AGUINALDO CAPTURED.

MANILLA, March 28.—General Funston's daring project for the capture of Aguinaldo in his hiding place in the province of Isabela, Island of Luzon, has proved completely successful.

Aguinaldo was captured there March 23d.

The United States gunboat Vicksburg, Commander E. B. Barry, with General Funston and Aguinaldo on board, arrived here this morning.

Birth-Day Anniversaries.

A number of lady friends made a "surprise" visit to Mrs. M. B. Judd, last Tuesday afternoon, the occasion being the anniversary of her birth. Of course they were welcomed and enjoyed the occasion.

Riley Warner, mine host of Warner House, hale and hearty, celebrated his 73d birth-day yesterday. He is a wonderfully well preserved man.

Geo. Metzger, Sr., one of our oldest citizens, met us yesterday while returning from a spin on his bicycle. He informed us that he had been celebrating his 70th birth-day and wanted to complete the century record.

Our society editor missed two pleasant incidents last week, but it is never too late for the PRESS to right an omission. Last week, Monday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Julian met a large circle of friends at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Metzger, Sr., and properly celebrated Mr. Julian's 54th anniversary. Of course they and their friends enjoyed a good spread. The good wife had prepared for the center of the table a large cake, in the center of which was placed a mirror and 54 wax candles circled around the cake. The occasion is pleasantly referred to by those who attended.

William H. Howard and Mrs. C. F. Mankey's birth-day anniversary happening to come on the same day, it has been the custom of the two families to join issues in celebrating the event. This year it was Mr. and Mrs. Howard's turn to entertain Mr. and Mrs. Mankey and their friends, which, of course, was done in elegant style. The event took place at Mr. and Mrs. Howard's large and palatial residence on Sixth street. It would not be considered etiquette to give the pleasant lady's age, yet we are informed Mr. Howard is near the 44th line.

North Creek to Boom.

The citizens of North Creek are elated over the prospects in store for them. Mr. W. D. Johnson, a practical lumberman, has purchased the Hathaway lands, located near Six Mile Run, and has already contracted with W. H. Cramer for the construction of a large shingle mill and camp, to be operated day and night. Mr. W. F. Kiley, the manager, informs us they will also erect a saw mill and another shingle mill at once. The firm are large manufacturers of shingles, last year alone their sales amounted to fifty millions of shingles. They will give employment to 75 to 100 men and many teams.

How Long, Oh! Lord?

Fourth street could be made one of the most beautiful streets in the State, but it is, and has been for years, a mud hole. With an abundance of slag from the furnace there is no sense in maintaining a nuisance. Some of the finest driveways in Pennsylvania are constructed from furnace slag, the objections of some to the contrary, notwithstanding. Try it, Mr. Councilmen.

The New Laundry.

E. E. Mulliner, the new proprietor of the Laundry, has secured the services of a first-class foreman and will be ready to receive orders on April 1st.

EASTER MILLINERY.—Mrs. Bardwell invites the ladies to view her fine display of Easter Hats and trimmings, Tuesday and Wednesday, April 2d and 3rd.

Sunday at M. E. Church.

The services at M. E. Church next Sunday will be as follows: Class meeting at 10 a. m.; preaching, by Rev. E. E. Mulliner, at 10:30, a. m.; Sunday School from 11:45 to 1 o'clock; Junior League at 3 p. m., and devotional services of Epworth League at 6 p. m., giving all who desire an opportunity to attend preaching services at other churches.

Mothers' Meeting.

The regular Mothers' Meeting will be held in the High School room, Saturday, March 30th, at 2:30 p. m.

The following questions will be discussed: (1) How may older pupils be induced to remain in school? (2) Home reading for children; its value. (3) Home visitation by teachers. It is earnestly requested that, so far as possible, all mothers will plan to be present at this meeting.

Governor Signs Bill for Soldiers.

Governor Stone has signed the senate bill providing for the burial of honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines who served the United States in any war, who died in almshouses and like institutions. The bill authorizes county commissioners to purchase plots of ground for the burial of honorably discharged soldiers, sailors or marines who served in the United States in any war and who die in indigent circumstances.

Post Office Time of Closing Mails.

Postmaster Chas. Seger desires the patrons of Emporium to kindly bear in mind the hours that mails close for the several trains. Cut this out and put in convenient place:

CHAS. SEGER, P. M.

A Queer Experience.

