No Paper Next Week.

The PRESS, as has been our custom for years, will not be issued next week. The office will be opened for the transaction of business and receive orders for job printing, advertising and subscription.

Bitten by a Dog.

On Saturday evening Bing Hemphill was holding his dog, a small canine, when another dog came up from behind and took hold of Hemphill's dog's hind leg, and no sooner had he done this when the little fellow took a mouthful of Bing's left hand.

A Pleasant Gentleman.

The PRESS was favored last Friday with a call from Mr. Hugh F. Hoffman, press representative of John Robinson show. We found Mr. Hoffman very much of a gentleman and enjoyed his acquaintance. If all of Mr. Robinson's managers are of the same stamp as Mr. Hoffman it is not to be wondered that his reputation is rapidly growing.

An Old-Timer G ne.

WILLIAM BRITTON, aged 78 years, died in Clearfield Home, June 14th, 1901. Mr. Wm. Britton, came from Trenton, N. J., with his parents, when a boy and located in Rich Valley with the early settlers. He married Elizabeth Fisher and had four children, three of whom are living. Deceased will be remembered by many of our older citizens.

Wu Ting Fang in Emporium.

Hardly a day passes but Emporium is honored by the presence of one or more prominent gentlemen. Last Sunday, Wu Ting Fang, the Chinese Minister to the United States, accompanied by his wife, stopped in Emporium a short time while waiting for the Flyer to change engine and crews. Wu and his wife alighted from the train and seemed to greatly admire the beautiful scenery surrounding Emporium—there is none more beautiful. This able diplomat and scholar delivered an address at Buffalo last Friday before the New York State Bankers' Association, in annual convention. He reviewed the monetary system of the Chinese empire from the twelfth century before Christ.

Mr. Wu commented on the fact that there is no American bank in China, the large volume of trade between the empire and the United States being transacted through the agency of European and other merchants. "I hope," he concluded, "that at your next annual convention you will be able to report not only the existence of some American mercantile house in Hong Kong, but through your influence and support, the establishment of an American bank also in China."

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

Otto Nellis Falls Under the Wheels of Emporium and Rich Valley Log Train and Loses a Leg.

Last Friday morning about 9:30 Otto Nellis, aged about 22 years and employed as brakeman on Emporium & Rich Valley R. R., log train, met with a serious accident on Cooks Run that came near costing his life. When near Thos. DeLong's camp (No. 12) young Nellis, while in the act of throwing off the break, was thrown under the log cars, caused by the brake rod pulling out. He was dragged about sixty feet but had presence of mind to keep one leg free from the wheels. His left leg was frightfully mangled and after being brought to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Nellis at this place, Drs. Smith, DeLong and Heilman amputated the leg at the thigh.

At the time of the accident the injured man with great presence of mind and wonderful nerve, crawled from the track to the hill side, a distance of 20 feet, motioned the trainmen to stop the train. Promptly assistance was brought and the injured man made as comfortable as possible until the train could make a hurried run from Cooks Run to Emporium, a distance of six miles. Grave fears were entertained that the young man would not survive the shock but his indomitable will power aided him no doubt and the doctors now believe, unless some unforeseen complication sets in, that he will recover. "Doc," as his associates call him, has the sympathy of our citizens and all hope he may soon recover from his serious injury.

A Happy Event—Sixty Years of Wedded Life.

On Tuesday, June 18th, Mr. and Mrs. James Russell, of Mason Hill, celebrated the 60th anniversary of their wedded life. About one hundred invited guests, (for everybody had a cordial invitation) assembled at their residence early in the day to show their respect for the aged couple. The occasion was happily spent in social chat and visiting. After a splendid dinner, to which all done justice, Rev. G. W. Steel, of Wesleyan Methodist church, made a neat and timely speech, after which all bowed in prayer and the Rev. gentleman invoked the blessings of God on the venerable couple. This was an event that very seldom happens that two persons travel life together for 60 years. Those in attendance from a distance were: C. McCracken and wife, (daughter), of Straights; Mrs. James Bennett, (daughter), Croysland; Mr. Ed. Russell, a son, of First Fork, and F. B. Russell, son, of this place, and lots of grand children. The presents were numerous, beautiful and costly. We will mention just a few: Newton Mix a fat sheep, that was eaten up, rump and stump; Miss Nellie Marsh, a rug, woven in many colors with 60 in the centre; Mrs. McCracken, a robe and a wreath for her mother, which when placed on the head of the lady made her look like a girl of sweet 16. Mr. Russell, dressed in his best suit and wearing a most beautiful bouton bouquet was as happy as a lad of long ago. All went home pleased with the occasion and were invited to participate in diamond wedding twenty-five years hence. The ages of the venerable couple are Mr. Russell, 82; Mrs. Russell, 74.

One matter we almost forgot to mention, and that is that Mrs. H. and J. M. English have not been well since the feast and had the sheep been a little larger neither Miss M. or Miss B. would have stood any show whatever—even if they did make a charge against "Sandy." C. W. Williams got left all around. E. M. J.

Doing Nicely.

At this writing Otto Nellis, who lost a leg on Emporium & Rich Valley R. R., last Friday, is doing nicely and is gaining in strength.

Children's Day.

Next Sunday will be observed as Children's Day at the Methodist Episcopal church. The minister will preach an appropriate sermon at the morning services and administer the Sacrament of Baptism to children. The exercises by the children will be held in the evening and will be of a very interesting character. The floral decorations will be beautiful.

Congressional and Judicial.

Cameron, Clearfield, Centre, Elk and McKean counties have been framed as the latest Congressional district, at least it was at last reports. It is rather hard to say what will be the outcome of the situation. The Conference report filed Tuesday places McKean back in the Sibley district and leaves this district Cameron, Elk Clearfield and Centre.

