Only the purest drugs are good for sick people. They can't afford to experiment. You may safely trust your prescriptions with us. We make a specialty of this work and are proud of the success we have achieved. Doctors appreciate the care and accuracy with which their prescriptions are compounded and that accounts for our large trade.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

A TALE OF A RAT. While I was in the drug store of Mrs. M. A. Rockwell, I heard a stampede of a score or more. How many, I couldn't tell. I was sure it was a chariot race, and one of "tit for tat." But Mrs. Rockwell, with a smile on her face, said, "The girls are killing a rat." It was just overhead you see, and nothing to break the sound, and that is why it seemed to me so many were around. I really ne'er could tell you, no matter how I might try, how the chairs and tables flew, and how those girls did fly. It made me think of a skating rink, and then of a falling wall, it surprised what one might say or think, and I never could describe it all.

PERSONAL GOSSIP. Contributions invited. That which you would like to see in this department, let us know by post card, or letter, personally.

Ralph Fornwalt has returned to Emporium. Chas. Fry, of Port Allegany, is visiting in town. Dennis Slattery, of St. Marys, was in town on day last week. Mrs. Ed. Blinzler and son are visiting her parents at St. Marys this week. Miss Nellie Mullen, of Buffalo, is visiting her grandpa Mr. Henry Edgcomb on Fifth street. Mrs. Jennie King and son, of Mercer, are visiting A. E. Grose and family. Mrs. King is sister of Mrs. Gross. Mr. E. G. Coleman was called to Warren last week as a witness in an important law suit. The case was settled. S. S. Miller, of Driftwood, was in town on Tuesday. We did not see his pockets bulged out with rambos—wonder if they are scarce. Miss Eva Yates, of Buffalo, formerly bookkeeper for the Climax Powder Company at this place, visited in town this week, guest of Mrs. S. S. Smith. Mrs. Thos. Gallagher entertained at five o'clock tea, Tuesday, a number of lady friends in honor of her sister, Mrs. W. H. DeLong, who shortly returns to her Florida home. Mr. and Mrs. Pepperman, who visited their son John Pepperman and family at this place the past several weeks, returned to their home at Williamsport last Friday afternoon. Mrs. Lulu H. Fulton who spent the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Healy, at this place returned to her home in Chicago, last Monday, accompanied by her sister, Miss Lena Healy. Thos. H. Norris, of Portland Mills, visited in town on Sunday, guest of C. C. Fay and wife. He met his wife and son at this place on Monday morning. Their friends will be pleased to learn that their child has greatly improved with the treatment received in Philadelphia. John Ulrich, of Spring street, is the happy papa of a nine pound girl. She made her advent into the world Sept. 4th, and John says she belongs to "dot leedle German band." The Climax Powder Company will no doubt get twenty-eight boxes of per day from John's hopper now. Yesterday morning the Press sanctum was visited by two esteemed friends and jolly good fellows—Dan'l Webster and W. A. Sprung. We were glad to meet them and exceedingly pleased to hear that Dad Sprung had decided to lease the mill pond and go into the duck business on a large scale. Friend Webster is greatly interested in Emporium's stock exchange and initiated Pap before returning home.

Mrs. G. S. Allen is visiting her parents at Allenville, N. Y.

Miss Mary O'Byrne, of Boston, is visiting her parents at this place. Miss Sue Burkle, clerk in Climax office, is enjoying a trip up the lakes. Miss Mary Davison returned to Wilson college, at Chambersburg, last Friday. Miss Anna Metzger and her friend Miss Winward, returned to Boston yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shives are enjoying a visit to Erie, Cleveland and other points. Harry Fahnestock departed Sunday night for Chambersburg to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Miss Mary Crotty, of Salamanca, N. Y., is visiting her sister, Mrs. John Blinzler, at this place. Misses Eva and Lotta Brooks, of Sinnamahoning, were guests of Mrs. Lulu H. Fulton last week.

Miss Grace Leet accompanied by Miss Mary Groves, of Coudersport, left yesterday for Wilson college, at Chambersburg. Chas. Norton, John R. Libby and J. H. Desmond, of Sterling Run, while visiting in town last Friday made the Press office a social visit.

Mrs. W. Grant Egbert and daughter sailed from New York city last Saturday for Paris, where she will remain for one year or more to pursue her musical studies.

