EDITORIAL MENTION.

Jinky Jones says the next President will be a Democrat. Haw! Haw! Haw!

A Washington man has complained to the police against a neighbor who plays "The Holy City" morning, noon and night. He says it is well done but that even religion palls after a while in this hot weather.

From all accounts, the drought that cut the corn crop down one-third has produced the largest wheat crop on record. Further, as wheat has failed elsewhere in the world, this large crop will bring big prices.

The people of the United States are shocked and horrified at the revelations by prominent jurists of the prevalence of perjury. It is safe to say that laymen have not suspected such a state of affairs and are reluctant to believe it possible. The remedy, however, lies in the hands of the courts. There is law enough to stop it; what is wanted is its execution.

Secretary Root has called on army officers for reports as to the effect of canteen abolition. This evidence will have the very greatest weight except with those unfortunate people who refuse to believe any testimony that does not square with their preconceived opinions.

When it is conceived how enormous a proportion of the human race is suffering from tuberculosis, it is not wonderful that the advocates of segregation are finding it so hard to advance their wishes. Yet it must come to this sooner or later, now that it is understood that consumption is not hereditary, but is contagious.

Capitol Building Commission.

Governor Stone has disarmed all criticism in his selection of the Capitol Building Commission, says the Harrisburg Telegraph. He has cut the ground from under the fault-finding newspapers and individuals and left them absolutely no excuse for complaint. It would be difficult for Governor Stone or any other official to select from the body of the citizens of this Commonwealth four men better qualified for this important service than those whom he has chosen. Even the opposition press admits that the commissioners selected are above reproach. The Governor has done well.

It is a wise provision of the law which makes the commission a continuous body. Governor Stone, Congressman Graham, Dr. Schaeffer, Mr. Bailey and Senator Snyder, unless they should resign from the commission, will remain on it until January 1st, 1905, even though the commissions of those who are now in office should expire before that date. It means the continuance of a commissions which will from the very first become familiar with the work and consequently be in close touch with it through all stages until its final completion. Three of the members of the commission will be on the ground all of the time—Stone, Schaeffer and Bailey—and the other two will be here from time to time, as the commission meets for the transaction of business, so that at all times they will know exactly what is being done. If the law had provided, as the original act did, that the board of Public Buildings and Grounds and certain other officials should constitute the commission, and that as they retired from office their successors should become members of the building commission, there would have been a constant changing of the personnel of the commission. Old members familiar with the work would give way to new men who knew nothing at all about it and would be in total ignorance of what had been done. A continuous commission is what was wanted and the present one will remain in commission until the work is finished, including Governor Stone, who will retire from the executive's chair in January, 1903, but who will continue to lend his counsel and advice until the completion of the work of building the new Capitol.

First Fork.

H. W. Martindale, of Sizerville Springs notoriety, has been in the real estate business in this section the past week, and has purchased uncle Jimmie O'Brien's place, or that part of it, east of the highway; consideration $2,000. He has also purchased the Wash. Bailey place at mouth of Brooks Run from Jas. Mundy. We hear that the price was $2,500 or upwards. Mr. Martindale, it is said, will build a big hotel at the latter place.

The M. T. Sibert farm at the mouth of East Fork has been sold to F. H. Goodyear, and there are a good many rumors in the air in regard to what is going up there—all the way from R. R. shops to summer resorts, etc. John Seibert is selling off the stock on the place and it was reported last night that all the cattle not sold had died very suddenly. If so it will be quite a loss to Mr. Seibert as he had some fine stock.

After a visit of a few weeks' Almon Williams expects to return to his home in South Dakota this week. He is going to visit friends in New York state and Michigan on his way home and also take in the Pan-Am., Niagara Falls, etc. He expects his brother A.R. to accompany him as far as Buffalo.

Geo. Antrum struck a great lead on rattlesnakes last Saturday, killing six in one bunch and one in a bunch by himself—all large ones. He has the skins and rattles to prove that this is no snake story.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Coleord returned on Saturday from the Coleord-Peet family reunion, below Coudersport, at the old Taggart farm. They report a good time but attendance smaller than common.

Bark peeling is about closed for the season also haying and harvesting. Oats is a light crop and potatoes are very much so.

The drilling tools for our oil well (which has been standing still for some time, are on the road.

Editor Press:—

Beautiful weather to gather in oats. Mrs. J. O. Jordan is very sick. Ed Russell is at his father's nursing an abscess on his knee.

Potatoes are selling here for the sum of $140 per bushel. It appears that the crop is a failure.

Mrs. Russ. Russell is keeping house for Mrs. J. M. English, while she takes her western trip.

Quite a large delegation of young people from Huston Hill attended church here on Sunday evening.

The cattle plague has broken out in our neighborhood. Mr. Marsh has lost four, and J. O. Jordan has a very sick cow.

Mr. Kinworthy paid his many friends a visit here over Sunday and says he has a drift most opened on A. S. Hicks' farm, Hustin Hill, where coal can be gotten cheap.

O. B. Tanner and son George, accompanied by his venerable father and Mr. Geary, of Lock Haven, drove to Huntley on Sunday to see Will Nelson, who is suffering with a broken leg.

Mrs. J. M. English and Mrs. C. Scudder, a sister, left on Tuesday for Lansing, Michigan to visit a sister. They will be gone for an indefinite time and on their return will visit other places of note and take in the Pan-Am. no doubt.

Died, at Huntley, July 29, Mrs. Mary Jordan, aged, 84 years. The funeral was largely attended by friends and relatives. Rev. Mr. House, of M. E. church preached the funeral sermon, assisted by Rev. Mr. Steel of the W. M. Thus the old land marks are passing away.

Stounded the Editor.

Editor S. A. Brown, of Bennettville, S. C., was once immensely surprised. "Through long suffering from Dyspepsia," he writes, "my wife was greatly run down. She had no strength or vigor and suffered great distress from her stomach, but she tried Electric Bitters which helped her at once, and, after using four bottles, she is entirely well, can eat anything. It's a grand tonic, and its gentle laxative qualities are splendid for torpid liver." For Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, Stomach and Liver troubles it's a positive, guaranteed cure. Only 50c at L. Taggart's.

Letter to I. K. Hockley.

Dear Sir: You give full weight of good coal. So do we—231 inches to a gallon of paint that lasts twice as long as old-fashion painters paint, lead and oil; and allow our agent to sell them on this guarantee.

"If you have any trouble with this paint, either now in putting it on, or hereafter in the wear tell your dealer about it."

"We authorize him to do what is right at our expense."

We know a dealer in coal, who delivered his coal with a public weigher's ticket (full weight) invited complaints, and actually exchanged the coal when complaint was made. He had half the business; a dozen firms had the other half.

We are 146 years old, but not too old to sell paint as that dealer sold coal. We like to pay damages—when there are any.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE & Co.
