Letter to Ed. Rogers.

Dear Sir: There are several ways of cheating in milk. An old-fashioned way is to water it. Nobody waters it now. A better way is to take out the cream—rich milk with the cream taken out is as good as poor milk with its cream all in. But we needn't go into particulars. You don't rob your milk and your customers. Paint is as easy as milk to cheat with. Good paint is as rare as good milk; for human nature is much the same in milkmen and paint men. You are just and true with your milk; so are we with our paint. Devote lead and zinc is twice as good as pure white lead; lasts twice as long. There's twice as much butter in it.

Yours truly, F. W. DEVOE & CO.

It is a master mind that succeeds in solving the perplexing problems in the text books.

Congressional Comment.

Port Allegany Press: Persons who are astonished that the Emery people should try to get votes with money ought to reflect that there is no other way to get them. The only thing that scares this honest candidate is the fear that their purchases will not "stay bought."

Port Allegany Reporter: The Bradford Record, to be funny, asks if Mr. Sibley wants Emery to discuss with him in order to "draw a crowd worth talking to." The trouble is the Sibley men are "worth talking to," but don't need talking to. Mr. Sibley is not calling the regular righteous Republicans but the Emery kickers to repentance. Whether the latter are "worth talking to" depends upon whether they have sense enough to know what they are doing. The outlook in that direction is not encouraging.

Tidouite News: When Joseph met his brothers in Egypt he fell on their necks and embraced them although they had treated him nearly as mean as Emery has treated Sibley. If Emery ever gets enough strength in his knees to meet Joseph on the platform, as his attorney announced publicly that he would "gladly" do, the falling on his neck will be as emphatic if not as agreeable as that experienced by the sons of Jacob.

Ceres Mail: The mail service between Franklin and Bradford is out of fix, or has a very loose screw at the upper end. Nearly three weeks have gone since Mr. Sibley asked Mr. Emery by letter to name the time and place when he could meet the latter in public debate as proposed by Mr. Emery's attorney publicly and in presence of Mr. Emery, at the Coopers-town Harvest Home. If Mr. Emery did have the cholera infantum at Clintonville, he don't need to "belly ache" on this matter.

Youngsville Citizen: Mr. Emery's Bradford Record is driven to the humiliating confession that the articles advocating the election of Mr. Sibley in 1898 were "printed in the Record for the money there was in it." Mr. Lewis Emery owns that paper. He pays for running it and all its profits go into his pocket. Part of these profits in 1898 were derived from helping the Democrats to elect Sibley "for the money there was in it." Better put up a new sign on the Record. "Opinions for sale, L. Emery."

Mt. Jewett News: Is the campaign for Emery an effort to elect him? A man don't have to get up a very high tree to have it look like a money making scheme to line the pockets of the reformers. The passing of the hat all over the country has been heard from as far west as Dakota. This bunco game works it ought to bring in from the 45 states a very large fund. It looks quite probable that the Emery fakirs are doing the whole United States and will elope when the polls close quicker than the whip man from the county fair.

Smethport Miner: The following appeared in Mr. Emery's Bradford Record of September 4 as a selected clipping from the Meadville Democrat:

"After Mr. Sibley found that he had got the worst of it at the Cooperstown picnic last Saturday he openly challenged Mr. Emery to meet him at the Utica Harvest Home and discuss the political situation. Mr. Emery properly replied that he had accepted an invitation in writing to speak at Utica, but not to introduce politics; but added that he would be glad to accommodate Mr. Sibley with a joint discussion later, when proper arrangements could be made."

When a man circulates what another says of him he endorses it as true. Emery's paper published the above as information and thereby acknowledged its truth. Now we wish to ask if it is not full time for Mr. Emery to signify his "gladness" at the prospect of meeting Sibley in joint debate, in some other way than by keeping at a distance? He will be so "glad" to accommodate Mr. Sibley that he hasn't the time to answer the latter's letter, asking when and where his "gladness" will begin.

Republicans should not be fooled into voting for democratic candidates for the legislature simply to place Jim Guffey into the United States Senate. They will cry Quay until they are black in the face but does anybody believe Guffey would represent the wishes of Pennsylvania and vote to sustain the President.