Maurice Montgomery, who has been visiting his sister, Miss Alice Montgomery, at this place, left this morning for his home in Mexico, where he is employed as an engineer on the Mexican Northern R. R.

Rev. Ira T. Walker and wife, of Smethport, were guests of Geo. A. Walker and family several days last week. The Rev. gentleman is Mr. Walker's cousin and is pastor of M. E. church at Smethport.

Notes and News.

Jos. C. Sibley stands for William McKinley. Upon what platform does Mr. Emery stand? The people would like Mr. Emery to say for whom he intends to vote for President, McKinley or Bryan.

The Press notices in this week's issue of the Independent that Mr. Emery is opposed to President McKinley's foreign policy and will oppose the Republican policy of expansion, or in other words is in favor of giving up the Philippine Islands, territory of which Uncle Sam bought and paid for. You would haul down the American flag, would you? Of course you would.

The Independent scribbler feels awful bad about "Sibley's drips." Having tasted them to the fullness thereof, his mouth waters for just one more taste. Don't worry, Mr. Emery too well knows how you expended (?) that same "molasses" two years ago to trust your gang. Narry a cent will you handle, only just enough to lead you on—a taste, "as it were." No "division and silence" in this game.

Mr. Emery: If elected to Congress will you vote with the Republicans upon organization of the House or with the democrats? Did you or did you not pledge yourself to the democratic congressional delegates to vote with the democratic party upon organization of Congress? Will you or will you not vote for the election of a Republican speaker of Congress, upon whom devolves the duty of appointing the committees? If elected to Congress are you not pledged to "deal" with the democratic managers?

Will Resume.

Miss May Gould will return from her summer vacation next Monday and desires to inform her music scholars that her lessons will resume Monday, Oct. 1st.

A Smoker.

The Maccabees held a smoker last Friday evening in their lodge room, and we are authorized to announce that there are a few "smokers" left, and those who attend next Friday evening may enjoy them.

Serious Accident.

Last Friday, Mr. J. J. Schwab, a highly respected farmer who resides near Cameron, met with a serious accident while driving home from Emporium. When near the Wiley basin his team became frightened at an approaching train and made an attempt to get away. Mr. Schwab was thrown from his wagon and dragged quite a distance, being severely bruised. The horses became detached from the wagon which was thrown down the steep embankment and completely demolished. Mr. Schwab was conveyed to his home through the kindness of Mrs. J. S. Wiley. Dr. Smith reports the injured man improving.

Death's Doings.

Michael Creighton, aged about 75 years, died at the family residence in this place, Friday morning, after an illness of only a few weeks. Mr. Creighton has resided in Emporium for many years and was always a quiet, industrious and good citizen. We had been intimately acquainted with the deceased for many years and greatly esteemed his friendship. Deceased leaves a wife and three daughters, Miss Margaret at home; Mrs. Thos. Mullen, Clarendon; Mrs. M. J. Byrnes, Mt. Alton, Pa.; and a brother, Con. Creighton, of Falls Creek, Pa. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon and was very largely attended. Interment was made in St. Mark's cemetery.

Is the Independent supporting Mr. Emery for its health? Or, is the "bond and bondage" contract in full force?

No use shivering and shaking when a few cents will supply you with ample underwear for the winter and save you many times their price in medicines, if you buy of N. Seger.

New fall styles ladies and Misses Hats at Mrs. Bardwell's. No formal stated opening, but the latest, most stylish designs will arrive daily from now on.

The Democratic county convention is in session as we go to press and will go through the form of nominating a ticket to be knocked down by the people Nov. 6th.

the most trustworthy candidate, and a man that any voter can conscientiously support. When a man flops from one party to another and is at once given the nomination for the highest office obtainable at the time, there is something rotten in the deal, there is unlawful scheming on the face of it; there is a nigger in the woodpile. Elect Mr. Emery and you will have a man who will represent the district in an honest manner, and he is no demagogue."

