FUNERAL OF THE LATE WILLIAM HOWARD

Knights Templar Had Charge of the Obsequies, and There Was a Large Attendance.

Williamsport Bulletin.
The funeral of the late William Howard, which occurred Friday afternoon, was very largely attended by sorrowing friends from this city and out of town.

The impressive funeral service of the Episcopal Church was conducted by the Rev. George C. Foley, D. D., assisted by Rev. William H. Butts, of the Memorial Church erected by Mr. Howard. The music incident to the service was beautifully rendered by the full vested choir.

The handsome casket was fairly buried in flowers and floral designs, among which were an ivy wreath from All Saint's Memorial Chapel, triangle from Henry, Andrew and Joseph Kaye, large basket from William and Josiah Howard, cypress spray from T. S. Clark, bunch of roses from E. R. Payne, cypress spray from the Ladies' Auxiliary to Baldwin Commandery, bunch of carnations from Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Page, heavy spray of ferns and carnations from Elias Deemer, anchor from Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Perley, large basket of carnations and ferns from the West Branch National Bank, broken column from First National Bank of Emporium, cross of carnations, roses and lilies from Baldwin II Commandery, No. 22, Knights Templar, wreath of ivory and violets from the Williamsport Furniture company, bunch of flowers from Howard Kirk.

After the services at the church Baldwin II Commandery, No. 22, Knights Templar, took charge of the body, and headed by the Fisk Military band, the cortege moved with slow and measured tread to Wildwood cemetery where interment was made.

At the cemetery the beautiful ritual of the Knights Templar was most impressively rendered, the vocal selections being given by the full Commandery, led by Sir James Fisk with cornet accompaniment.

The honorary pall bearers were Hon. C. A. Mayer and T. C. Hipple, of Lock Haven; R. C. Lippincott, of Philadelphia; George A. Walker and B. W. Green, of Emporium; Hon. J. Henry Cochran, Hon. S. N. Williams, F. Coleman, Elias Deemer, C. La Rue Munson, W. E. Fraser, Addison Candor and F. N. Page, of this city.

The active pall bearers were the following Sir Knights: S. T. Foresman, T. S. Clark, John L. Hall, F. A. Blackwell, Clarence E. Else, James B. Krause, Walter C. Gilmore, Irvin Gleason, James N. Kline and Hugh McDonald.

The following relatives and friends from Emporium attended the funeral: W. H. Howard and wife, Josiah Howard, Joseph Kaye and daughter, Mrs. Norie, John Howard, Chas. Howard, Mrs. Jas. Hobson, Mrs. M. A. Rockwell, Geo. A. Walker and wife, B. W. Green and wife, I. K. Hockley, wife and daughter, Riley Warner and wife, Henry Auchu and others.

EX-PRESIDENT HARRISON DEAD.

Indianapolis, March 13. — General Harrison died at 4:45 o'clock this afternoon. Surrounding his bed at the time of death were Mrs. Harrison, wife of the ex-President; Mrs. Eaton, of Cincinnati, and Mrs. Morris, of Minneapolis, sisters of the General; the physicians, Dr. Henry Jamison and Dr. F. O. Dorsey; W. H. H. Miller, ex-Attorney General; E. F. Tibbett, the General's private secretary, and the nurse. Neither Mrs. Mary Harrison McKee nor Russell B. Harrison, daughter and son of General Harrison, were present when the end came. Both are on the way to this city and they are expected to arrive to-night.

General Harrison did not regain consciousness before the end. He has been in a semi-conscious condition since early yesterday morning and at no time was he able to recognize any of the anxious household who were at his side during the long last hours. It had been hoped that at the last he would be able to recognize the members of his family even if he should not be able to speak.

After the death bulletin was posted expressions of personal grief were to be heard on all sides.

Immediately upon the receipt of the news of General Harrison's death, Governor Durbin ordered the flag on the State House to be put at half mast and similar tokens of regard for the distinguished dead were shown at the Federal building and numerous private buildings. To the sorrowing family the death did not come as a shock for they have realized that the result was inevitable, and that it had only been a question of hours and minutes since early this morning. Dr. Jamison had informed the family this morning that the end might be expected at any moment.

Exit Star Course—Season 1900-1901.
The closing entertainment of the People's Course, at the Court House, last Saturday night, was a fitting climax to the series of five fine attractions presented to our people during the past season.

Elias Day was delightful—his several character sketches being given with rare dramatic skill. With or without make-up he was equally effective, thus dispelling the popular impression that the main dependence of the impersonator's art is upon his accessories. In the roll of a story teller he scored a distinct success. He was both genuinely pathetic and irresistibly funny, and in fact in all that he essayed his absolute mastery of his business could not be gainsaid. The audience which was a large and representative one generously applauded all his efforts.

Miss Grace Walker, accompanied by Mrs. Beers, played very beautifully a violin solo and was enthusiastically recalled. The well known abilities of Miss Walker are a matter of pride to her many friends who predict for her a bright future.

Rev. O. S. Metzler tendered the thanks of the management to the patrons of the Star Course for their generous co-operation, and made the statement that a continuation of their support would insure a Course next season.

New Proprietor.
John Heckman has leased the E. H. Thompson hotel on North Main street, and will conduct the same in a first class manner. John is a well-known and old-time hotel man who deserves and undoubtedly will receive a liberal patronage.—Potter Enterprise.

