Emporium, Pa. Emporium, Pa.

Dear Sir: You know how well it pays to keep your carriages painted, both for looks and to keep out water. It pays as well to paint your barn and your house. We put your barn first, because that is your business—your customers see it. You see, there are two good reasons for paint:one is looks: the other is wear. paint; one is looks; the other is wear for paint; one is looks; the other is wear. If you paint for looks, the wear will take care of itself.

Paint often for looks; and use good paint for both looks and wear.

The best paint is Devoe lead and zine ground together by machinery; same proportions as are used by the U. S. Government. It wears twice as long as lead and oil mixed by hand.

Yours truly,

KING SOLOMON AND THE QUEEN OF SHEBA.

In Connection with John Robinson's 10 Big Shows Combined.

This wonderful spectacle has a breadth of effect which surprises and delights. Its gorgeous processions and splendid ballets are incomporable, and nothing so vast or imposing has ever been seen in this country before. We gaze upon the ancient city of Jerusalem and the Temple of Solomon animated with life and glowing with color. It is no mere artificial show, but a vivid and vast realization of life in the time of Solomon. The scenes are beguiled by its reality as well as its surpassing beauty and the perfection of its details at Emporium, Friday, June 21.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

BROWN.

BROWN.

JAMES W. BROWN, aged 72 years, nine months and ten days, died quite suddenly last Monday evening, at five o'clock, at the residence of his brother-in-law, Hon. S. S. Smith, in Emporium, of neuralgia of the heart. Deceased came to Emporium on Saturday last, accompanied by his wife to visit his sister, Mrs. Smith. He seemed to be in perfect health until 10:30 Monday morning when he was taken with neuralgra and continued to grow worse until five o'clock, when death relieved his suffering. The remains were taken to Weedville, Pa., the home, for interment this morning. Services will be held in the Presbyterian Church at Mt. Zion at 1:30 to-day.

ment this morning. Services will be held in the Presbyterian Church at Mt. Zion at 1:30 to-day.

Mr. Brown was well and very favorably known to our older citizens, having for ten years been a resident of Driftwood, leaving there about fifteen years ago, after which time he has mostly resided on his farm, and engaged in lumbering, near Weedville, Pa. Realizing that old age had fastened its fangs unto him he decided to take some rest and comfort, visit his sisters, children and grand-children, and accordingly wound up his business affairs, stored his household goods and, with his wife, was en route for the Pan-America, thence to visit his daughter. Mrs. Gillon (well known here) at Towanda, Pa., from which place they were going to the far west to remain with their sons and daughter fer a year at least. He was full of hope for a pleasant summer when death interposed, crushing the fond anticipations of wife, sisters and children. Such is life—and death.

Hon. S. S. Smith and wife, promptly notified the absent ones and yesterday his sons James and Harry, of Bradner, O., and daughter, Mrs. Mary Keister accompanied by her husdand and children, arrived from same place. Mrs. J. M. Gillon, the youngest daughter, arrived yesterday morning.

How rapidly the old landmarks are passing away.

Mrs. McLaughlin was an estimable woman, kind, courageous and true. Her life is an example in word and deed. Not only in the home, but through the entire community her death leaves a vacancy. Peace to her memory, for it is precious.

She loved us, but she's gone.

She loved us, but she's gone. We miss her, but then Why spend our tears to mourn? She came to a happy end.

Yet, we are mortal, And sorrow is hard to bear. Yes, but our sorrow is not "no hope' For we shall meet her there,
