair. The Midway at the Williamsport fair this year will be a great and successful attraction. Among the fair features will be Lionel Legare, phenomenal equilibrist, originator and performer of the biggest, strongest and most versatile equilibristic gymnastic act in the world. The spiral tower is the finest and costliest ever constructed. It is built of steel and aluminum and is a big attraction in itself. This is the first season for this act in America and is direct from the leading European amusement resorts. Two performances daily without charge. The act can be seen from all parts of the grounds. Other attractions on the Midway are the following: Trained animal show, the glass palace, miniature midway, Indian museum, Mlle. Christine, the two-headed lady; gypsy camp, the haunted swing, the crystal maze, etc. The agricultural feature will be much larger and finer than it was last year. From present indications the races will be highly interesting, and the management expect at least 100 horses from different parts of the United States. Everybody should make it a point to attend the fair. Don't forget the date—Sept. 11, 12, 13 and 14. Zinc and Grinding Make Devoe Lead and Zinc Paint wear twice as long as lead and oil mixed by hand. McCormick Wins at Paris. The McCormick Harvesting Machine Company of Chicago, has been awarded the Grand Prize on harvesting machines at the Paris Exposition. This is the highest award. The McCormick Company also received the highest award, a gold medal, on binder twine, for a superior quality of its product. Special twine machinery from the celebrated McCormick twine mill was exhibited to the jury and awarded a medal. The McCormick have received the largest number of awards, as well as the highest awards made to any American exhibitor. In addition to the Grand Prize on machines and Gold Medal on twine they have received two medals in the department of metallurgy for superiority in forming metals into special parts for machines; in the department of machinery a medal for factory machinery, and also silver and bronze medals in other classes, six medals in all, besides the Grand Prize. The International Juries of the Exposition have recognized the great revolution wrought by McCormick machines and this large number of awards is a great triumph for America. In addition to winning these awards, the Gold Medal and 200 francs, the single highest award for binders, was won easily by the McCormick Binder at the field trial at Concomiers on July 19, against all comers. This is the greatest and most important trial held in France during the Exposition year. Mr. C. H. Jessop, of Emporium, has the exclusive agency for Cameron county for the sale of all machinery made by this firm. Call and see him or write for particulars. See the girls in another column carrying large baskets of grapes to a winery in Portugal for making wine. It is worth reading about. Speer of New Jersey makes wine from the same grape. His wines are unsurpassed by any in the world.

A Million Cheered the Marching Vets. CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—For four hours and a half to-day the thinning ranks of the G. A. R. passed in review before their leaders and before probably a million spectators, packed in most solid masses along the four miles line of parade. It marked the climax of the thirty-fourth annual encampment of the association of veterans who filled the pages of history with deeds of heroism during the weary years of the civil war, and was, according to Commander-in-Chief Shaw, the greatest parade since that day in Washington, when the hundreds of thousands of veterans, the most powerful army on earth, marched in review to their final disembarkment. Probably 30,000 members of the army of veterans took part in the parade. For exactly four hours and twenty minutes, most of the time with ranks almost perfectly aligned, but occasionally filtering under the burden of their years, they filed past the reviewing stand on Michigan avenue, saluting as they marched by General Nelson A. Miles, Commander-in-Chief Shaw, General Daniel E. Sickles, General Joseph E. Wheeler, Mayor Harrison and the Spanish Minister, Don D'Arcos. VETS WERE TIRED OUT. Shortly after passing the reviewing stand the line of march disbanded and most of the veterans, tired with the hours of march sought their hotels and lodging places. Commander-in-Chief Shaw remained standing until the last veteran had filed by. "We will never have another parade like it," he said, turning to Bishop Fallows. "The comrades are getting old. Their years are pressing them closely. But this one will live in our memories." The evening was given up entirely to affairs of social character, the chief event being an informal reception to Commander-in-Chief Shaw, department commander and distinguished guests at Memorial Hall. It was largely attended, thousands of the old soldiers coming to greet the high officials of their organization. In twenty-six different places in the down town district reunions of states were held. The Ladies of the Woman's Relief Corps and the Ladies of the G. A. R. also held receptions during the evening. The annual business meeting of the G. A. R. will be held to-morrow morning in the Studebaker theatre, commencing at 10 a. m.
