A Cry from the Drowning Crew.

We almost neglected to call attention to the wail of woe that emanated from the brilliant (?) pen of Hon. L. Taggart in last week's Independent. Mr. Taggart, it is well known by our people, is the Emery manager in this county, and, therefore, the dispenser of the Pure Oil Company's "pap" in the interest of reform (?). He directs his letter principally to us, else we should not have noticed it. We have never yet alluded to the gentleman politically in these columns, and he states an untruth when he says we "delight in keeping my name prominently displayed." During the past eighteen years he has not been classed as a Republican, having been afflicted, terribly afflicted, with the political belly-ache; and not until this year has he presented himself at a Republican primary election, when he was a candidate for delegate to the last county convention in the interest of Mr. Emery. The Republican voters evidently understood and were not to be fooled, for out of a large attendance he only received three votes. Nevertheless, by participating in the Republican primary election as a candidate, Mr. Taggart became in honor bound to support the Republican ticket this year if he never did before. We have not the time or space to devote to the un-called-for wail of Mr. Emery's "pap" handler. He has followed Emery ever since they both bolted the Republican caucus nomination for United States Senator, and General Beaver for Governor, a patriotic Lincoln Republican, who lost a leg upon the field of battle that this government might not die. "Emery a consistent Republican." Did you ever know Lewis Emery, Jr., to visit this county, or any other, only when he was assailing Republican candidates, or was a candidate himself? Had Mr. Taggart during the last decade, in a single instance, raised his voice or given an hour to the success of Republican candidates or principles, he might have some little influence with the voters. He has none, and hence his tirade against Republican candidates, as usual. He prates about "machine politicians," yet forgets (but the people do not) the days when he was the boss of the "machine" in this county, and continued as such as long as he was pulling the political teat—holding the office of postmaster at Emporium for two full terms, one term in the legislature and other emoluments. It was the same "machine," Mr. Taggart—the great Republican party—that will bury bogus reformers, for all time, on the 6th of November. In his eagerness to make a showing he publishes the names of a number of gentlemen and would endeavor to leave the impression that they are in the same sinking craft with himself and his crew. After erasing the names of the gentlemen who are not, and have not been for years residents of the county, one dead, several who are straight-out Republicans and express themselves as such, his company is very slim. No, Mr. Taggart, the voters of this county have no halter around their necks this year and will vote for Jos. C. Sibley, who will receive a handsome majority, despite the fact that your Pure Oil "soap" has been subscribed, it is currently reported, in the modest sum of $750,000 to debauch the voters in the interest of Emery and reform. Since molasses seems to trouble our friend whose "conscience is as clear as the sun," may we ask whether that $150 per month applies to himself and his committee of reformers?

Personally we have nothing to say against Mr. Emery or Mr. Taggart. Their case is with the people.

Just one word more. Mr. Taggart seeks to cast undue reflection upon the chairman of the Republican county committee for refusing to place names of candidates for Congress upon the ballots to be voted for at the primary election, contrary to the party rules. All candidates were treated alike—Mr. Sibley and Mr. Allen. Senator Emery was not a candidate for the nomination at that time and was not until after Mr. Sibley was nominated—Senator Emery's paper enthusiastically supporting him. Our chairman is an honorable gentleman and obeyed the party rules, ruling the same as the former chairman did. The charge that unfair means were resorted to is unjust and untrue. Our party rules only provide for the printing of names for offices to be voted for, or nominated by the county convention and does not allow the placing of names upon the ballots for district or state conventions.

It is not necessary for the editor of this journal to explain why he visits other towns any more than it is our business to ask Mr. Taggart why he finds it convenient to call at Bradford or Philadelphia. Rest assured we were not scheming to defeat the Republican party. This journal, its present editor or his predecessor, were never classed as Bolters, thank God. No man's money has ever influenced its course, and never will as long as we are at its helm and you know that from past history.

Harry Shadman, night watchman at C. B. Howard & Company's mill at this place has been suffering greatly from a severe case of blood poison in his left hand and arm. He is improving now, under Dr. Baker's treatment.

