It is a common thing to hear of a man being property poor, though it's An Embarassment a kind of poverty that isn't half com-

of Riches. that isn't hair common enough, but there is a man in Pittsburgh, according to the News of that city, who is postage stamp poor. He didn't know there really were so many stamps in existence until he came into his stock, and now he is eager to dispose of the lot cheap, for he needs the money. About a year ago he loaned his brother $200 to start up in a small business with a large mail-order department. Under the mistaken idea that stamps are legal tender, with a deposit of bullion behind them in the national treasury, the debtor recently paid his brother the $200 in stamps. That amount of money in one-dollar bills makes a rather bulky roll, as anyone who ever nad that much at once can testify, but $200 in one-cent and twocent stamps would fill a large waste basket. The Pittsburgh brother takes the debtor's word for the correctness of the count, for he cannot afford to hire an auditor, and his own time is too valuable. The stamps are not even in sheets. They came in little strips of from three to ten, while several thousand were sent singly. He has stocked up all his friends with enough to last them for months, but he still has enough left to begin at the other end of an endless chain-letter scheme and work it backward.

In the Boston Journal the fashionable ladies' tailor relates the tragic Story of a Trous-story of "The Trousseau." The seau. lady lived in the country. Periodically she came to town and ordered gowns without bothering about the price. "Finally one day she came to town-oh she was a fine woman as well as a fine customer-and she said: 'I'm going to be married soon. I should like as good a trousseau as you can make.' She knew what that would mean in the way of expense, but she never asked a question about prices; it was a carte blanche order, you see. Well, we went to work and imported some of the best goods—silks and satins and laces-that could be found in Paris. You may be sure that it was a trousseau we were proud of. In round figures the cost was $2,000. It was all ready a week before the date set for her marriage, and we were just about to ship it, when-what do you thing?—we got word that she was dead. She had been killed accidentally in her own house. No, we didn't lose our money. We put in our claim against her estate. It was a tragic bill wasn't it?-'Trousseau, $2,000.'

A lady resident of Mexico, Mo., has just won a curious lawsuit brought against her by a Connecticut firm which manufactures bronze moruments. Some time ago she ordered from the plaintiffs a $384 bronze monument to be erected on the grave of her parents, with this inscription:

"The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want." The engraver made it read "fear" instead of "want," and Mrs. Doty refused to pay the bill. The lawsuit followed. The judge instructed the jury that if they considered the inscription to be a material variance from the words of the psalmist they should find for the defendant, and they did so. Many humorous features were developed in the taking of the census of 1900. One question was indicated by the remark "length of residence," which was expected to show how long the people living in various localities at the time of the census had been there. When the reports came in it was found that many of these queries were answered in figures in this way: 20x40, 15x30, etc. The enumerators had gone around with a foot rule and had measured the length of the residences of the people they counted.

Rest rooms for farmers' wives are being established in some towns in the west. They are located in the business center and are made cozy and comfortable with easy chairs. lounges, books and magazines. Some offer tea at the nominal price of three cents a cup. THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

The President Names Thursday, No-vember 29, as a Day to be Set Apart for Giving Thanks for Blessings Re-

Washington, Oct. 30 .- The state de partment yesterday issued the following:

By the president of the United States-a proclamation.

It has pleased Almighty God to bring our nation in safety and honor through another year. The works through another year. The works of religion and charity have everywhere been manifest. Our country through all its extent has been blessed with abundant harvests. Labor and the great industries of the people have prospered beyond all precedent. Our commerce has spread over the world. Our power and influence in the cause of freedom and culightenment have extended over distant seas and lands. The lives of our official representatives and many of our people in China have been mar-velously preserved. We have been generally exempt from pestilence and other great calamities, and even the tragic visitation which overwhelmed the city of Galveston made evident the sentiments of sympathy and Christian charity by virtue of which we are one united people. Now, therefore, I, William McKin-ley, president of the United States, do hereby appoint and set apart Thursday, the 29th of November next to be observed by all the people of the United States at home or abroad. as a day of thanksgiving and praise to him who holds the nations in the hollow of His hand.