The New Laundry.
Rev. Mulliner, who recently purchased the Bonham laundry, is busily at work remodeling the old M. E. church and will soon be ready for business again. The gentleman is a reliable, hustling man and will make the business go.

Hotel Sold.
H. W. Martindale has disposed of his hotel at Sizerville to E. D. Sizer. Consideration, $5,000. Mr. Sizer will take possession of the property at once.

Fobert-Bair.
Mr. J. L. Fobert and Miss Bertha Bair, of this place, were married at St. Mark's Church, last Tuesday morning at 6:30 o'clock, Rev. Father Downey officiating. The happy couple took the morning train for St. Marys, Mr. Fobert's former home, where they visited their many friends until last evening. The Press hopes they may pass a long, prosperous and happy life.

Team Killed.
Last Monday while W. L. Dixon was coming down Britton Hill road, near John Mulcahy's, two miles east of Emporium, the wagon slid down a steep embankment taking the horses after it. The horses fell thirty rods and were both killed. The township of Lumber will be in it for a good bill of expense, owing to the fact that guard logs were left off the road. Mr. Dixon is a poor man and the loss of his team takes away his means of earning a living.

Senator Magee Dead.
Senator Christopher Lyman Magee, of Pittsburg, editor, statesman, philanthropist and financier, died at Harrisburg last Friday. The Nation, State and Allegheny county loses a valued citizen. During the past three years Senator Magee has been in declining health and took little interest in public affairs. His funeral took place at Pittsburg on Tuesday, where he is greatly beloved and respected. In politics Senator Magee was a power—feared and respected for his honorable, manly manner of meeting those with whom he differed. He was one of the Grant 306 delegates in 1880 and has been a member of every Republican National Convention since. Of late years he had been identified with the insurgent element opposed to the Republican party. We knew the deceased personally and always respected him for his many many traits—blunt, honest and truthful. His place in the county and State is surely vacant. The honor shown his name is a fitting testimonial to C. L. Magee.

This train will carry Pullman parlor cars, dining cars and coaches.
The night train will leave Philadelphia at 8:25 p. m., Washington 7:15 p. m., Baltimore 8:30 p. m., and arrive at Buffalo 7:35 a. m.; returning, leave Buffalo 8:00 p. m., arrive Philadelphia 7:22 a. m., Baltimore 7:20 a. m., Washington 8:30 a. m. This train will carry through vestibule Pullman buffet sleeping cars and coaches.

They will be through solid vestibule trains.

This augmented service has been made necessary by the increase in travel to and from Buffalo and the prospective heavy traffic on account of the Pan-American Exposition.

Nothing is said in the will relative to Mr. Howard's splendid gift to the Masonic fraternity of this city, but it is understood that this was otherwise provided for.

To his executors and to their successors, is executed $50,000 in trust, to keep invested, on good security, and to pay over the interest, income, or dividends in equal semi-annual installments to his wife, Amanda E. Howard, during her natural life, and at her death, the executors shall pay over the principal sum, $50,000, to his grandchildren (the children of his son Samuel Titus Howard), if living at the time of her death, and, to the lawful issue of them who may be deceased, having left such issue, to be equally divided between them.

To his wife he also leaves his homestead, the house and lot on Main street, this city, with the stable, household effects and personal property (except notes, accounts, certificates or stocks, bill receivable, bonds, life insurance policies and the like) for life and after her death is goes to his grandson, Godfrey Woodhead Howard, his heirs and assigns forever. In the event of the decease of the grandson before Mrs. Howard's without leaving to survive him any child or children then, at and after the death of Mrs. Howard, it goes to the granddaughter, Marcia K. Howard, her heirs and assigns.
To his executors, and their successors, he leaves in trust $40,000, to keep invested, and to pay over the interest, income, or dividends, in equal monthly installments to his son, Samuel Titus Howard, during his life, but so that the same shall not be liable for debts of his son. At his death the executors shall pay over the $40,000 to the grandchildren living at the time, and to the lawful issue of them who may be deceased, share and share alike.
To Wildwood Cemetery Company he leaves $300 in trust, to invest and use the interest to keep in good order the Howard lot, monument and headstones.

One-half of all the rest and residue of the property, real, personal and mixed, goes to the executors in trust, to invest and pay over the interest in semi-annual installments to his grandson, Godfrey Woodhead Howard, until he is 25 years old. If then, in the judgment of the executors it shall appear that he is a sober and well doing man, competent to care for and manage his estate, the principal is to be paid him. If he is not then competent to care for the bequest, the executors shall continue to pay over to him the interest, or until such time during his life when in the judgment of the executors he is able to care for the money, when he gets the principal. If he dies before the principal is transferred, then the money goes to his children, if he has any; if he has none, then it goes in trust for the granddaughter of William Howard, or her issue.
The remaining one-half of all the rest and residue of the property, real, personal and mixed, is left to the executors in trust, to pay over the interest to Marcia K. Howard, the granddaughter, until she is 25 years old. If she is then capable of taking care of it, she gets the principle, but, if not competent, she continues to get the interest until such time after she is 25 years of age, as in the judgment of the executors she is capable of caring for the principal, when that is to be given her. If she dies before the transfer of the principal, it goes to her children, if she has any; if not, to William Howard's grandson.

The executors are allowed to sell any and all the real estate except the homestead.
