Attest:—A. C. BLUM, Sec'y.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

To the Republican Voters of Cameron County:

My name has been mentioned as a candidate for Representative before the people at the Primaries to be held September 15th. While I feel confident that my nomination was a settled fact, and no fear of my election, yet I deem it my duty to aid in harmonizing all elements in the Republican party, therefore I ask my friends to refrain from voting for me. The success of Republican principles is of more importance to me than self. Thanking the many loyal friends for their very cordial support I would appeal to all to unite for the success of the party. Let us accord Mr. T. F. Moore, an honorable gentleman and a good Republican, our hearty support.

H. H. MULLIN.

Emporium, Pa., Sept. 6th, 1900.

Socialism and Individualism.

"Socialism is the final refuge of those who have failed in the struggle for life. It is the prescription of those who are born tired. It means the survival of the unfit, and the inevitable result would be degeneration. It would deprive ambition of its incentive, industry of its stimulus, excellence of its supremacy, and character of its reward.

"Individualism would lift all to the level of the highest. Socialism would drag all down to the level of the lowest. Individualism is progress and life. Socialism is stagnation and death."—New York Journal.

Live and Dead Towns.

Some communities progress, while others either stand still or retrograde. Sometimes this is due to natural conditions, but just as often it is due to the people themselves. A town will never grow unless the people in it care something for success. If each cares only for the individual prosperity, the town is destined to become dead. If the live towns are investigated, they are found to be towns in which the people have an interest in each other. They help along public enterprises both by good will and money. The dead towns are those in which the people want an indemnifying bond guaranteeing a profit of no less than ten per cent. before they will make an investment.—Philadelphia Record.

It's Up to Mr. Emery

Mr. Sibley Issues a Formal Challenge to His Opponent to a Series of Joint Debates.

Last evening Hon. Joseph C. Sibley mailed to Hon. Lewis Emery, Jr., of Bradford, the following courteous invitation to a series of joint debates, which it is earnestly hoped will be promptly accepted by the latter:

FRANKLIN, PA., August 29, 1900.

Hon. LEWIS EMERY, JR., Bradford, McKean county, Pa.:
My Dear Sir—We are both candidates seeking, I trust, to truly represent the people of the 27th Congressional District of Pennsylvania in Congress. It is reasonable to suppose that upon the platform we will present our respective claims to their support. Permit me to suggest that any divergent views entertained by us upon the great public issues now confronting the American people can be more lucidly expressed and elaborated through the medium of a joint debate, where each may interrogate the other and analyze the other's position, thus affording the voters the opportunity to hear the evidence and truly judge which one of us better interprets present problems and offers to the public the better solution. I therefore invite you to a series of joint discussions, the first to be held at Utica or Cooperstown, Venango county, as you may elect, Wednesday, September 19th, the discussion to follow on a subsequent day, to be at a point which you shall name, and so alternating in our choice of places; and these discussions to continue daily, Sundays excepted, until there shall have been held, at least, two joint discussions in Cameron county, and at least five in each of the other counties of the district. The rules governing the division of time to be formulated by the chairman of the Republican County Committee of Venango county, and any gentleman you may designate to act with him. Such rules as they may formulate will, of course, be subject to such modification as will insure absolute fairness to each participant.

If the date, September 19th, conflicts with any existing engagement you may have, let the date then be changed to any earlier period agreeable to you, and the places and the dates of the meetings be announced in the newspapers of the district.

I have the honor to be

Very respectfully yours,

JOSEPH C. SIBLEY.

DELAYED.

The Press has been delayed several hours this week owing to the non-arrival of paper, shipped on Aug. 31st. We hope to make arrangements whereby this will not occur in the future.

New Druggist.

Mr. W. J. McLees, of Lock Haven, a druggist of many years standing, has accepted a position in M. A. Rockwell's drug store, at this place. He comes highly recommended and it is hoped he may find his residence in Emporium pleasant.

Won One, Lost One.

Yesterday it was evident from the light attendance at the two games of ball that interest in the sport in Renovo is on the decline. A mere handful of people at the morning game and not the crowd that should have been in attendance in the afternoon. The old-time "rooters" were conspicuously absent. Here and there one might be found but the old sentiment seems to have worn off. The games were finely contested. Renovo lost the morning game nicely, runs being made after chances to retire the side had been offered. We were willing however to give that game to the Emporium boys in consideration of the victory in the afternoon. The score in the morning was 7 to 5 with Emporium playing the long shot. The odds were in favor of the western team for the afternoon game but to show the uncertainty of the game Renovo jumped in and beat Emporium out to the tune of 13 to 7. Here was a case of the favorite "damping" his followers for fair. The morning game should have been cut out of all records. This on account of the weird exhibition of umpiring. 'Twas a sort of relief to see Jim O'Connell handle the indicator for the afternoon game. For some reason we have not been furnished the regular score and lack of space will not permit our going into details. We cannot consistently overlook the fine work of Friel, Stout, Roach, Gordon and Colling for Renovo and the excellent playing of Crumph, Herwig, Ryan and "Gene" Mumford for Emporium.—Renovo News, Tuesday.

