For For

Letter From Alaska.

DAWSON CITY, Oct. 2d, 1900. Dear Brother:-

not receiving any I left Bennett of the 15th of Sept. and arrived in Dawson Oct.

1st. I had good luck in my adverture right, although I will not be able to work in go on Las mine I will have you go over the same route. It is the most exciting trip in the whole world. In the east you "shoot the shoots," but on the Yukon, the White Horse Rapids, and Five Fingers, shoot. The Ring Rapids and Square Rapids knock out everything. My hair was curly when I left Bennett, but when I arrived in Dawsen it steed etraints. The relativistic is blacked we will be constructed in the case of small-pox in the city it is blacked we will be converted.

I expect to see him this week as he will be in town, and when I go on my Hunker claims, as they which costs $10 a cord, to thaw the frost out of the ground.

There being ten cases of small-pox in the city it is blacked we will be converted.

Mr. Willett, the gentleman from arrived in Dawson it stood straight up.

It Makes Restful Sleep.

Sieeplesness almost invariably accompanies constipation and its manifold attendant evila-nervous disorders, indigestion, headach, loss of appetite, etc. To attempt to induce sleep by opiates is a serious mistake, for the brain is only benumbed and the body suffers. Celery King removes the cause of wakefulness by its soothing effect on the nerves and on the stomach and bowels.

Celery King cures Constipation and Nerve, Stomach, Liver and Kidney diseases.
