A Severe Burn.

Last Monday morning, in the act of burning refuse papers, etc., Mrs. A. L. Hickok was severely burned. The clothing of the unfortunate lady caught fire and before it could be extinguished she sustained the injury above stated. This estimable lady, who is well along in years, has been terribly afflicted for several years past with nervous debility which perhaps accounts for her inability to get away from the flames in time to prevent them from igniting her clothing. Owing to her already nervous state the accident made a tremendous impression upon her nerves, placing her at present in a critical condition. Prompt medical aid was given her and kind friends spared no pains in administering to her wants in alleviating her suffering. It is the hope of her friends, who are legion, that she may speedily recover.

Sad Death.

Last Friday Leo Bair, the eleven-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Bair of Fifth street, was taken sick at school, and an examination of the boy by Dr. Smith revealed the fact that the trouble was scarlet fever. Every effort was made to bring the rash to the surface but without success, and the lad died Sunday evening. He was a bright boy and a general favorite with his playmates. The shock to the parents and family is intense, this being the first death in the large family. The afflicted ones have our sincerest sympathy, as well as that of the entire community.

The funeral was private, taking place from the family residence Tuesday morning, at 10 o'clock, Rev. Father Downey of St. Mark's Catholic Church officiating.

Broke Jail.

Last Thursday evening Frank Burnell and Chas. Sacks, two of Sheriff Swope's boarders broke jail by digging through the wall into the boiler room, where they succeeded in springing the door and made good their escape. At this writing nothing has been heard of the fugitives. The other prisoners in custody refused to leave.

Burnell was tried and convicted at the last term of court on the charge of larceny but received no sentence. This is his second attempt, being almost out before when discovered. Although we believe in bringing all evil doers to justice, we think the people of Emporium and Cameron county generally, should congratulate themselves, on being so fortunate as to get rid of this individual.

Recital

The "Saturday Afternoon Club," gave its first monthly recital at the home of Mrs. F. T. Beers, Nov. 10th. The following program was rendered in a very creditable manner.

Watson, "Frolic of the Frogs," Pianoforte solo, Myrtle Lloyd.

Cavalleria Rusticana, "Mascagin," Pianoforte solo, Grace Lloyd.

Packer, Austrian Tongs, Pianoforte solo, Vera Olmsted.

Godard, Berceuse from Joe Lyn, Pianoforte solo, Edna Auchu.

Chopin, Valse Op. 70, No. 1, Pianoforte solo, Edna Auchu.

Lange, Flower Song, Violin solo, Mazie Gallagher.

Mendelssohn, Spinning song, Myrtle Olmsted.

Hevin, March, Myrtle Olmsted.

The occasion was much enjoyed by all, being very beneficial as well as entertaining.

The next meeting will be held Dec. 8th. EDNA AUCHU, Sec'y.

Died at Austin.

The remains of John Smith, better known as "Jack" Smith, who died last Thursday in the Austin Hospital, of typhoid fever, were brought to this place Friday and buried Saturday morning, the funeral services being held in St. Mark's Church at 9:30 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. Father Downey. Deceased was a brother of Larry Smith, of this place, and Mrs. P. Fitzpatrick, of Pittsburg. Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery.

T. O. R. C. N. Seger. Can you read this paragraph.

Mr. Underhill in 'The Rivals.'

Read the following flattering testimonial of Mr. Underhill's powers as an impersonator and you can form some idea of the treat in store for those who hear him:

"Many who have seen 'The Rivals' as performed by the Jefferson company have remarked, after witnessing Mr. Underhill's condensation of the comedy, that one advantage he has over the company lies in the fact that here there is a star in every part, they can afford only a few for the leading roles. Not a small advantage by any means. So carefully has Mr. Underhill worked out all the details that one seems to see the very action suggested by the lines, and the living characters are all there doing their own talking and acting."

"You go first and we will precede you"; "No delusions to the past, if you please, sir"; "I am completely analyzed for my part"; "Comparisons are odorous"; "Look at the letter, perhaps you may know the circumscription, sir," are a few of Mrs. Malaprop's "parts of speech," which occur in "The Rivals," to be impersonated by Mr. Underhill. Chart opens at H. S. Lloyd's Friday morning next, at 9 o'clock.

Twenty-Seventh Congressional District Official Returns.

The official count of the vote in the Twenty-seventh Congressional district was completed at Warren on Tuesday and shows the plurality of Hon. Joseph C. Sibley, Republican, over Lewis Emery, the fusion candidate, to be 1,898. The return judges were:

Cameron—J. M. Davison.
McKean—Samuel E. Bell.
Venango—Joseph P. Orr.
Warren—John W. Steen.

By motion the Warren county delegate was made chairman of the meeting, with Samuel E. Bell, of McKean, as secretary. After the regular routine of business the official returns were announced as follows:

Counties.	Rep. Sibley.	Dem. Emery.	Pro. Milward.
Cameron.....	736	711	16
McKean.....	4,242	5,619	264
Venango.....	6,014	4,202	767
Warren.....	4,812	3,374	329
Total.....	15,804	13,906	1,376

1,305 votes cast for Emery on Lincoln Republican ticket.

Mr. Sibley's plurality in Cameron was 25; in Venango, 1,812; in Warren, 1,438. Mr. Emery's plurality in McKean county was 1,377.

Battle With an Eagle.

Williamsport, Pa., Nov. 8.—Mrs. John Callahan, of Anderson township, yesterday had a terrific battle with an eagle which attempted to carry away her two year old child.

