DEATH'S DOINGS.

FLORENCE LEWIS.

Slowly, one by one, our dear ones are passing away. This time it was a kind daughter and sister. Flora Lewis passed away on the morning of the 13th, inst, after months of patient suffering with consumption. She was born in Rich Valley Dec. 6th, 1874, where she resided at the time of her death. She leaves a father, mother, one brother and a daughter, who resides with her father at Sullivanville, N. Y., beside many other relatives and friends who mourn her early death. Her funeral was largely attended, Tuesday, Jan. 15, at the Rich Valley church, the Rev. Metzler, of Emporium, conducting the services. Text, Zechariah 14 7: "But it shall be one day which shall be known to the Lord, not day, nor night: but it shall come to pass, that at evening time it shall be light."

The flowers were profuse and elaborate. A quartette from Emporium furnished the music. Burial was made in Rich Valley cemetery. She was heard to say: "I would like to live but if it is the Lord's will to take me, I am ready to go." May the Lord bless the relatives and friends and may their lives be so given up to Him that there may be a glad reunion in Heaven when the toils of life are ended.. A. O. C.

Drive Them Over to the Democrats. Now let Martin and Flinn go where they belong-over to the Democrats. They have been dealing with the Democratic leadership. They have engineered a fusion movement for the control of the Legislature. They have acted as assistant Democrats throughout the State campaign. The cabal of boss politicians formed for seizing upon Pennsylvania consists of Martin, Flinn and Guffey. Guffey is to be the next Democratic candidate for United States Senator. Let his close friends, Martin and Flinn support him. Let them vote for him and do all in their power to elect him. They would be powerless, of course, as Senator Quay was elected on Tuesday by a good majority.

Sarah Bernhardt said that one night during a visit to America when she was playing "Jeanne d'Arc," she hurt her knee with a rusty nail. "The wound gave me considerable pain and trou-ble," she said, "and it was thought that a slight operation might possibly be required. This fact appeared in the daily papers, and a day or two afterward I received a telegram from the manager of a museum in Chicago saying that if it was necessary to amputate my leg might he please have it. He added he would drape it if desired."

Emporium, Pa.

Dear Sir: You buy your horseshoes and nails; your grand-father, if he was a blacksmith, made 'em. You can't afford to hammer them out by hand, when you can buy as good, or better perhaps, readymade to your hand, for a little more than the cost of the iron.

What do you think of a painter who goes on buying his linseed oil and white lead, and tinting and mixing by hand, and charging his time for work that is far better done than he can do it, done by machinery, done as your horseshoes and nails are made.

Mistake isn't it?

He is wasting his chance in the world. There is no better stuff to do business with than good horseshoes and paint; and no better work than putting them on. Good horseshoes well put on: It's the putting 'em on that makes you a blacksmith: no matter who makes 'em. Who wants to go back to old times, and make his own horseshoes?