THE INDEPENDENT

Tells Why the People Should Stand by Mr. Sibley.

[From Independent, Nov. 3, 1898.]

No man of standing will sustain a small fry politician very long. Mr. Sibley's record in congress stands out above almost any other member of that body as the champion of the people's rights. He supported by speech and vote every measure that he knew was the demand of the common people. He is the especial representative of our old soldiers in fighting for every measure that permitted more liberality at the hands of the government. He may be said to be constantly paying pensions out of his own pockets, not as an annuity, but as temporary relief, and when our late soldier boys went to the front, Mr. Sibley, out of his great generosity and sympathy, went down into his pocket and contributed to the comfort of the boys even while in camp. When a congress he donated every cent.

There is one thing at least that I don't understand about this attack on Sibley through the democratic papers relative to the Standard Oil Co. I presume that the readers of this paper are in the dark on the same subject and on their account I am going to investigate the matter. If Sibley has become interested in the Standard since 1898, the Standard Oil Co. theory is all right and should receive proper attention by these papers. If he was interested in that organization during the campaign of two years ago to the same extent as he is to-day, the question that naturally arises is whether it is any more disreputable to possess such interest in this year of our Lord than it was two years ago, and if not, which is fair to concede, why weren't the aforesaid democratic newspapers making a hullabaloo about it then.—Port Allegany Reporter.

John Olson, a well known Swedish citizen of Renovo, suicided on Monday, by the rope route.

Notes and News.

It is time to be thinking about heavy underwear, and N. Seger has a fine line of these goods.

The Emporium band has reorganized and will be ready "to toot the horn" during the campaign.

Howard's mill was shut down from Friday of last week until yesterday morning on account of the line shaft breaking.

The Emporium schools will open on Monday next, and the pupils who will make up the roll are accordingly preparing for the event.

The Independent has swallowed Lew Emery and whoops it up for Bryan and Emery, not knowing or caring whether he casts his vote for McKinley or Bryan.

The Keystone Powder Company commenced active operations this morning with many men at work. Mr. A. C. Blum has taken the road as salesman. An excellent selection.

Mr. Sibley has issued a challenge to Mr. Emery to meet him in joint debate upon the issues of the day—two dates in this county and five in each of the other counties composing the district. Mr. Emery is a popular lecturer and orator. Dare he meet Mr. Sibley? NO!

It is reported that a young man being examined preparatory to joining the church was asked: "Under whose preaching were you converted?" "Under nobody's preaching," was the prompt reply, "I was converted under my mother's practicing." Did any preacher ever utter so powerful a sermon as the young man embodied in these few words?

An editor, who evidently knows what he is talking about says: "If the country editor were to snap at all the inducements held out he would soon be a millionaire—in his mind. If he ran a paper in accord with the popular notion he would soon be in the alms-house. If he published half the items sent him he would be in jail half the time and in the hospital the other half.

Seventy-five little folks of the primary department of the M. E. Sunday school, under the supervision of Mrs. J. P. McNarney and her assistants, were given a home picnic on the lawn of Geo. Metzger, Sr., Thursday afternoon of this week, where they were entertained with games and refreshments. They had an enjoyable time and left with the wish that they would have more of them.

Did Lewis Emery, Jr., vote for Bryan four years ago? The Bradford Star intimates very strongly that he did. The Republican voters of this county would like to know the facts about this Lincoln Republican's political status for the past eight or ten years. They know very well that he played "fast and loose" politically, when he was in the Legislature, but what he has been doing since is not quite so well known.—Kane Republican.

B. W. Green, Esq., of the Cameron county bar, is strongly endorsed by the Bar Association of that county for the appointment of Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania to fill the vacancy caused by the decease of Chief Justice Henry Greene. Mr. Green is an old practitioner of the Cameron county bar, of eminent ability and would rank with the best judges on the Supreme Bench. The Record would be pleased to hear of his appointment.—Renovo Record.

If, when Li Hung Chang Hockley, (and his brother Boxers) exhausts the Press files, at the court house, they will call at this office they may quote some very touching and beautiful opinions expressive of their admiration and love for Honest Jos C. Sibley two years ago. They are peaches, I. K., and should be framed, side by side, with those affectionate letters and handsomely endorsed and opportune checks, that were so highly prized and touched the spot. Throw a blanket over justice before daring to venture on the Hill with such sacred (?) mementoes.

The Boxer organ quotes from the PRESS of 1898. The editor of this journal is a Republican and hopes to remain one. Hon. C. W. Stone we heartily supported and we challenge those same chaps who now rave about the Republicanism of Lewis Emery, Jr., whose paper and entire connection supported Hon. C. W. Stone, a gentleman for whom we have the greatest admiration and respect, to inform the public if they did not, almost every one of them, support Mr. Sibley two years ago. If he was good enough then, he should be now. What's the matter with you anyway? Do you actually know? The PRESS is satisfied with Mr. Sibley's gallant stand with President McKinley, the Republican party and two-thirds of the sensible Democrats will applaud his patriotic course against hauling down the American flag.