There have been many reports as to a probable change in this judicial district, connecting Potter and Cameron counties, but from the information at hand the PRESS is inclined to believe that the old district will remain as heretofore—Clinton, Cameron and Elk

A Beautiful Book.

Fred A. Johnson, a student at Swarthmore College, has presented us with a handsomely bound volume of "The Halcyon," which is the Junior annual of the above college. The publication, of which Fred is a member of the board of editors, consists of one hundred and ninety pages of matter, finely illustrated with cuts of the college buildings, classes, fraternity and athletic groups. It is rich in class poems and verse describing scenes and events familiar to the college and more particularly to the class of 1902. The whole book, true to its title is filled with the warmth and glow of the typical, halcyon college days and reflects much credit upon the board of editors and managers.

The People's Star Course.

The ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church will endeavor to conduct a Star Course the coming season and have secured an option on the appended list of attractions: They are the very best procurable and are very expensive and only the most general and liberal patronage will make it possible for them to proceed with the undertaking.

The price for a course ticket will be the same as last year $1.50 each including reserved seat. The canvas will shortly be made and upon the success of this everything will depend. Persons will be asked to indicate the number of tickets they will take to be delivered in the early autumn.

THE LIST.

THE HUNGARIAN COURT ORCHESTRA of Budapest. First American tour. An organization including many of the most talented musical artists of the land, of their nativity, and absolutely unrivaled in every way.

MARTHA S. GIELOW, Southern writer and delineator of Old Plantation Days. Known to two continents, having just returned from a most successful season in England. Pre-eminently the artist of the age.

THE ROGERS-GRIFFY Recitals, Harpist, Entertainer. Appearing in the Institute course last year and upon the strength of the fine impression they then made their re-engagement was effected.

DR. A. A. WILLET'S Lecture. Among the really great lecturers of this generation. Sam Jones says: "Dr. Willetts is a sunbeam by day light and an arc light by night."

THE COPLEY SQUARE TRIO of Boston, all well known artists. Their program includes violin, xylophon, vocals, solos, bells, mandolin, banjo and guitar duets and trios. This company occupies an absolute unique place in the field of musical entertainment. Never fails to please.

New Phones This Week.

No. 42—Emporium Steam Laundry.
No. 43—L. Taggart, Drug store.

Literary Prize Contest.

Question number four was correctly answered. It runs like this: Franklin was dining with a party of diplomats, when a gentleman proposed that as three nationalities were represented, each ambassador should toast his own country.

The English Prime Minister had the initial opportunity, and he said proudly: "Here is to Great Britain, the sun that enlightens the world."

The French Premier had the next chance, though a trifle annoyed at being obliged to content himself with a brilliant luminary, he said placidly: "Here is to France, the moon whose magic rays move the tides."

A smile ran round the table as Franklin rose, and most of the guests indulged in secret gratulation that he had nothing but the stars to compare America to. But with the philosophic wisdom which distinguished "poor Richard's almanack," he thundered forth:

"To George Washington, the Joshua of America, who commanded the sun and moon to stand still—and they obeyed."

Query No. 5: What language did Christ speak?
Send in your answers to box 163, Emporium, Pa., and win the prize offered by the Emmanuel Free Reading Room.

BRIEF MENTION.

Farmers are cutting clover. The Emporium Laundry is doing excellent work and is enjoying a large business.

The Shippen Supervisors have completed the new bridge across West Creek, at Gaskill's.

Alex. Mason says he did not take in the side show and says "John E. Smith don't want to tell that."

Hon. Harry Alvan Hall, late of Ridgeway, has opened a law office in Pittsburgh, where he will practice his profession in the future.

A. W. Mason has an item in "Business Notice" department of this issue of the PRESS, a local that will interest teamsters, or owners of teams.

Judging from the number of boilers being received by W. D. Johnson he expects to put in several more shingle mills. The more the merrier.

It is reported that one of E. L. Klock's little boys was struck by an engine last Saturday and thrown from the track, thereby escaping death.

The poles are being distributed along the line between Emporium and Austin for the long distance telephone. The sooner the better.

Contractor Kriner has the old Emmanuel church moved back to the alley, facing Walnut street. He will now rush the work on the new structure.

This good warm weather will help the farmers. The hay crop will only be an average cut. Late planted corn will be better than early corn, so says farmer Heilman.

The circus has been here and all the big boys as well as the little ones went out for the day. The show was good and gave the best of satisfaction to our people.

The Pennsylvania department of forestry has purchased 15,000 acres of land in Keating and Summit townships, Potter county. The Goodyears have stripped it of its hemlock, but much valuable timber remains.

Adelbert S. Hay, son of Secretary Hay and former consul to Pretoria, was found dead on the sidewalk outside the hotel at New Haven at 2.30 a. m., last Sunday. It is believed that Hay became ill and went to the window for air, was overcome by a fit of dizziness and fell to the ground below.

Continues to Improve.

Mine host Mennette, of Warner House continues to make improvements on the interior of the house. Painters, paper hangers, carpenters and plumbers have possession of the house.

Eye Injured.

Fred A. Hill, whose left eye was severely injured last week, by a piece of steel flying from a saw and imbedding itself in the eye is almost restored to perfect vision again. The injury was painful but Drs. DeLong and Bardwell succeeded in removing the trouble.

Tumor Removed.

Last Sunday morning Dr. S. S. Smith, assisted by Dr. DeLong, removed from the right breast of Mrs. Nelson Cutler a very large tumor. The operation was very successful and the patient is resting very comfortable. Mrs. Cutler and husband are occupying rooms at Mrs. Libbie Housler's on West Fourth street until she is able to be moved to her home. The lady has been a great sufferer for a long time.

WEATHER REPORT.