That was under the date of Sept. 12th. May I call your attention to a letter received by me, dated July 23rd of this year, from the editor of the Weekly Gazette, of Driftwood, Pa. It reads as follows:

MR. J. C. SIBLEY, Franklin, Pa.: Dear Sir:—The campaign is now on and the 27th district promises to furnish a battle royal for Congress. I am conducting a paper which has since 1876 been run as a neutral paper. It covers the end of the district in line shape. What will you give for the exclusive use of the Gazette during the fall campaign? Last fall I rented two columns to each party at the rate of 20 cents per line, allowing me to remain neutral but as you are both Republicans I am willing to throw my support to the one who can see the most in it. The paper is read by people of all parties and should be the best paper in the county to reach the voters. By securing the Gazette you will have the support of two of the three papers published in the county, and will know that the money expended will be used in your behalf. It is said that not one-tenth of the money spent here during the last campaign ever went out of the hands of those who were to distribute it. Hoping to hear from you soon I remain, yours truly, JOS. S. JOHNSTON.

I have not answered this letter and I shall never answer such letter. Now, what do you suppose I care when the Joseph S. Johnstons publish their denunciations? (Great applause.)

A GENEROUS OFFER. Now my friends, you have some charitable organizations. You have your labor unions and your benevolent associations formed for the purpose of bringing great blessings to our common brotherhood. You shall not have to depend upon those who for such purposes publish such utterances and stultify the common honesty that ought to pertain to man. Allow me to make this suggestion kindly. I suppose the labor unions of the city of Bradford always have abundant means to help some worthy brother or some worthy cause. We shall lift politics out of the lower domain and bring it up where it can look into the face of honest manhood. I want you to help me to this joint discussion, therefore, I will make you this offer: The minute you bring me Mr. Emery's acceptance of my invitation I will contribute to your union $1,000 in cash. If the labor unions cannot bring enough influence to bear on him, then let some of the other benevolent associations try it, and whoever first secures the acceptance will have the $1,000 to dispose of in the name of sweet charity and there will be no corruption in such use of money. (Applause.)

A BOOMERANG.

When Mr. Sibley was quoting the Driftwood Gazette's complimentary remarks concerning Mr. Emery and his candidacy a party of Emeryites who had been "planted" ostensibly for the purpose of interrupting Mr. Sibley and humiliating him, set up a howl of applause which they kept up for some time. Mr. Sibley smiled and said, "Go on, boys, I would not give much for you if you did not applaud at the mention of Mr. Emery's name. He is your fellow townsman; but you won't applaud when I get through with this." Mr. Sibley read on, being frequently interrupted. When he laid down the clipping and began to read the letter which offered to sell out to Mr. Sibley the Emeryites were still as mice. They were the humiliated ones then, and Farmer Dean and others of the Emery rooters were not in a mood to howl. But the Republicans did the shouting then. It was their turn to yell and they did so with a will.

Hon. I. K. Hockley, in last week's Independent, worries greatly because the editor of this journal consulted his own sweet will and declined to enter the field as a candidate for Member of Assembly. If the political prophet of Cameron county was so anxious for a "walk-over" as he expresses it, why did he show the white feather and refuse to accept the nomination at the hands of his party when we entered the field as the nominee of the Republican party in 1894? You made such a gallant contest against Hon. J. C. Johnson and was entitled to and urged to accept the customary second term. If we are so easily "walked-over" you should not dare others to do that you have not the sand to do yourself. We are proud of the loyal support we received from the non-purchasable people of this county, especially in 1896 and 1898, and the past has demonstrated the fact that in spite of the wholesale debauchery of the voters we have kept you exceedingly busy to "walk-over" us. We suppose our friend's fond desire for that senatorial nomination caused him to muse to himself, "I'll run away and live to fight (my friends) some other day." Our friend is not consistent in his argument. Try again.

It looks now as though the Wesleyan Methodist parsonage in Rich Valley is to be something more than talk. A beautiful site has been secured adjoining the church which was obtained through the generosity of Mr. Josiah Howard and wife as a gift. The work of digging the cellar began last week and is being pushed as rapidly as possible.

Zinc and Grinding Lark Devoe Lead and Zinc Paint wear twice as long as lead and oil mixed by hand. The Independent has much to say about "pliable papers" supporting Mr. Sibley. Every journal in the district that supported Hon. C. W. Stone, two years ago, to-day supports Mr. Sibley. The Independent should call off its fool contributors before the Press will be forced to ask some pointed questions. This nonsensical rot of impugning the motives of always reliable, consistent Republican papers may be democratic politics, but it smells rotten. Tickets for the Byron King entertainment will be on sale this week; price, 25 cents. Reserved seats 10 cents extra, on sale at H. S. Lloyd's from Saturday noon. Doors open at 7:30; entertainment begins at 8 o'clock.
