Nebraska might compromise on

Pat Crowe for the Senate. He is a good deal of a dark horse.

Anyhow, Teddy hasn't been accused of shooting a calf under the impression that it was a mountain lion.

Michigan proposes to tax bachelors $5 a year. To be altogether fair, girls who refuse eligible offers ought also to be taxed.

Col. Henry Watterson says he doesn't know what a high ball is. Now, Colonel, own up. We won't set Mrs. Nation on you.

All those stories about Roosevelt will probably turn out to be mere bluffs designed to frighten the Senators and keep them quiet.

Six Senatorial seats are deadlocked, and some of them are likely to continue so. How long is the Senate to be allowed to block direct elections by the people?

The sale of cigarettes has decreased about four millions in two years. We knew the pesky little things were unwholesome, but we didn't think they were fatal enough to bring about that much decline.

It looks now as though there must be an extra session of Congress. Both the Philippines and Cuba are clamoring for action, and it doesn't seem fair to make them wait nine long months before taking up their cases.

The courts have decided that Boni's share of the Gould estate is responsible for his debts. This is just and right. No man can be allowed to deliberately swindle a Jew in this country simply because he doesn't like the race.

You may sing the song of the dinner horn, extol the mellow bugle, the wind of the huntsman horn that calls the merry the merry revelers to the chase that has been one of England's amusements time out of mind Incomparably more pleasing is the shrill toot of the postman's horn to the rural house wife. She has never starved for the staff of life, never sighed for sweeter music than the warbling of the woodland music than the warbling of the woodland birds. The delights of the chase she is pleased to accord her English sister, it has no wooing for her. But, she has hungered and thirsted for news of the outside world, with a longing no one can comprehend but the isolated people of a country district. No man is so wise that he can afford to dispense with the advice of others.

A powerful engine cannot be run with a weak boiler, and we can't keep up the strain of an active life with a weak stomach; neither can we stop the human ma-chine to make repairs. If the stomach cannot digest enough food to keep the body strong, such a preparation as Kedol Dyspepsia Cure should be used. It digests what you eat and it simply can't help but do you good. R. C. It is fair that we take the risk of it every way; but we ought not to risk any use or abuse of it. Can't draw the line. We are dealing with strangers. We are strangers to them as they are strangers to us. We want to be trusted by them. We trust them first; that's the way to get trusted. We trust them to paint with a fair degree of common paint-knowl-edge and care. We expect to be trust-ed to furnish paint as good as paint can be, and to last as long as paint can.
