W. H. CRAMER'S
The Popular Variety Store.

New Oil Field.
Ridgwayites are considerably excited over the discovery of oil, last Wednesday in a well drilled by the Ridgway Light and Heat Co. The strike is good for ten barrels a day and probably opens a new oil belt.

Ice Cream Sale.
Mrs. Walter Morrison will hold an Ice Cream sale on lawn of her house, W. Fifth St., Tuesday evening, June 11, for the benefit of her band. In addition to ice cream in various flavors, cake and coffee will be served, also strawberries. Public patronage respectfully solicited.

Mann-Fetter.
At the residence of the bride's parents on Sunday evening, June 2nd, 1901, JOHN FRANKLIN MANN, and MISS RENA M. FETTER, were united in marriage by the Rev. O. S. Metzler, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church. They have the best wishes of their friends for a happy and prosperous life.

Accidents at Sinnamahoning.
Last Saturday a young man, named Thoreia, employed in the Sinnamahoning kindling wood factory received an ugly cut by a piece of wood flying from a saw.
Another accident also occurred, to a young man employed on the log train, last Saturday. One of his feet was smashed by being caught between two loaded cars of logs.

Emporium School Board.
The Emporium school directors met Monday evening and organized by electing the following officers: President, L. K. Huntington; Secretary, N. J. Barner; Treasurer, F. P. Rentz. Prof. Bastian was re-elected principal and Miss Van Valkenberg, assistant. The election of teachers will be completed and announced at the next meeting.

New Emmanuel Church.
Emmanuel Church Vestrymen on Monday awarded the contract to John W. Kriner for the erection of their new stone church, a very handsome design. The edifice will occupy the location of the old church. We are not permitted to publish the full particulars as to cost, etc., but from what we can learn when the building is completed it will be one of the finest in this section of the state. The church is to be enclosed by December of this year.

Will Probably Leave Us.
W. S. Walker, son of our townsman Geo. A. Walker, Sr., has accepted a responsible position with the Emporium Lumber Company, of which he is a stockholder. The new duties require him to devote at least part of his time to the business, which, of necessity, will take him from home a greater part of the time. The growing business of this firm may require him to move his family to Austin in the future. We hope not. Mr. Walker is an excellent citizen and business man and his pleasant family among the most respected.

Death of James McKinnon.
James McKinnon aged 48 years, an employe of Hon. F. X. Blumle was kicked by a horse last Wednesday morning and died from the injuries on Saturday morning. The gentleman's friends reside in Nova Scotia and though communicated with, arrangements for the forwarding of his body could not be effected and the burial was made in Newton Cemetery.
The services were conducted at the home of Mr. Blumle on Sunday at 2 o'clock, p. m. and were very largely attended. They were in charge of the Rev. O. S. Metzler, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, and were deeply impressive, a sense of sadness pervading all hearts. The music which was furnished by members of the Presbyterian choir was tender and beautiful. The thoughtful kindness of Mr. Blumle and family in effecting the arrangements for the services and for the burial is highly creditable and is commended by all.

Integrity and Capacity of Women in Business.
"Do women embezzle?" This question was asked one of the heaviest dry goods merchants of one of our large cities who always employ women as cashiers. "Do women embezzle?" "No they don't; I never knew a woman who handled other people's money to steal a cent. And I have employed women cashiers for years. They are quicker at making change than men, they keep their accounts cleaner and don't want to run the whole store as men usually do. Never knew a single case of embezzlement by women, can't say the same of men." Many such testimonies could be had, proving the honesty of women when handling the money of other people. The statement of others who have informed themselves on this subject is that women seldom ever fail to pay their debts, even when they might avail themselves of the bankrupt law they prefer holding themselves legally liable for the debt. While newspapers are full of wicked theft and embezzlements of bank presidents running away with fortunes belonging to others, wrecking homes, impoverishing families, destroying reputations, disgracing their friends and ruining themselves. While trusted men are robbing public institutions, speculating, gambling and stealing caring not whom they rob, wrong or ruin, women are seldom guilty of such dishonesty or crimes. The general belief is that women are honest, yet in the face of this fact men refuse to lend them money to start in business, to invest in real estate, or help them save their property upon which they have paid a certain amount, and which can only be saved by prompt payment of the remainder. Women often find it hard to secure even a small loan on good security. Men prefer to say they have not the means at hand or some other excuse, a few are manly enough to state the truth and say "We do not do business with women." Very few treat them as they do men giving them a chance to make an honest living. Why is this? Some men cling to the old idea that it is not becoming in women to engage in business outside of her home, however needy we may be. Hundreds of wealthy men will give and give liberally to establish homes for women who have tried to secure homes for themselves, but these good men would not lend them the small amount because they believed they did not understand business. The greatest kindness and noblest act is to help the needy to help themselves. If women do not understand business, how are they to overcome this deficiency if prevented by such circumstances from acquiring the knowledge? With honest principle and proper opportunity supplied with some means and trusted by the public, they cannot fail to become as trusted as their brothers and as proficient breadwinners. Give them a chance to become self supporters rather than genteel paupers. Save them this humility added to their other trials.

