M'KINLEY WINS.

Elected to the Presidency For the Second Term.

VICTORY IS UNQUESTIONED

Majorities in Some States Were a Little Lessened But Not Enough to Affect Result.

Even Nebraska, Bryan's Home State Gives the Republican Candidate a Majority. Bryan Defeated in His Own Precinct by Over 100 Votes—Texas Polls a Big Vote For Bryan—McKinley's Majority in the New England States is Somewhat Lessened But Shows a Handsome Margin to the Other States—Violence Was Happily Absent Except in Two Instances—McKinley's Electoral Vote Will Be Greater Than in 1896—Table Showing the Strength of Each in the Electoral College—Bryan's Majority in Greater New York Cut Down.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Throughout all the States of the Union the citizens of the United States have reaffirmed at the polls their choice of four years ago and re-elected William McKinley of Canton, Ohio, to a second term as President of the United States, the highest office in the power of the people to give.

It was an endorsement of the administration's policy and affirmed intention of holding the Philippines, which came into the possession of this country, first as spoils of war, and second by purchase from Spain. It was also an evidence of approval of the military policy of the administration and rejection of the principle enunciated in the Kansas City platform of the Democrats.

McKinley repeated his triumphs in the larger States, notably New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois and the New England States, though by slightly decreased majorities. His electoral vote will be even greater than it was in 1896.

The silent vote was in particular evidence everywhere. Even the most highly colored claims and predictions of campaign managers and candidates were exceeded in some sections and an enormous vote was polled. It may safely be said that the silent vote decided the election.

Violence was, happily, almost a missing feature of the day. In Denver two men were killed in a clash between deputy sheriffs and police and four men injured. In Wilmington, Del., too, there was some small disturbance but no one was seriously injured. These were practically the only cases of violence reported. In New York city, where the verbal clash had occurred between Inspector of Elections McCullagh and Chief of Police Devery, it was expected that violence would occur at the polls. But the day passed off quietly. No alterations to amount to anything occurred and it was a very quiet day for New York.

A notable feature of the election was Bryan's failure to carry his own precinct, losing it to McKinley by over 100 votes, while McKinley carried his own county by an increased majority over four years ago.

seventh congress will be even more republican than the Fifty-sixth. Illinois went for McKinley by a big majority, but the Democrats elected their State ticket by a majority almost as large as the Republicans had for the national ticket. It was one of the queer happenings of election.

In the New England States Bryan made a good run, cutting down McKinley's majority in many instances. But on the whole, the strength of the district was not impaired to any extent and the increase in the vote polled for Bryan may be attributed to his personality rather than to the principles which he advocated.

In Canton, McKinley received the returns confident of the outcome. Bryan when he received bulletins from New York State was somewhat disappointed, but on the whole, seemed less perturbed than did those about him. Mr. Bryan refused to make any statement on the result, but promised to make one later.

BRYAN AT HOME.

Democratic Candidate Received Returns With Less Apparent Concern Than Those About Him. LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 7.—Mr. Bryan received the election returns at his residence in this city. His house was fairly overrun with newspaper men and telegraph operators. Not only was the first floor of the house largely given up to them, but two of the rooms in the second story also. Four telegraph wires were run into the house. Mr. Bryan had with him his brother, Charles Bryan, his former law partner, ex-State Senator Talbot, Committee man Dahlgren and Attorney Schmidt.

Mr. Bryan remained in his private apartments during the entire evening and slept the greater part of the time. He did not make his appearance in the parlor of his house where the newspaper correspondents had congregated until 11 o'clock, and his coming at that time was for the purpose of notifying the press that he would have nothing to say at present but that he might possibly give out a statement later. After this assurance, the visitors withdrew and soon afterwards the lights were extinguished and the house presented no signs of animation. Mrs. Bryan spent the evening entertaining her company and gave no signs either of fatigue or disappointment. The feeling is quite general that Mr. Bryan will say that he does not doubt the election for the second time of his rival, for while he has given no direct utterance to such a concession, he indirectly admits to friends that he does not hope for more than to reduce the Republican majority in some of the Eastern States.

PENNSYLVANIA IN LINE.

McKinley's Plurality 200,000—Quay May Go to Senate.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 7.—Pennsylvania's plurality for McKinley is over 200,000. In Montgomery and Chester counties, where the fusionists made a strong fight to elect nine anti-Quay members of the legislature, they suffered a severe setback, the regular Republicans winning by a large majority.

