a death in our midst caused more sor-row. Mr. McCrea was a gentleman universally beloved and the shock of his demise, even though expected, will not soon be forgotten. For the past two months Mr. Mc-Crea's condition had been most serious. The best medical advice in the State was consulted and all that was known to science applied, but without avail. He bore his sufferings calmly, patiently and even cheerfully.

Mr. McCrea was born at Hollidays-burg, Blair county, Pa., February 14, 1849, and was therefore in the fifty-sec-ond year of his age. The family later moved to Altoona. In 1863 Mr. McCrea became an ap-prentice in the Baldwin locomotive works of Philadelphia, where he re-mained four years learning the mould-ing trade. In 1867 he first came to Renovo and remained here five years. Later he went to Pittsburg and thence to Canada but returned to Renovo in 1878 and since then has been one of our most honored and highly respected cit-izens. On May 7, 1890 he was appointed associate judge of this county by Governor Beaver, to fill out the unexpired term of Judge W. K. Chesnutt, who had resigned. In the fall of 1890 Mr. McCrea ran for the of-fice but was once more defeated. Later he ran for county treasurer and was elected by a splendid majority.
