THE COUNTY.

The result in Cameron county on Legislature and Congress is not a surprise to those informed of the true situation three days in advance of election. The defeat of Mr. Moore rests with the men who placed him before the people and then betrayed him in a most shameful manner. The Insurgents almost to a man voted for Mr. Blumle. This, added to the great popularity of the democratic nominee, and the wholesale boodle campaign was more than could be overcome. Hence Mr. Moore's defeat. Let the responsibility be placed where it belongs. The handsome vote given our National and State ticket is highly gratifying. Congressman Sibley was bitterly assailed and in some quarters terribly betrayed, in the interest of reform (?) We are satisfied and proud of the course of this journal throughout the campaign. We have not conducted a campaign of personal abuse or mudslinging and highly appreciate the flattering compliments given the Press by honest citizens of both parties. We are "the same to-day, yesterday and always."

Now let us have Peace.

Foot Injured.

Contractor W. H. Cramer, while superintending the erection of the bridge across the river at the foot of Broad street, met with a painful accident last Saturday afternoon. A large stick of timber fell upon his left foot, severely injuring that member. He is able to be out by the aid of crutches.

Arm Broken.

Mrs. Elizabeth Watts, who is making her home with her son, Mr. Wm. Snyder, on Cherry street, met with a painful and serious accident last Tuesday morning while walking up Fourth street. When in front of the vacant lot, owned by the Creighton estate, a defective sidewalk caused her to fall violently, breaking her right arm and otherwise seriously injuring the aged lady, who is in her 79th year and quite feeble. Dr. Bardwell is attending her. No doubt this will be another bill of damages for the Borough to pay.

Zinc and Grinding Make Devoe Lead and Zinc Paint wear twice as long as lead and oil mixed by hand.

To Our Insurgents.

President McKinley: "How about Sibley? Is he safe?" This was the first question asked by our President when he arrived at Pittsburgh on Wednesday.

Pleasure's Realm.

Eli Perkins, the noted humorist, will soon appear here under the auspices of the Baptist church.

The Ithaca Conservatory of Music Concert Company is booked for Emporium Tuesday, December 11th.

The Young People's Society of the Presbyterian church presented the drama "Above the Clouds" last Friday night. All the parts were admirably taken, and the entire performance was highly creditable. The audience was one of the largest of the season and the profits were of generous proportions.

Charles F. Underhill (Impersonator) will be the next attraction in the People's Star Course. He will present the play of "The Rivals," universally regarded as his masterpiece. This is the play made famous by Joseph Jefferson, and in the hands of Mr. Underhill, it is said, the interpretation of the several characters is highly artistic and realistic. The chart opens Friday, November 16th, at 9 a. m.

The opening of the People's Course with the Aerial Ladies' Sextette, of Cincinnati, was, in every way, auspicious. The audience was large, representative and thoroughly appreciative. The Sextette, in the unanimous verdict of the public, is the peer, if not the superior, of any similar company of artists that has ever appeared here. Encore and double encores were demanded by an audience that seemed insatiable. In solo and ensemble work they are equally strong. From the first to the last number of the strong and varied program the delight of the audience was keen and constant. The readings of Mrs. Marguerite Smith were given with exceeding simplicity and naturalness, and left no doubt in the minds of her auditors of her thorough mastery of her art. A return date is much desired, but the possibility of this is precluded by the fact that their entire time is taken to the end of the season.

After the Battle.

The next day came rain but McKinley, Roosevelt, Sibley and the entire State ticket is handsomely elected.

W. T. Young is elected to the Legislature in Clinton.

The most gratifying piece of election news is the defeat of Chisolm, the ingrate, in Huntingdon county. A stalwart Republican delegation to the Legislature is good news from Huntingdon.

Hon. B. K. Foght, is elected to the Senate from Union, Snyder, Northumberland district after a desperate battle. Good. Shake, Ben!

True Republicanism will pay in the long run.

Hon. F. X. Blumle: Good morning! May the "little Dutchman" meet the expectation of his county. The Press congratulates you and wishes you well.