I recommend that they gather in their several places of worship and devoutly give Him thanks for the prosperity wherewith He has endowed us, for seed time and harvest, for the valor, devotion and humanity of our armies and navies, and for all His benefits to us as individuals and as a nation, and that they humbly pray for the continuance of his divine favor, for concord and amity with other nations, and for righteousness and peace in all our ways.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the city of Washington this 5th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand, nine hundred one thousand on the hundred one thousand one t dred, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and

A MURDER IN A JAIL.

Two Burglars Kill a Guard and One of the Criminals Loses His Life in an Attempt to Escape. New York, Oct. 30.-Two colored prisoners, in an attempt yesterday to escape from the prison attached to the Seventh district court, in West Fifty-fourth street, killed Keeper Hugh McGovern, 51 years old, and probably fatally injured George Wil-son, 50 years old, a "trusty" who tried son, 50 years old, a "trusty" who tried to aid McGovern. One of the prison-ers, Arthur Flanagan, escaped; the other, Frank Emerson, fell into the yard adjoining the prison and was instantly killed.

The prisoners were together in a cell on the first tier, on a level with the fourth floor of the prison. They sawed two bars in the lower part of the cell door and got into the corridor. They went to the nearest window, about six feet from the floor. dow, about six feet from the floor, and sawed one bar at the bottom, shoving it out and getting through. In doing this it is supposed that they encountered McGovern and Wilson, killing one and wounding the other. How this was done is not known, as Wilson, capacity it is an except. Wilson cannot give an account of what happened.

The escaping prisoners used their bedding for a rope and swung from a window. Flanagan succeeded in swinging to the roof of a car stable adjoining, but Emerson did not make it and fell headlong on a pile of rails, whree his body was found with the skull crushed in

ALVORD IS CAUGHT.

Man Who Embezzled $700,000 from New York Bank Is Arrested in Boston, Oct. 30 .- Cornelius L. Alvord, the absconding note teller of the First national bank of New York City, who is charged with stealing $700,000 from the bank, was arrested here Monday afternoon by Chief Inspector William R. Watts, of this city, and Detective Armstrong, of New York, in an ordinary lodging house at the corner of West Newton street and Burlington avenue. When arrested Alvord, who knew Detective Armstrong, stated that he was glad the suspense was ended and willing to go back to New York without papers.

When asked what he had done with he money he said: "Well, $700,000 is the money he said: a whole lot of money, but it goes easy." In referring to horse races, he said he had backed horses, but never on race tracks, and had owned fast horses himself. He said he had lived his life and had taken life to its full at the rate of $50,000 a year or He said he would not make any fight, would throw up his hands take his sentence and after that was over would come out in the world again. He said he knew he would be unable to secure buil and that he had nothing with which to make restitution.

MILLIONS SOUANDERED.

Count Castellane, the Husband of And Im Gould, Comes to the End of His Financial Tether. Paris, Nov. 1.—The civil tribunal has appointed George J. Gould trus-tee for the Countess of Castellane, his sister. According to the pleadings in the case her husband, Count Boni Castellane, spent 23,000,000 francs in four years, whereas his income from his wife's fortune is only 3,000,000

Maitre Bonnet, when applying for the trusteeship, informed the presi-dent of the court that the countess herself recognized that the expenditure had been too lavish and that it was necessary for some one of expe-rience and authority to manage her He went on to say that, although the countess was a consenting party to the trusteeship, it was desirable that he should furnish precise details.

income of the countess was 3,000,000 francs. Since the marriage 15,000,000 francs had been expended, and the debts now amounted to 22,-000,000 francs.

The Gould family had met in consultation and unanimously decided to make Mr. George Gould trustee.