Pennsylvania's delegation in the next congress will not be less than 24 Republicans to 6 Democrats, as against 20 Republicans and 10 Democrats in the present congress.

M. S. Quay's friends are claiming they will have a majority on joint ballot favorable to his re-election to the United States senate and the returns would appear to bear out this claim.

The control of the State senate as between Quay and anti-Quay is in doubt with chances favoring the Quays, though the complete returns may give the organization of that body to the opponents of Mr. Quay.

RESULT IN OHIO.

Majority of 75,000 Rolled Up For McKinley and Roosevelt.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 7.—In this State, the home of President McKinley, voters flocked to the standard of its favored and prominent son and rolled up a majority of 75,000 for him and his running mate, Theodore Roosevelt.

In every section of the state the vote was cast early, and while some districts lagged somewhat in sending returns, it was evident at an early hour that McKinley would receive a handsome majority.

In Cleveland and Cincinnati McKinley's majorities were a trifle in excess of what they were four years ago, and in other cities, also, including this city, gains were noted.

Of the 21 congressmen voted for it may be said that 17 and possibly 18 are Republicans and are successful. This is a gain of three members, which shows how strongly Republican the state has gone. Party leaders in this state, in telegrams sent to Republican leaders here, express themselves as well satisfied with the result. Telegrams of congratulation were sent to the president at his home at Canton.

Maryland For McKinley. BALTIMORE, Nov. 7.—McKinley has carried Maryland beyond the shadow of a doubt. Complete returns from the cities he has a majority there of about 6,500, while from the state scattering returns indicate an additional surplus of 3,500, making his total majority in the state about 10,000.

The Republicans have elected four out of the six congressmen, while the remaining two will probably be Democratic, although later returns may change this outlook.

McKinley Carries His Own County. CANTON, Ohio, Nov. 7.—Complete returns show that McKinley has carried his home county by 2,000 majority, a gain of 1,160 of 1896.

In Stevenson's Precinct. BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Nov. 7.—In Adlai E. Stevenson's home precinct: McKinley received 306 votes and Bryan 112.

BROKE ALL BOUNDS.

Jubilant in Washington Over McKinley's Re-Election.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The jubilation here over President McKinley's re-election broke all bounds. Never, except at inauguration times, did such crowds surge up and down Pennsylvania avenue singing and blowing horns as last night.

In the absence of the President there was no gathering at the White House and such advice as was received there were conveyed by telephone to the members of the cabinet who are now in Washington. Only three are here, Secretaries Hay, Gage and Root, the latter reaching the city in the evening after casting his ballot in New York. Secretary Hay was feeling indisposed and remained at his home during the evening, but Secretary Gage was at the treasury department and with a number of friends heard the result there.

At the war department, Secretary Root, General Miles and Adjutant-Gen-

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

Corbin were on hand and remained until late in the evening.

At the Republican and Democratic headquarters the officers of the committees were engaged in figuring on the complexion of the house of representatives.

State Pluralities. NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The following table shows the pluralities accorded the candidates in the various states:

Table with columns: State, McKinley, Bryan. Lists pluralities for various states including Alabama, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Wyoming.

McKinley Speaks to Crowd. CANTON, Nov. 7.—Canton was in a frenzy of enthusiasm last night which knew no bounds. The crowds which had been burning red fire down town marched en masse to the McKinley residence with bands playing, rockets sending lurid streaks across the midnight sky and the tumultuous cheers mingled with the den of horns and steam whistles. The crowd was stilled for a time with some of the cheering news arrived, but the crowd clamored for the president and he kindly appeared, waving his acknowledgement of the deafening cheers. The president said:

"Fellow Citizens—I thank you for the very great compliment of this call on this momentous night and at this hour. Of the many gratifying reports from every part of the country, none have given me more genuine and sincere gratitude than those from my own city and my own county of Stark. And I appear now, as I have done on so many former occasions to thank you once more for the warm and hearty endorsement which you have today given my public acts."

Connecticut Republican. NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 7.—McKinley carried Connecticut by 40,000. This is a small falling off from his total majority in 1896, but his strength in the important districts has been sustained. The Republican ticket also went through, with a somewhat larger majority than was accorded the national nominees.

