Fully Awakened.

Silver Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Freck celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding at their home in Carrier, Pa., last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Freck formerly resided in Emporium and will be pleasantly remembered by many of the Press readers. Ye editor acknowledges the receipt of an invitation to be present and certainly would have enjoyed the occasion. Well, friends, we are all growing old, and rapidly, too, it seems.

Rural Free Delivery.

The development of the Rural Free Delivery service has been fostered by the Republican party only. The first appropriation made for this purpose was $50,000, the next $150,000, then $300,000, and last year $1,750,000.

The service is now in operation in every state and territory in the Union. In Ohio there are 30,000 families living on farms served daily; Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, and Iowa have from 12,000 to 20,000 families living in each state whose mail is delivered daily at their doors by Uncle Sam.

The Rural Free Delivery system is endorsed by the Republican party in its platform this year. The Democratic platform makes no mention of it.

The Chart to Open.

The chart for the Ariel Ladies' Sextette, the first attraction of the People's Course, opens at Lloyd's book store Saturday morning next at 9 o'clock. Holders of course tickets, on presentation of their tickets, will receive a reserve seat coupon without extra charge. The above attraction appeared in the Institute course at Coudersport last week and scored a great success.

The Potter Democrat, of Oct. 18, says: "The large audience which attended the concert given by the Ariel Ladies' Sextette (Smith Sisters), at the opera house Monday evening, certainly enjoyed one of the best entertainments presented to a Coudersport audience. Each number on the program was of special merit and the audience could hardly be satisfied, as encore after encore prolonged the entertainment to nearly double its advertised length. Especial mention should be made of the readings of Miss Marguerite Smith and the solo work by Miss Gertrude Atwood. The majority of those who attended will doubtless vote for the annual return of the Smith Sisters."

The entertainment given by the Epworth League last Friday evening was very enjoyable although it was not on a large scale. Next Friday evening the Literary department of the society will entertain those who wish to attend. It is one thing to acquire a good reputation and another thing to keep it. Thirty years doing business in one place, with one people, ought to be sufficient evidence that N. Seger has maintained this distinction.

Letter to R. C. Dodson.

Emporium, Pa.

Dear Sir: Some think we take a good deal of risk in inviting complaints of Devoe lead and zinc—we authorize our agent to sell it under this guarantee:

"If you have any fault to find with this paint, either now in putting it on, or hereafter in the wear, tell your dealer about it. We authorize him to do what is right for our expense."

J. H. Asher & Co., hardware dealers, Rhinebeck, N. Y., have sold Devoe from '76 to now, and have had just one complaint in all this time.

Three sides of a house were perfect; the fourth was as bad as the three were good. Explanation—It rained the night before the fourth side was painted; and the painter didn't wait for the wood to dry.

What is done in such a case? Whatever the dealer, who sold the paint, considers it fair to do. We leave it to him. He may not do exactly as we would do if we were there; but we are not there. The best we can do is to leave it to him.

Yours truly, F. W. DEVOE & Co.

C. W. Williams took a load of choice potatoes, 52 bushels, to Driftwood, on Monday.

J. M. English and wife attended the funeral of Mattie Seward's child, on Huston Hill, on Saturday.

Misses Madge and Louise Miller of Huston Hill were the guests of their aunt, Mrs. B. L. Russell, over Sunday.

Delbert Marsh, wife and two little sons have concluded their visit here and returned to their home in West Virginia.

Mrs. Cora Russell has left the care of her grandma and will now care for her aunt, Mrs. B. Russell, who is on the sick list.

Hiram Walker of Findley, N. Y., paid a short visit to his nephew, E. L. Walker and took with him his wife who has been visiting here for several weeks.

Mrs. James Russell, who has been lingering in the balance between life and death for many weeks, is on the road to recovery and has passed all danger, we are glad to note.

A singular, but sad accident occurred on Huston Hill, last Thursday. The bright and loving little 19 months old daughter of Mattie Seward wandered from the house and out of sight of the little girl who was attending her, and fell into a pool of water and drowned. The hoe was made to catch water for the cattle and has been dry all summer until the recent rains which filled it to a depth of about eighteen inches. The remains were laid away in Huston cemetery, on Saturday, to await the Master's call.

Mrs. Alonzo Bailey and Mrs. D. W. Horn returned last week from their three weeks' visit with relatives in Indianapolis.

Jefferson Bailey of Cross Fork was in town last week on business. Mr. B. informs us that he has purchased a fine tract of timber near Portage Falls and will at once build a mill and begin the manufacture of lumber.

About a year ago, while out boating on the river at this place, a young lady lost her gold bow glasses everboard and the other day Jim Batchelder caught a large salmon wearing those same spectacles, as proud as a Driftwood dude, and a few days later another disciple of Isaac Walton caught a big bass that had swallowed so many live ducks that it was all feathered out instead of wearing the usual armor of scales. "Pap" Berfield also had a remarkable experience on another line, however (for you know "Pap" is afraid of water and never fishes) so he set a steel trap and caught a ground hog, which in order to free itself promptly bit off its foot and then deliberately proceeded to eat the trap so that only a small portion of the chain was left. August Flower.

"It is a surprising fact," says Prof. Houton, "that in my travels ... all parts of the world, for the last ten years, I have met more people having used Green's August Flower than any other remedy, for dyspepsia, deranged liver and stomach, and for constipation. I find for tourists and for salesmen, and for persons filling office positions, where headaches and general bad feelings from irregular habits exist, that Green's August Flower is a grand remedy. It does not injure the system by frequent use, and is excellent for sour stomachs and indigestion."

A Baby's Birth

is very much like the blossoming of a flower. Its beauty and perfection depends entirely upon the care bestowed upon its parent. Expectant mothers should have the tenderest care. They should be spared all worry and anxiety. They should eat plenty of good nourishing food and take gentle exercises. This will go a long way toward preserving their health and their beauty as well as that of the little one to come. But to be absolutely sure of a short and painless labor they should use