Maitre Bonnet went on to assert that the creditors distrained on the Seine Et Oise property and that the family had to intervene to prevent

With regard to the fitness of George Gould to be trustee, Maitre Bonnet pointed out that his fortune was larger than that of the countess; that authority based on affection would be good, and that no one was better qualified, as it was Mr. George Gould who was appointed executor of his father's will. Another consideration was that the clearing of the debts would take a number of years and that therefore it would be wise to economize and not to go to the expense of a paid trustee.

The tribunal, taking this view, declared the plaintiff "possessed better than any other, of the necessary poition and authority, to assist the de-

MR. GRIGGS SAYS Attorney General Denies Statements

Napoleon, O., Nov. 1 .- The following letter from Attorney General Griggs to J. R. Linthicumb, chairman of the republican committee of Henry county, relative to certain statements made by ex-Attorney General Monnett in a speech delivered here on Ocober 31, was published yesterday: "Washington, Oct. 25, 1900.—Pear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 23d inst. in which you state that ex-Attorney General Frank S. Monnett, of Ohio, in a democratic speech at Napoleon on the 22d inst., stated that I, in a letter to him and also in a personal interview with him, said that the reason why the trusts republican committee of Henry coun-said that the reason why the trusts have not been prosecuted was that the president has been inactive and indifferent in the enforcement of the anti-trust laws.

"Unless Mr. Monnett has taken leave of his senses, I cannot believe he ever made such a statement. So far as I can recall, or the records of this department show, I have never written him a letter upon any sob-ect. I am sure that I never wrote him a letter upon the subject of trusts, nor in any wise alluded to the action of this administration with reference thereto. As to his allegation that I made such a statement in a personal interview with him, that is iso entirely untrue. I never met Ma Monnett but once, and that was only for a few minutes when he called to pay a visit of courtesy, being introduced to me by his predecessor, the present solicitor general, Hon. John K. Richards, of Ohio. I do not think or believe that the subject of trusts. or believe that the subject of trusts. or never that the subject of trists, or any other subject, except such as would arise in general conversation upon a visit of this nature, was touched upon. I am sure that I made no such statement as you say Mr. Monnett attributes to me. Nor could I have made such a statement because have made such a statement, because it would have been untrue."

LIPTON'S CORNER IN PORK.

The Englishman Squeezed $350,000

Chicago, Nov. 1.—The culmination of the October pork corner, con-trolled by Sir Thomas Lipton, came yesterday when pork for delivery that month advanced $3, rising from $17 to $20. It was said that Sir Thomas could have made the price $100 as well as $20, but he declared he had no intention of "squeezing" anybody. As a result of his deal here Lipton is believed to have made $550,000. There were only 35,000 barrets of pork hat could be delivered and the Englishman owned them all, as well as twice that number bought from peo-ple who did not have a barrel they could deliver. When the price reached $16 some time ago the majority of shorts thought it time to buy some of the pork they had contracted to deliver at approximately $11 per bar-rel during October. Numerous pri-vate settlements are said to have been

Fort Worth, Tex., Nov. 1.—Suit for $250,000 has been filed against 25 of the most prominent citizens in Texas by Joel Blair, of Bell county. The petition alleges that the defendants conspired to gain possession of his right in valuable Waco property and aused him to be placed in an asylum for two years.

A Trust Dissolves.

Detroit, Nov. 1 .- The Continental Co., the national screen door and window screen trust formed about a year ago in Detroit, closed up its business here yesterday. E. M. Kent, for the here yesterialy. E. M. Kent, for the board of directors, gave out the fol-lowing statement: "After a year's experience as a combine, we decided to quit rather than build up further competition. On account of outside firms who have created a prejudice against us, we thought it best to dissolve at once. Everything has been harmonious among the firms interested in the trust."

FOR MONEY AND LIFE.