Honesty is the only safe method of business. Fool or cheat a man and he will find it out, and you not only lose his trade but his friends will leave you. N. Seger always gives you full value for your money.

Assembly Ball.

Our young men will give the second Assembly Ball at the opera house, Friday evening and it is expected a large number of invited friends from neighboring towns will be in attendance. The popular Chappell Orchestra, of Williamsport, will be in attendance. Those receiving invitations will enjoy a pleasant evening.

Destroyed by Fire.

H. W. Martindale's hotel, at Sizer-ville, was totally destroyed by fire yesterday morning at 10:30. The cause of the fire was a defective flue. Most of the furniture was removed. The loss on building and furniture is about $5,000, upon which we learn there was an insurance of $4,000. We have not learned of Mr. Martindale's plans in relation to rebuilding.

A Great Success.

The Teachers' Institute, now in session, is well attended and one of the most successful ever conducted in this county. The evening sessions have been largely attended, the class of lecturers and entertainers being far above the average. Miss Collins has reason to be proud of her efforts.

Notice to Football Players.

The practice of playing football on the public streets of Emporium having become a nuisance and complained of by taxpayers as such, the kicking or throwing of footballs on the highways of this borough is ordered discontinued under penalty of law.

Arrived too Late.

In our last issue we informed our readers that Chas. L. Butler had been called to New Castle, N. B., by a telegram informing him of his father's serious illness. Mr. Butler arrived at his old home on Saturday morning at 6:25 a. m., his father having died the previous night, in his 75th year. Deceased has visited Emporium and is favorably known by many of our citizens, the PRESS editor especially having had the pleasure of his acquaintance and we found him a very intelligent gentleman. While a British subject he took great interest in American politics and was a stalwart Republican.

Obituary.

The funeral of James C. Nicholson took place Tuesday afternoon from his late home, 144 Whiteman street, North Chelmsford, Mass. Rev. Mr. Dexter, pastor of the Middlesex Village church, officiated. Among the floral tributes was a large willow inscribed in blue immortelles, "Brother" from a sister of the deceased; a large spray of roses and china asters from the bereaved wife; several bouquets, Mr. and Mrs. Hunter, Mrs. Webster, Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, Mr. and Mrs. John Fields; spray of roses and pinks, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mann, of Lynn. The interment was in the North Chelmsford cemetery.—Exchange.

Deceased was well known in this place, having visited here last fall accompanied by his wife.

BUCKLEY.

Mrs. David Buckley, aged 24 years, died at Austin Hospital last Monday of typhoid fever, leaving a husband and one child. The deceased was a daughter of our townsman Michael Mulcahey and her remains were brought to Emporium for burial on Tuesday, the funeral taking place from St. Mark's church on Wednesday morning at 9:00 o'clock, funeral director B. Egan taking charge of the funeral arrangements.

An article in the Kane Leader signed "E. K. K." evidently Elsha K. Kane, the most prominent prohibitionist in the state, says: "These times are critical. Next congress must pass laws deciding the fate of nations, and shaping the course of our country for war or for woe. The writer feels that now if ever, we need statesmen of courage and fidelity, who will place principle before party. And he sees such a statesman in J. C. Sibley."

Do not forget that the greatest Republican mass meeting of the campaign will be held in the Opera House, Emporium, next Wednesday evening, October 24th, when Hon. Jos. C. Sibley, Hon. C. W. Mackey, Col. Evans and Gen. Thos. J. Steward will address the assemblage.

The great coal miners' strike is practically settled, the operators having granted every demand of the miners. It is probable the miners will resume work on Monday.

GIRL WANTED—To do general household work. Apply to G. F. Balcom.

Don't forget "Above the Clouds," by local talent, at the opera house, early in November.

Probably Another Mill.

Josiah Howard, Esq., entered for record at the court house, on Monday, a deed for a portion of the Mattison farm, adjoining the Borough line. We understand this is a preliminary move toward the building of a new saw mill by C. B. Howard & Company, although we have no definite information of that fact.

The People's Course.

