NAPOLEON'S EYE.
One Look From It Explained His Power Over Men.

In 1887, while working in London as a curate to the Rev. Canon Fleming, I was called in my vicar's absence to administer a religious service to an old admiral in Eaton square. The admiral's name was Eden. After the service was over he took my hand and said: "Shake hands with me, young man. There are not many alive who can say what I can say. You are talking with a man who has talked to Napoleon the Great." "Sir," I said, "that is history. May I hear more?" The old admiral then told me that he was once returning with the fleet—I think from the West Indies, but of that I am not sure—and touched at St. Helena. The admiral said, "I am going up to Longwood to pay my respects to Napoleon, and the senior midshipman comes with me."

"I was the senior midshipman," said the old gentleman, "and so I went. We waited for Napoleon in an outer room, and you must imagine how eagerly I expected his entrance. The door was thrown open at last, and in he came. He was short and fat and nothing very attractive but for his eye. My word, sir, I have never seen anything like it. After speaking to the admiral he turned to me, and then I understood for the first time in my life what was the meaning of the phrase, 'A born ruler of men.' I had been taught to hate the French as I hated the devil, but when Napoleon looked at me there was such power and majesty in his look that if he had bade me lie down that he might walk over me I would have done it at once, English middy though I was. The look on Napoleon's face was the revelation of the man and the explanation of his power. He was born to command."

Such was Admiral Eden's version to me of an incident which at 90 years old or thereabout seemed to him as fresh as if it had happened only the day before.—Rev. John Rooker in London Spectator.

Temperate.
Grimsby—So you want to marry my daughter, sir! What are your principles? Are you temperate?

Fledgely—Temperate! Why, I am so strict that it gives me pain even to find my boots tight.—Pick-Me-Up.

Close Resemblance.
Contractor—You won't sell me a carload of bricks on credit?
Dealer—No. Me and my brick are very much alike. We're hard pressed for cash.—Philadelphia Record.

Boorish.
De Vere—That's Miss Winter. Lovely girl, but awfully boorish.
Ponsonby—How do you know?
De Vere—I proposed to her the other day, and she said that, though she liked dogs, she didn't care for puppies.—Pick-Me-Up.

TO PREVENT LA GRIPPE.
Timely Advice From the New York "Magazine of Sanitation and Hygiene."
The New York Magazine of Sanitation and Hygiene says that a more meritorious medicine than Krause's Cold Cure for the prevention and cure of La Grippe has never come under the examination of the chemical and medical experts of that magazine. As soon as you begin to take cold or feel the first symptoms of the Grip take a Krause's Cold Cure Capsule every 3 hours during the day and 2 before retiring at night. This will insure a good night's rest and a free movement of the bowels next morning. Continue the treatment next day and you need have no fear of the grip.
Krause's Cold Cure is guaranteed to break up La Grippe in a day, and to cure an ordinary cold in one night. It is a new principle in medicine prepared in soft, soluble gelatine capsules, which are easily dissolved by the warmth and fluid of the stomach. They are far superior to hard, sugar-coated pills or tablets. They contain no calomel, and can be taken with safety by the most delicate woman or child. Krause's Cold Cure is for sale by druggists at 25 cents a box. Sold by L. Taggart. 2-2t-cow

How convenient it would be to live in a town where everybody minds his own business.
Question Answered.
Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to cleanse out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when they were feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. L. Taggart. Get Green's Prize Almanac. 1n34-cow

We will also refund the money on one package of either if it fails to give satisfaction. L. Taggart. R. C. Dodson. 2-3t-cow