Mr. Moore made a clean, honorable canvass and made many friends. While his defeat is something new to experience it is nothing to bear when you get used to it. Come around and we will give you some pointers—we have been there.

Her screams attracted her mother and father, who tore the clothing from her person and extinguished the flames with water. Dr. Corbett was called and rendered all possible aid to ease the little one's suffering.

THE PEOPLE VINDICATE COL. QUAY.

By Their Votes They Rebuke Party Wreckers.

PHILADELPHIA, November 7.

Estimates from every county in Pennsylvania give McKinley 293,583 plurality over Bryan, 1,412 less than the plurality in 1896. In Philadelphia McKinley's plurality was 125,110, a gain of 11,971 over 1896. Moore, Republican, for city treasurer, had 38,625 plurality over Hartranft, Democrat and Municipal League, and Singer, Republican, for register of wills, had 50,234 plurality over Davis, Democrat and Municipal League. Following is the vote of the city for President: McKinley, 182,627; Bryan, 57,517; Woolley, 1,343; Maloney, 265; Barker, 44; Debs, 1,006.

Philadelphia—Estimates from one-half of the counties in Pennsylvania indicate a plurality for McKinley of 200,000. In this city the fusion of the Democrats with the Municipal League cut down the Republican county majority but J. Hampton Moore, for city treasurer, and Jacob Singer, for register of wills, are elected by more than 50,000 plurality. In Montgomery and Chester counties, where the fusionists made a strong fight to elect nine anti-Quay members of the Legislature they suffered a severe set back, the regular Republicans winning by large majorities. Pennsylvania's delegation in the next Congress will not be less than 24 Republicans to 6 Democrats as against 20 Republicans and 10 Democrats in the present Congress.

M. S. Quay's friends are claiming they will have a majority on joint ballot favorable to his re-election to the United States Senate and the returns would appear to bear out this claim.

The control of the State Senate as between Quay and anti-Quay is in doubt with chances favoring the Quays, though the complete returns may give the organization of that body to the opponents of Mr. Quay.

GOVERNOR STONE ON QUAY'S VICTORY.

The Triumph was the Will of the People.

HARRISBURG, November 7.

Governor Stone said to-night that the result of the election in Pennsylvania on the Legislative ticket is, as it ever had been, a triumph of regularity over irregularity. The verdict of the people is that Senator Quay having received a majority of the votes in both houses of the last Legislature he should have been elected by that body and that he will be elected by the next.

"Thus is settled in a spirited contest," the Governor continued, "the right of the majority to rule and I hope settled forever. It will result in a harmonious unification of all the Republican members of the Legislature. It is not a compromise nor a concession, but a complete victory for those who upheld the will of the majority. It is a great vindication for Senator Quay. He has made his fight openly and manfully. He has met every issue squarely and the people have given him their verdict. Further attempts to defeat his election are not only futile but foolish. When the Legislature convenes all who claim to be Republicans should go into the caucus and abide by the result. That caucus will renominate Senator Quay and he will be triumphantly elected."

"The people have spoken and there is no appeal from their decision. The House and the Senate will be organized by those who have upheld the proposition that the majority should rule. The people have given a vote of confidence to what is known in the politics of the State as the organization. It remains for the organization by wisdom, care, cause and conservation to justify the confidence of the people. There should be no harsh or vindictive desire for punishment or revenge. The Legislature should perform the duties for which it will convene, adjourn promptly, and wisdom in legislation and economy in appropriations should prevail."

The Treat of the Season.

Twelve complete sets of scenery, over two thousand square yards, all on a magnificent scale, and adjustable to any sized stage, are carried by the Frank Davidson company. This assures absolute scenic perfection to each of the plays presented, and will virtually make an entire new stage in our opera house; all of the stock scenery being removed. Such a display of mechanical effect was never before attempted and is said to be alone worth seeing. The dates are Nov. 12, 13 and 14. Reserved seats, 30c; general admission, 20c; children, 10c. Reserved seats on sale at H. S. Lloyd's book store. Watch for the parade.

And the next day it rained.

Balcom & Lloyd have a new ad. in this issue. Read it.

The November movings are too numerous to enumerate.