Battle Is Waged Between Highwaymen and Guardians of $4,000-Three Men Killed and Two Wound-

Mt. Pleasant, Pa., Oct. 31 .- Four Italian miners attempted to rob Pay Clerk William Hosler, of the South-west Connellsville Coke Co., while making his trip between this city and Alberton with the pay roll of the Alverton and Tarr works, amounting to

Mr. Hosler is dead; his companion, Mr. Hosler is dead; his companion, Harry Burgess, messenger of the company, is wounded; two of the Italians are dead; a third fatally wounded and the fourth in jail

Hosler and Burgess left this city at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon with the safe containing the money to pay the men at the Alverton and Tarr works As they reached the summit of the long hill above Morewood, just below which lies Alverton, a large coke town, without a second's warning the four Italians fired a volley from their four Hahaus fired a volley from their hiding place and sprang forward, firing as they advanced. Mr. Hosler fell dead at the first volley. Young Burgess, though wounded, was able to return their fire with effect, and one of the number at the horses' heads fell dead. A second later he fired his revolver in the very face of another, and as he fell his two remaining companions became terrified maining companions became terrified and, leaving the dead, set out with the wounded one over the hill to the south in the direction of the Alice mines.

Burgess managed to drive on into Alverton with the body of Mr. Hosler and the safe, where he gave Mount Pleasant and vicinity, with the clerical ferce of the coke com-pany, turned out 500 strong, headed by Lieut. John G. Thompson, of Company E, and soon corralled the two, who had concealed themselves in a feld on the Durstine farm, a mile or so from this town.

A summons to surrender was answered by a volley in which one of the posse received a slight wound in the chest. The outlaws from their fortified position made a fierce stand for a few minutes until one of the posse succeeded in getting in their rear. He shot one through the head killing him instantly. The other sur rendered and was brought to the of-fice of Squire Rhodes and remanded

In the meantime another division the posse overhauled the third would-be robber, who had received a ghastly wound. The ball, entering his mouth and penetrating his head, came out at the back of his neck. He is not expected to recover.

Washington, Oct. 31.—The official announcement of the total population of the United States for 1900 is tion of the United States for 1900 is 76,295,220, of which 74,627,907 are con-tained in the 45 states representing approximately the population to be used for congressional apportion-ment purposes. There is a total of 134,158 Indians not taxed. The total population in 1890, with which the aggregate population of the present census should be compared, was 63,-669,765. Taking the 1890 population as a basis, there has been a gain in population of 13,225,455 during the past ten years, representing an in-crease of nearly 21 per cent. The population of Ohio is 4.157,545, against 3,672,316 in 1890; Indiana, 2,-516,463, against 2,192,404 in 1890; Ken tucky, 2,147,174, against 1,858,635; Missouri, 3,107,117, against 2,679,184 in 1890; Nebraska, 2,068,901, against 1,058,910; New York, 7,268,009, against 5,997,853; Pennsylvania, 6,301,365, against 5,258,014; West Virginia, 958,-900, against 762,794; Hltnois, 4,821,550 against 3,826,351; California, 1,485,053 against 1,208,130; Colorado, 539,700, ngainst 412,168.

The early completion of the tabu lation of population of states enables the census office to submit the figures to congress as soon as it convenes in December, thus giving that body the information necessary to dispose of the question of reapportionment of representatives at the coming session. the field work of the twelfth cen sus, so far as it relates to the collection of the data relating to population, agriculture, vital statistics and manufactures, is now complete.

A Fatal Collision.

Hinckley, Minn., Nov. 2.—One of the worst wrecks that has occurred on the Northern Pacific railway for a long time took place Thursday. The limited express ran into an open switch a mile and a half south of here. On the sidetrack stood an exhere. On the sidetrack stood an extra freight. The engineer of the pas-senger train had only time to apply the air brakes and with his fireman the air brakes and with his hreman to jump when the crash came. The limited ran into the rear of the freight, demolishing the caboose and wrecking a number of cars, which caught fire and burned. Rear Brakeman Rapp, of the freight, was burned. None of the passengers were hurt.