Virginia For Bryan. RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 7.—Virginia has given Bryan a plurality of upwards of 30,000. In isolated districts the voting was done slowly and the return were consequently slow in coming in, but at an early hour this morning they were practically complete and the plurality was recorded as given above.

Bryan Beaten in His Own Precinct. LINCOLN, Nov. 7.—Precinct A, of the fifth ward, Bryan's precinct, gave McKinley 208 and Bryan 105.

Bryan Carries Nevada. RENO, Nev., Nov. 7.—Bryan has carried this state by a majority of at least 1,500. This is slightly smaller than his majority in 1896. Newlands, the Democratic candidate for congress, is also elected, but by a smaller majority than was accorded Bryan.

Congressmen Elected.

The following table shows the number of congressmen elected to the Fifty-sixth congress:

Table with columns: States, Fifty-sixth Congress, Fifty-sev. Congress. Lists election results for various states including Alabama, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Wyoming.

Total 185 163 190 167. The number of Populists elected in the various states numbered 7.

Republican Landslide in Wisconsin. MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 3.—Wisconsin gives McKinley and Roosevelt a plurality of 110,000. The Republican State ticket, headed by Robert H. La Follette, has received a plurality but a trifle smaller. Sections where the Democrats made gains in the last election are slow to have returned to the Republican column and large majorities have returned from the cities and towns. The legislature is overwhelmingly Republican and the congressional delegation is also Republican. It was a Republican landslide throughout the State.

Light Vote in Louisiana. NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 7.—Bryan carried Louisiana by a majority apparently of 30,000. The vote was comparatively light. The State returns also send a Democratic delegation to Congress. Bryan carried New Orleans by a majority of 12,000. A constitutional amendment increasing to $100,000 the amount to be paid in pensions to Confederate veterans was carried.

Crocker to Bryan. NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The following telegram was sent last night: W. J. Bryan, Lincoln, Neb.: "As you no doubt already know, the State has gone heavily against us, but, whereas this county in 1896 gave McKinley 23,000 majority, it gives you today 33,000, a gain of 56,000. We are defeated but not discouraged."

First to Congratulate McKinley. CANTON, Nov. 7.—McKinley's first congratulations from headquarters came from J. H. Manley at New York as follows: "Praise God from whom all blessings flow. Your triumphant re-election is conceded by Democratic managers. I tender my earnest congratulations. We are very happy at headquarters."

Cleveland Would Not Talk. PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 7.—Ex-President Cleveland when seen last night and interviewed relative to the presidential election said he had absolutely not a single word to say, either on the election itself or as to the way he voted.

Arkansas Democratic. LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 7.—Arkansas has again recorded its vote in Bryan's favor. His plurality in the State is at least 60,000. The voting proceeded fast during the day and was marked by no violence. Six Democratic congressmen are elected.

"The Country is Saved." CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—At midnight Vice-Chairman Payne sent the following telegram to Col. Roosevelt: "The country is saved; we have beaten Pettigrew and captured Nebraska, legislature and all."

Wyoming Safely Republican. CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 7.—Wyoming is safe for McKinley by at least 2,000 plurality. Republican congressmen have also been elected. The voting was slow and straggling and it was hard to get returns. The day passed quietly in every section of the State.

Suicide After Voting. CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—One of the incidents of election day was the suicide of Frederick Jannecks. Upon leaving for the polls he remarked that he was about to cast his last vote. Upon his return home he committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid.

Governor Elect Sanford Very Ill. MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 7.—Private advices from Opelika state that Gov.-elect Sanford is very ill. Little hopes of his recovery are expressed.

McKinley Captures Illinois. CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—The majority in this State for McKinley is 75,000, but the Democrats have elected their entire state ticket.

Auburn Goes Republican. AUBURN, N. Y., Nov. 7.—This city gives McKinley 4,142; Bryan, 2,808; Odell, 4,047; Stanchfield, 2,823.

Syracuse For McKinley. SYRACUSE, Nov. 7.—The city of Syracuse complete gives McKinley 14,845; Bryan 9,289.

Bryan's Majority in Oswego. OSWEGO, N. Y., Nov. 7.—Bryan carried Oswego by 444.

There is no pleasure in life if you dread going to the table to eat and can't rest at night on account of indigestion. Henry Williams, of Boonville, Ind., says he suffered that way for years, till he commenced the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, and adds, "Now I can eat anything I like and all I want and sleep soundly every night."