LOCAL NOTICES.

Finest line of Baby Wagons and Go Carts at LaBar's, going at your own price. Don't take my word, don't take anyone else's word, but when you see for yourself you will know that others can't sell as low.

SHAW'S PURE MALT.—Perfect as a beverage or medicine. It prevents chills and tones up the system. It exhilarates and does not poison. Sold by F. X. Blumle, Emporium, Pa. n2-yl

NOTICE.—Having too much other business the undersigned desires to rent or sell his farm. Here is a chance for some good industrious farmer to make money. Terms easy. If sell or rent will furnish it stocked or not as desired. P. D. LEET, Atty. Emporium, Pa. 23-tf

The only absolute sure way to get value for value is to deal with those whose reputation is known and who are permanently located. N. Seger is such a business man, and it cannot be gainsaid that what he tells you is true and his word is law. Bay of N. Seger.

YOUNG MEN WANT 'em, with fair education and good character, to learn telegraphy, railroad accounting, and typewriting. This is endorsed by all leading railway companies as the only perfect and reliable institution of its kind. All our graduates are assisted to positions. Ladies also admitted. Write for free catalogue. GLOBE TELEGRAPH COLLEGE, 18-26t Lexington, Ky.

Don't pay any attention to what others say about prices at LaBar's, but go and see for yourself. Here are some of his prices: Hard-wood beds $2.00, good cotton top mattresses $2.00, not cheap, dirty straw, but good ones; bed springs $2.00. Come and see them.

POPULAR MUSIC FREE.—Every reader of the great Philadelphia Sunday Press next Sunday (September 9) will receive free a piece of sheet music which cannot be purchased at any music store for less than 50 cents. It is entitled "At an Old Virginia Wedding," and is certain to become one of the most popular selections of the year. The only way to get it is with next Sunday's Philadelphia Press, and you should order a copy from your newsdealer at once.

Serious Accident—One Man Killed. Last Monday night about 11 o'clock Goodyear's log train on Cauley Run started for Salt Run. Just as the engine passed over the hog-back the train broke in two, the cars rushing down the mountain. Edward Field, aged about 36 years, was standing on a car that contained his household goods when the cars jumped the track. Mr. Field was instantly killed. Deceased leaves a wife and one child, who reside at Wharton, where his remains were taken for burial yesterday. Mr. Field formerly resided in this county, on North Creek.

England called Washington a traitor in 1775. To-day our Republican friends call Aguinaldo the same thing.—Emporium Independent

The above is from the Emporium Independent of to-day and clearly proves the sentiments of Mr. I. K. Hockley, the Democratic chairman and political editor of the Independent. The idea of an American citizen upholding Aguinaldo the assassin and traitor and classing him with the patriot Washington will never be approved by the patriotic citizens of Cameron county and deserves their condemnation. It is needless to say that the same paper and the same Democratic chairman supports Emery for Congress. How do you patriotic citizens of Cameron county like it?

Tannery Changes.

A change will be made in the tannery business of L. R. Gleason & Sons in the course of a couple of months, whereby Superintendent Chas. Gleason, of the Crescent tannery, will be transferred to the Boston siderooms and L. W. Gleason, of Medix Run, will assume the superintendency of the Driftwood tannery. Charles Wheeler, of North Bend, will superintend the Medix Run tannery.

We regret very much the departure of Mr. Chas. Gleason and his estimable wife, and Driftwood loses one of its foremost business men and excellent families. They expect to leave for Boston about the middle of October. While we regret their departure we welcome the return of L. W. Gleason and his excellent wife and family. Mr. Gleason is a thorough business man and they will take their place among the leading families of our town and county. They will not transfer their household goods to this place until November and will occupy the Gleason homestead.—Driftwood Gazette. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gleason will be pained to hear that they have concluded to leave this county. Mr. Gleason is a gentleman for which we have the highest regard.

EASTMAN'S KODAK

FRIDAY, Fair.
SATURDAY, Showers.
SUNDAY, Probably Fair.

You can carry it in your hands, on your shoulder, in your pocket or on your bicycle. You press the button and the Kodak will do the rest.

LLOYD'S LONG RANGE FORECAST OF THE WEATHER AND EASTMAN'S KODAK.

BOOMING.

Spring trade is booming, notwithstanding the general complaint of dealers about the weather, forest fires and dull trade. We are up to date, away ahead of any previous season. Why? Clear-sighted men and women have discovered where they can get best and the most for their money in wall paper; in gloss white enamel paint, that will not turn yellow on exposure; in curtains that go up and down; in bicycles that will run ahead of anything on the road; in fishing tackle that catches the trout; in books and stationery that will interest you; in the news counter that has all the news that was, is and will be a good cigar that will smoke as free as the smoke in the forests. That's why the people are flocking here as never before.

HARRY S. LLOYD.
