Mrs. I. K. Hockley last Friday returned from an extended visit with friends and relatives at eastern points.

Prof. C. P. Bastian, principal of Emporium schools, is visiting old friends at Muncy, Pa., his former home.

Master Daniel Welsh, son of Jas. J. Welsh, was a PRESS visitor on Tuesday and transacted business like a little man.

Franklin Housler informs the PRESS that his wife, who is receiving medical treatment at Binghamton, N. Y., is improving and feels encouraged.

Hon. F. X. and Mrs. Blumle, accompanied by his son Leo and daughters Misses Mary and Agnes, have returned from a delightful trip to Pan-Am.

Roy McDonald, of Cleveland, who has been enjoying himself with his many Emporium friends during the past week, left on Tuesday for his home.

Mrs. S. L. Stoddard, Mrs. J. S. Douglas and Miss Nellie O'Day, drove to Colegrove, this (Thursday) morning to visit a few days with Miss Bessie Heinaman.

Miss Grace Kissinger, of Williamsport, and Miss Flossie Yennie, of Wilcox, are guests of Misses Byrde and Flossie Taggart, at their pleasant home on Fourth street.

Mrs. Ella Gilbert, of East Hebron, is guest of Franklin Housler and family, during the absence of Mrs. Housler, (her sister) at Binghamton, where she is receiving medical treatment.

Our genial friend Frank Moon, of Shippen, was a PRESS visitor yesterday.

Miss Linda Fisk, of St. Marys, who was guest of Miss Iva McDougall, returned home yesterday.

Chas. Deihl and wife are happy over the arrival of a beautiful little lady at their home, Tuesday evening.

Postmaster Segner's new cancelling machine is one of only one hundred and fifty distributed in U. S., on trial.

R. Seger has returned from Buffalo, his wife having continued her trip to visit Erie friends. They enjoyed the trip.

Contractor Metzger informs the PRESS that he will have the electric lights up in time for Firemen's Tournament.

John Meyers has come to town to remain until after Firemen's Convention. This accounts for the big snake yarns.

John Given, of Kane, was in town on Monday visiting friends. He returned on mail, accompanied by Miss Edna Warner, who will visit with his family.

M. P. Whiting, of Ridgway, arrived in Emporium yesterday to visit with friends for a few days in this section. Elk county climate evidently agrees with him.

H. W. Martindale, of Sizerville, was a business caller at the PRESS office yesterday. In this issue will be found a business local offering for sale the well known Sizerville Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Pepper have been spending the past two weeks at Watkins Glen and other points of interest, visiting Mrs. Pepper's mother (Mrs. Joel Shives) and other relatives.

Mrs. Amos Fenton, who has been in a precarious condition for several weeks, continues to fail and her death is only a matter of a few days. Her many friends will be pained to learn this sad intelligence.

William Taylor, of Buffalo, has informed his Emporium friends that he is the proud father of a young son of the regulation weight; and consequently thinks the Pan-Am. is not the only attraction at the lake city.

Miss Carrie Sanford, of Great Falls, Montana, started for her Western home Monday, after a brief visit with Cameron county friends. Miss Sanford is one of Montana's best teachers and is a person of very pleasing appearance.

Edward Blinzler, accompanied by his wife and children, passed last week rusticating at his father-in-law's farm, near St. Marys. LATER—We regret to learn that Mr. Blinzler has been quite ill, but is expected to return to-morrow.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Fahnstock, of Waynesboro, Pa., arrived in Emporium last Saturday to visit with E. C. Davidson and family, and Harry Fahnstock. They are now talking in Pan-Am., but return to Emporium to-day, to remain a week.

A mining claim in Idaho has been named "Minnie," in honor of Miss Minnie Bargelt, of Emporium, who is now visiting at "Camp Heath" in the northern part of the state. The company is composed partly of Pennsylvanians.