Josiah Fink, father of J. H. Fink, of this place, had a very queer accident happen him Monday afternoon. He was driving across the P. & N. W. tracks with some freight when, in some unexplainable manner, he fell off the seat, striking his head and side on one of the rails which rendered him unconscious for fully fifteen minutes. When he recovered he was unable to explain the matter at all. He doesn't understand how he fell, or after he had apparently gained consciousness did not remember driving to the depot and unloading his wagon. Mr. Fink is 71 years old and is as hale and hearty as most men at fifty. He is very much mystified as to how it all happened.—Punxsutawney Spirit. The gentleman referred to above is Josiah Fink, an old-time resident of Sinnamahoning, and in his day the wheel horse of Cameron county democracy. We know many of our readers will be pleased to hear from the gentleman, yet all will be sorry to hear of his accident.

Please Take Notice.

On and after the first day of April anyone having in their possession, or using my bottles for any purpose other than for what they are intended, or any persons offering for sale or buying said bottles, will be prosecuted and punished to the full extent of the law. Please observe this notice.

5-3t F. X. BLUMLE.
Dress goods sold from samples at E. Hurteau's.

Emmanuel Church.

There will be a celebration of the Holy Communion next Sunday, (Palm Sunday), at 7:30 a. m.

Sad News.

Ex-Sheriff Frank Mundy on Monday received a telegram informing him of the sudden death of his sister, Mrs. Annie English, of Anita, Jefferson county, Pa., in her 30th year. The news was a sad blow to Mr. Mundy and wife, who did not even know that the lady was ill. Mr. and Mrs. English visited here last Summer and met many of our citizens. Mr. Mundy left Tuesday morning to attend the funeral.

The Country of Sheridan's Ride.

The unique project of photographing the entire route of Sheridan's ride, from Winchester, Virginia, to Cedar Creek, as it is to-day, has been carried out by The Ladies' Home Journal, and the result will be shown in a picture story of fourteen photographs. Sheridan and his aids on horse-back, from historical pictures, have been introduced into each picture, so that the ride of 1864 is shown as if it were taken to-day through that country, which, in reality, has changed but little.

A. W. Mason Does Some Rapid Work in the Sinnamahoning.

A. W. Mason, the Sterling Run jobber for Brown, Clark & Howe, of Williamsport, reached Driftwood with his Sinnamahoning drive of 2,000,000 feet of logs on Thursday evening. In the accomplishment of this undertaking Mr. Mason did something remarkable in fast work, and every one of the logs are expected to reach the boom on the present rise. Mr. Mason is one of the up-to-date drivers, and is remarkably successful in all his work.—Renovo News.

Elk County Medical Society.

The bi-monthly meeting of the Elk County medical Society was held at Ridgway, Thursday, March 14th. In speaking of the papers read before the Society, the Elk Democrat says: "A paper was read by Dr. Bardwell upon a subject of interest to the profession. It was an excellent production, and was well received." You can rest assured the subject was handled properly.—Dr. B. never writes unless he has something to say, and that right to the point in plain English.

Returned from Philippines.

Willis J. McClenahan, Corporal of Company C, 36th Reg., U. S. Vol., returned to Emporium last Friday, after serving in the Philippines since March 1899. McClenahan evidently was a good soldier for he returns home bearing the stripes of Corporal. His friends here are pleased to know that he fared well under Uncle Sam. In conversation with the PRESS, last evening, he spoke well of the Philippines and may re-enlist again, after visiting his old friends and parents for a time. He is busy now receiving congratulations of friends.

Maro, the Magician.

There is nothing more delightful to the little ones, or the older ones either, than an entertainment in magic. They have all read about Aladdin and his wonderful lamp. They have all read the fascinating books of Hans Andersen and the marvelous "Grimm's Fairy Tales," and know the different wizards in these stories so well that if they met them on the street they wouldn't be the least afraid. But it is one thing to read about these wizards of "ye olden times" and quite another thing to see one in this enlightened day of the world. To be sure there are only a few, a very few real meritorious and recognized conjurers in our country to-day, and "the youngest of the great and the greatest of the young" of these wonder-workers is Maro. His easy, graceful manner and pleasant conversational way of presenting things to his audience at once wins their confidence and esteem. For by his peculiar method of working he gives out the impression that he is not trying to deceive his audience, and to this fact alone may be contributed a great proportion of Maro's success, for his auditors at once become on friendly terms with him, and enter into the various illusions almost as ardently as the magician himself. Maro is always looking about him for something new, and is constantly presenting a program of late novelties. He may be termed a "popular conjuror," for he is just wise enough for the sedate; humorous enough for the jovial; refined enough for the fashionable, and just mysterious enough to please the old and young alike.