She beat the eagle off with a club but it flew in her face, lacerating it painfully. She finally felled the bird to the ground, grasped the child and fled to her house. The bird sailed away. The woman says the eagle was all of eight feet from tip to tip of its wings.

Heard Him Sigh.

"I have been sitting on the porch listening to the sighing of the wind," she said sentimentally by way of explanation of her long absence from the house.

"Yes, I heard him sigh," promptly put in the small boy.

"Him? Who?" demanded the head of the household.

"Why, that young fellow you always said was nothing but wind," answered the boy. And thus was the secret betrayed.—Chicago Post

N. Seger is one of the most popular and successful business men in Cameron county, and his success and popularity is due to his strictly honest and unique methods of doing business. Go and see him.

The pupils of the Music Class of Miss May Gould will give a recital at the home of Miss Gould on Saturday afternoon of this week. Miss Mazie Gallagher, violinist, will assist. These recitals will be continued each month, until early spring when a general recital will be given by the class.

BRIEF MENTION.

Frank Shives got a car load of Western cattle, 27 head, last week.

You can generally know when a woman has some great secret on her mind by the mysterious way she goes about to tell it.—Ex.

A man is truly in love with his wife who offers to match some pale blue ribbon and two spools of sewing silk on his way down town.—Ex.

A Tennessee woman recently killed her son by chopping his head with a hatchet because he smoked cigarettes. Another strong argument against the deadly habit.

If the entire cost of spellbinding incurred by both parties were totalized, it would lead a person to come to the conclusion that talk is not so cheap after all.—Bradford Era.

Mrs. J. E. Free, of Billings, Mont., daughter of W. F. Lloyd of this place, has a musical wonder in her little daughter, not yet three years old, who plays a cornet and violin.

The official returns show the census of the United States for 1900 to 76,295,200—a gain of 13,225,464 during the last ten years. The population of Pennsylvania is 6,301,365—a gain of 1,043,351 since 1890.

Emporium has been well supplied with entertainments the past few months—all of a high class—and they were without exception well patronized. This is one of the greatest towns in the state for all kinds of good entertainments.

Franklin claims the distinction of having one of the youngest piano players in the world. Edwin Frank is the name of the prodigy and he is now only four years of age. When only two years of age he developed a taste for music, which has classed him as a prodigy.

A Kansas editor has discovered how to tell a man's politics when you meet him in a hotel washroom: "The Republican will wash and empty the basin. The Democrat will wash and leave the water standing. The Populist will wash in the water left by the Democrat." This does not seem to accord with the widespread belief that the rural Populist entered and combed his whiskers and didn't wash at all.

An exchange states that the Cornplanter Indians of Pennsylvania desire to take in the Aboriginal display at the Pan American Exposition. The Cornplanters are 85 strong, and they boast that while civilization has ruined nearly all the Eastern tribes, they still retain the customs of their forefathers.

Everybody, friend and enemy, knew that Matthew Stanley Quay was an ardent political leader, but it remained for the present campaign to reveal him as a scholar and student, familiar with the classics and capable of literary productions entitled to rank with the best of their class. His speeches throughout the state, however, are doing that very thing.—Johnstown Tribune.

According to our exchanges, two swindlers are abroad in the land selling towels and table linen. If they call on you hit them with the frying pan. The goods that they deliver are nothing like the samples they display. In some instances they have received orders amounting to as high as $50, for which they give about $5 worth of cheap goods.

An observing editor, after looking over the situation, concludes that some people go to church to weep, while others go to sleep. Some go to tell their woes, while others go to show their clothes. Some go to hear the preacher, others go to hear the solo screecher. Boys go to reconnoiter, girls go because they order. Many go for some reflections, but mighty few to help collections.

Speaking of the newspaper dead beat the Catawissa News-Item says: "We're not after our honest subscribers (although we want them to pay up) but we are after the newspaper hogs—those fellows who beat their doctor, their merchant and their preacher, along with the printer. They beat everybody they can, whenever and wherever they can. In fact they beat the devil."

Christmas packages for American soldiers serving abroad will be transported by the government free of charge from either San Francisco or New York. This was done last year, and proved popular. Those in charge of the army transports, however, say that senders of boxes should understand that perishable articles, such as fruits and plum puddings, and fragile packages, such as preserves, should not be enclosed. The boats leave New York Nov. 5th and from San Francisco Nov. 1st and 16th.

BEDARD, THE TAILOR.

YOUNG MEN.

Do you want style and ginger in your clothes, here's the place to find it. We have no

SPECIAL HOBBIES

that young men should look like their fathers or like their little brothers but they must be just the thing—like a procession. Some one must lead and our efforts are to be in every point in our business. Style, fit and workmanship.

The Leaders

Well covered are the heads of the men we sell hats to. We sell all sorts of hats to all sorts of people. We can sell a good hat for two dollars, but it would be suitable only for the man who wants a two dollar hat. It wouldn't do for the man who wants a silk tile. Those who buy here get good honest values and the latest styles whether they buy two dollar hats or whether they want to pay three or five dollars, or any other price.

EASTMAN'S KODAK

You can carry it in your hands, on your shoulder, in your pocket or on your bicycle. You press the button and the Kodak will do the rest.

Fresh Candy.

I have just added a large line of fresh candy at my store, which is the purest the market affords.

Be Sure You'r Right, Then go Ahead.

That's a safe rule to follow all through life. It's a particularly good rule to follow when you are shopping. We don't want you to buy a single article here until you are sure that it and the price is right. We may charge you a certain price for something—before you buy it, we want you to know what other stores charge for the same thing.