A WOMAN.

Card of Thanks.
Editor Press:—
Please convey to the good people of Emporium our thanks for their attendance at the funeral of James McKinnon, who recently died while in my employ.
While deceased was far from friends and relatives it will be a consolation to them to know that their son and brother had a christian burial and every attention during his illness.
F. X. BLUMLE.

Decoration Day at Sinnamahoning.
Memorial day was properly observed at this place, under the direction of P. O. S. of A. Barclay Brothers, who kindly closed their mill that their employes might attend the exercises, have the thanks of the committee. The old veterans of G. A. R. were out in force and were in the line of march and conducted the services at the graves of their fallen comrades. The Sinnamahoning Cornet Band headed the procession and rendered some fine music. The Sunday school made a fine appearance, with their hands full of flowers. The little tots rendered their part nobly. All the ladies who assisted in furnishing flowers will please accept our thanks for their patriotic display to our noble dead.
At 7:30 in the evening all were invited to attend special services at M. E. church and met at P. O. S. of A. Hall, when they marched to the church in a body and listened to a sermon by Rev. Faus of M. E. Church.

Resolutions of Respect.
EMPORIUM, PA., May 24th, 1901.
At a regular review of Good Will Tent, No. 46 K. O. T. M., the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:
WHEREAS, it has pleased Almighty God to enter our ranks and almost without a moments warning take from our midst brother, Sir Knight P. E. LEWIS:
Resolved: That while we lament his removal we do it in submission to Him who doeth all things well; that we sincerely sympathize with his widowed wife and with his children in their hour of affliction.
Resolved: That these resolutions be published in the local papers and a copy sent to the bereaved family as an expression of our regard, and that our Charter be draped for sixty days.
From the minutes.

EMPORIUM, PA., May 31st, 1901.
At a regular review of Good Will Tent, No. 46 K. O. T. M., the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:
WHEREAS, it has pleased the all wise Father to again enter our ranks for the second time within a week and take from our midst our friend and brother Sir Knight SAMUEL L. STODDARD:
Therefore, be it
Resolved: That while we feel our loss and deeply sympathize with the afflicted family in their sad and sudden bereavement we would recommend that in their sorrow they turn to Him who alone can comfort the afflicted and ever remember that there is no sorrow but has some hidden blessing, and no cloud but has a silver lining.
Resolved: That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes, published in the local papers, a copy sent to the bereaved family and our Charter draped for sixty days.
From the minutes.

SUNDAY, Fair.

Ballad of the Trailing Skirt.

I met a girl the other day,
A girl with golden tresses,
Who wore the most bewitching air
And daintiest of dresses,
I gazed at her with kindling eye
And admiration utter—
Until I saw her silken skirt
Was trailing in the gutter!
"What senseless style is this?" I thought;
"What new sartorial passion?
And who on earth stands sponsor for
The idiotic fashion?"
I've asked a dozen maids or more,
A tailor and his cutter,
But no one knows why skirts are made
To drag along the gutter.
What lovely woman wills to do
She does without a reason,
To interfere is waste of time,
To criticize is treason.
Man's only province is to work
To earn his bread and butter—
And buy her all the skirts she wants
To trail along the gutter. —Life.