The arrival of that new girl at O. S. Diehl's residence, together with the loss of sleep, must have been too much for Charles. At least he took a tumble after the excitement incident to such occasions had all subsided. He came out all right after a time, only slightly disfigured but made almost a wreck of the mirror.

W. J. McLees, who during the past year has been clerk in Rockwell's drug store, at this place, greatly to the regret of his many Emporium acquaintances has accepted a position at Beech Creek, as manager of a drug store. During his stay here he made many friends by his gentlemanly and pleasant ways.

Stock Broker Wheeler ran up against the business end of a wasp or bug and as a result has suffered severely for several days, his left eye having become swollen and inflamed. Mr. Wheeler being a gentleman of veracity his friends all believe his story, except Jas. Creighton, who has his own version of the matter.

BRIEF MENTION.

The committee of arrangements are placing Cunningham farm in shape for the ball games to take place during Firemen's Convention.

About 3,000 railroad shop men and their families held their annual picnic at Tunnell Hill, near Sterling Run, last Saturday. They enjoyed the day hugely.

John W. Steele, better known as "Coal Oil Johnnie," is here with his wife on a visit to friends and relatives. He is now prosperously engaged in farming in Nebraska.—Franklin News.

A large number of Emporium Knight Templars attended a special session of Knapp Commandery at Ridgway, last Monday afternoon and evening. We are informed they had an enjoyable time.

Rattlesnakes must be plentiful around Driftwood when they kill the reptiles on the main streets. One evening last week Jack O'Neal killed a big rattlesnake in front of W. H. Dwyer's store. The Chester county merchant is not used to such callers down the country.

The citizens of Austin are after their water company and voted last Tuesday to bond the town $20,000 for a system to be owned by the municipality. They are tired of filthy water. We have not yet learned the result of the vote.

The convention at Emporium is a leading topic of conversation among our firemen these days. The occasion promises to be an auspicious one in the history of the association and will no doubt be largely attended.—Kane Republican.

The Year Book of the Department of Agriculture for the year 1900 has just been issued. Parties desiring a copy can obtain the same by writing to Hon. Joseph C. Sibley, Franklin, Pennsylvania.

Invitations have been issued for a church wedding, to take place at the Methodist Episcopal church, Wednesday, Aug. 14th, at high noon, the contracting parties being Mr. Edward D. Nye and Miss Nellie Blanch Hamilton, both of this place. The PRESS hopes to give an account of the pleasant event that unites two of our most respected young people.

Big Free Mid-Way, Buffalo Attraction Increases in Popularity—Large Attendance.

The merry Big Free Midway in Buffalo is the magnet that is attracting thousands of pleasure seekers who come again and again finding at each visit something new and interesting. This Midway has become a resort for people who seek innocent amusement and its prices are within the most humble. The performances are presented on a scale of magnificence never before attempted at free street shows. The attendance has averaged 17500 daily since the opening, six weeks ago.

Among the most notable of the one hundred big shows are the Streets of Cairo, Sing Sing Prison, Idols of Art, Streets of India, Trained Animal Exhibition, German Village, White Top Palm Garden, Heaven and Hell, Gypsy Camp, Persian Beauty Show, Palais de la Danse, Arctic Cave and Athletic Auditorium.

So much has been said and printed about Midways and street fairs that it would seem to the casual observer that little more remains to be said. But the more careful student of methods and modes of amusing the public realizes that as long as Midways continue to be popular, so long will there be a large variety of topics to discuss about them. That street fairs are beneficial is no longer questioned. Their many and great advantages are now universally commended.

Worm at Potatoes.

The devastation wrought by the potato bug has been dwarfed into insignificance this year by the ravages of a small black worm that is working great havoc in all parts of the state. Farmers discovered its presence when the potatoes became of marketable size. It is now more plentiful than ever. The growers know of no way to combat it. It is likely that the department of agriculture will be asked to suggest some method of ridding the stalks of the pest. The potatoes have also suffered during the past week from hot weather and lack of rain. It is doubtful if there will be a full crop in any district in Pennsylvania.