The People's Popular Star Course will open Wednesday, Oct. 31. The tickets are in the hands of the committees and are being disposed of to the subscribers. Let all who have not received a course ticket promptly do so, to the advantage of this is apparent to all—five fine attractions for $1.50, including reserved seat. The chart will open Saturday, Oct. 27th, at 9 o'clock, at Lloyd's bookstore, for reserved seats. No one person will be allowed to reserve more than six seats at a time.

Promotion.

H. D. Burlingame, of Emporium, who for several years has been traveling salesman for Jacob Dold Packing Company, of Buffalo, has met with a flattering recognition at the hands of his employers, having been appointed district agent, with headquarters at Altoona. Mr. B. will have entire charge of the business of twelve counties. The promotion takes effect Nov. 1st, when he will move his family from Emporium. We are always pleased to see Cameron county boys climb the ladder, therefore we congratulate Mr. Burlingame.

A Genuine Lincoln Republican.

Our old friend J. R. Buckwalter, of Winchester, Ky., sends us several copies of the "Civil Liberty Democrat," published in his town, a paper that is battling to defeat the miserable gang of cut-throats that are disgracing Kentucky and defying public sentiment. Mr. B. is chairman of the Republican county committee of Clark county and sends us some samples of speeches he has issued for Republican meetings in that town to be addressed by Teddy Roosevelt and other Republicans. How well we remember the sledgehammer blows dealt by this stalwart Lincoln Republican when a resident of Cameron county and how many times we have wished the return of those old-time hustlers to Cameron, many of whom have passed to the other shore.

Prof. Stauffer and Rev. McNeil.

The reception in the High School building last night, to Prof. and Mrs. Stauffer, was a decided success. Notwithstanding the weather being very unfavorable, more than two hundred were present. Miss Mary Westcott made the opening address, after which she introduced James E. Mitchell, who spoke in behalf of the Board, paying many respects to Prof. Stauffer's ability as an educator. Prof. S. C. Smith was next introduced and his speech in behalf of the teachers, scholars, Alumni and citizens of Millville, was worthy of comment. Prof. Stauffer responded with warm words of thanks and assurances that it would ever be his duty and pleasure as supervising principal, to promote the educational welfare of Millville. At the request of the president Miss Mary Westcott, Rev. W. R. McNeil a retired Baptist minister, formerly of Emporium and for many years a close associate of Prof. Stauffer, while they were at that place, addressed those present, his good advice combined with wit and humor, was listened to and enjoyed by all very much.

Miss Hannah Chew sang a solo with such success that it demanded an encore. Misses Ella Harold and Mable Ware then favored those present with a piano duet, followed by a mandolin and guitar duet by the Misses Vannaman. Refreshments were served in the hall throughout the evening.—Millville, N. J., Republican. The above will be read by the PRESS readers of this county with pleasure. No persons ever resided in this county who left more friends than Prof. H. F. Stauffer and Rev. McNeil. Our Jersey friends will always find both gentlemen in the front rank at all times and are men to be trusted in all emergencies—in school, church or political questions. Both are gentlemen of pronounced convictions and never hide their opinions under a half-bushel measure.

FEED PRATT'S DAY'S FEED ANIMAL REGULATOR. POULTRY POWDER AND YOU ARE BOUND TO REAP GOOD RESULTS.

LOOK OUT FOR "JUST AS GOOD FOODS" and imitations of Pratt's. Get the Genuine. We are legitimate agents. Did you ever know an imitation to be as good as the article it imitates?

HERE ARE A FEW REASONS why you ought to feed Pratt's Food. It makes hens lay early and continue laying regularly throughout the cold winter months; it fattens quickly the Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's turkeys; it makes them grow larger and they are better eating. It makes hog-killing time profitable, because the pigs fatten faster and are much larger than ordinary feed hogs, and as they are kept free from disease their meat in consequence is more juicy and tender. It helps cows during changeable weather from summer to fall. It increases the milk during the cold weather; it produces more butter and fattens cattle for killing rapidly. It helps horses during the fall and winter weather it cures and prevents coughs, colds, pneumonia, &c., &c. Sheep are better able to stand the test of fall and winter, they grow larger and their meat has a better flavor. A sheep in good condition always produces more and better wool. Pratt's Practical Hand Book full of important and useful information to all who are in any way interested in stock, for the asking.