EASTER OPENING.—Pattern hats and millinery novelties. Thursday, April fourth, 1901. E. HURTEAU.

WEATHER REPORT.
(Forecast by T. B. Lloyd.)
FRIDAY, Partly cloudy; cold.
SATURDAY, Warmer, probably rain.
SUNDAY, Fair.

BRIEF MENTION.

Next Monday the flittings will begin to flit.

Demand for dwelling houses is on the increase here.

April 1st is moving day and many of our citizens will "flit."

Several Emporium ladies are interested in the "Buffalo" club.

Many new dwelling houses will be erected in Emporium this summer.

If the fool-killer comes along next Monday he will no doubt have his hands "fool."

Daniel Downey, of west Fifth street, has made extensive improvements in and about his residence.

The ladies of M. E. Church netted $26.00 from the festival held last Saturday evening. Great workers.

How about your yards, are they in apple-pie order? It is now the time of year to begin this important matter of cleaning up.

M. C. Tulis, the big brick department store, offers the PRESS readers some extraordinary bargains this week. Read his ad.

Howard C. Benham, who narrowly escaped the electric chair in the celebrated wife poisoning case, is now a traveling gas fixture agent.

Judge Mitchell has appointed W. C. Gilmore, Esq., guardian for Godfrey and Marcia Howard, grandchildren of the late William Howard.—Williamsport News.

An overheated gas stove in Bedard's tailoring establishment came near causing a fire last Sunday afternoon, but early discovery and prompt work saved a first-class local and Mr. B. his stock.

Some men say that a woman in calico looks as fair and inviting as a woman in satin or silk, but the women don't believe it. They well know that fine feathers greatly become fine birds.

The literary department of the Epworth League gave an unique entertainment last Friday evening. The program consisted of singing, reading, recitations and instrumental solos, and was enjoyed by a large audience.

A Dutchman stopped us the other day and asked: "Why don't those wimmens git that clock? Efray dime I loogs at that Gourt House oop I gan't dell what dime iss it. I suppose they don't got some moneys enough maype, ooh?"

John E. Smith, of Sterling Run, has an advertisement in this issue that will interest all farmers and gardeners. Mr. Smith conducts one of the best stores in the county, does a flourishing business and sells at very reasonable prices. Read his announcement.

The Climax Powder Company have contracted for five hundred tons of cinder, from the furnace at this place, to be used on their private wagon road. The Climax haul heavy loads, yet they find it makes excellent roads. Still our borough council refuse to use it on the streets. Gentlemen, take one block, scrape up the mud, haul it away and try the cinder for an experiment, but keep the mud off the street.

Warner House Sold.

Just as we go to press we are reliably informed that Jos. L. Wheeler has closed the contract for the purchase of the Warner House, to take effect at once, or as soon as the license can be transferred. The house will be completely renovated, remodeled, repaired and refurbished. We have not the time to give the particulars in this issue.

Mankey Plant Resumes.

The charter having been granted for THE MANKEY MANUFACTURING COMPANY this long idle Emporium industry resumed operations last Monday morning under the management of Mr. C. F. Mankey and a number of other Emporium capitalists. The plant will be in full running order within a few days and as rapidly as the lumber is turned from the dry kilns the machinery department will resume operations. Orders are rapidly coming in from old customers. The stockholders are exclusively home business men and have ample capital to successfully float the enterprise. The plant will be operated to its fullest capacity.

Engraved Work.

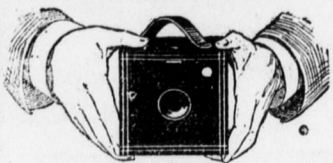

The PRESS jobbing department is prepared to furnish engraved cards, wedding invitations or announcements. Call and see samples and learn our prices. Prices reasonable.

Carpets.

OUR stock of Carpets, Rugs and Mattings is the largest and most complete in the county. Having anticipated the wants of our customers, we have bought very heavily for this spring's trade. Not only is our stock the largest, in the county, but our customers will get better value for less money here than elsewhere. Now if you need a carpet, come and look our line over. We know we can please you. And as we have said before, the prices are the lowest. An immense line of oil cloth. WALL PAPER.—Large and fine stock.

M. C. TULIS.

EASTMAN'S KODAK