What A Tale It Tells.

Letter to S. S. Hackett.

Emporium, Pa.
Dear Sir: The late President of the Croton River Bank, at Brewsters, N. Y., built the finest house in all that region, in 1884, and painted it with lead and oil at a cost of $400—the house cost $31,000.

In 1887—three years—he repainted it with Devco at a cost of $350. In 1897 this paint was in good condition. Lead and oil, $400, three years. Dovec $350, ten years.
Yours truly,
F. W. DEVCO & Co.

A Warning Against Impurity.
Our way through the world is beset by many insidious snares and pitfalls. Eternal vigilance is the price of moral safety. Of the many temptations which assail mankind none are more powerful or more widely prevalent than those which lead to sins of impurity and immorality. Unless we guard zealously our standards of purity it is very easy for them to become corrupted. What streams of evil influence, especially upon the characters of the young, radiate from a life stained by immorality! and on the other hand, who can estimate the power for good of a life of unquestioned purity?

There is pronounced need in this community for these warning words against impurity. A very large portion of those who hold aloof from the church, do so, not because the church is failing in her mission, but because she fulfills it too well, namely, by holding up a standard of righteousness which many persons know too well is a condemnation of their own impure lives. It is often a satisfaction to such if they can keep themselves in countenance by fastening charges of hypocrisy upon those who are identified with the church.

But to all moral delinquents there ever comes the authoritative assurance from a righteous and merciful God: "When the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive."—Emmanuel Church Parish News.

Their Secret is Out.

All Sadieville, Ky., was curious to learn the cause of the vast improvement in the health of Mrs. S. P. Whittaker, who had for a long time, endured untold suffering from a chronic bronchial trouble. "It's all due to Dr. King's New Discovery," writes her husband. It completely cured her and also cured our little grand-daughter of a severe attack of Whooping Cough. It positively cures Coughs, Colds, LaGrippe, Bronchitis, all Throat and Lung troubles. Guaranteed, bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at L. Taggart's drug store.

That although the vegetarian does not eat meat, he will play poker for stakes.

To Save Her Child.

From frightful disfigurement Mr. Nannie Galleger, of La Grange, Ga., applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve to great sores on her head and face, and writes its quick cure exceeded all her hopes. It works wonders in Sores, Bruises, Skin Eruptions, Cuts, Burns, Scalds and Piles 25c. Cure guaranteed by L. Taggart druggist.

Painstaking Supervisors.

Patrick O'Rourke and Edward Stewart, the Lumber township supervisors, are doing good work on the roads this year.—Mr. O'Rourke having placed the roads from Sterling Run to Gibson in the best condition ever known and shows good judgement and economy, so says county commissioner A. W. Mason. Mr. Stewart is very watchful over his district and being an old hand at road making goes along without much fuss and feathers, but gets there and his people appreciate the work. The Chapman hill road is complimentary to the supervisor in charge.

N. Seger is offering special inducements in summer clothing. Call and see him.

There's Money in Goats.

Edward L. Arnold, who lives near Geneva, N. Y., read in a Department of Agriculture report that there was money in the Angora goat. Accordingly he purchased a small flock, including a full-blooded buck, for which he paid $250. The buck was kept alone in a large box stall. Mr. Arnold went into the box stall last Monday to do some work. He had in an inside pocket to his coat a wallet which contained a considerable sum of money. Completing the work, Mr. Arnold went to the house, and a few minutes later discovered that the wallet was missing. After an extended search the wallet was found in the buck's stall. The wallet was spread open and the money gone. The goat was suspected of eating it and was killed. There was in that goat, mutilated, but still redeemable, seven $100 bills, four $50 bills, five $20 bills, three $10 bills one $5 bill, and one $2 bill, $1,037 in all.
