The Banquet.

The interior of the Emporium Opera House presented a most brilliant and beautiful sight last Wednesday evening when the ladies of the Emmanuel Episcopal church served an elegant banquet to the assembled delegates and visitors to the Firemen's convention. The occasion was enlivened by the delightful music of the Repasz Band of Williamsport. A. C. Blum officiated as toastmaster and a large list of spicy and interesting toasts were given. The visiting delegates pronounced it the finest affair of the kind they had ever attended which reflects great credit upon the ladies of the Emmanuel Guild.

Another "Bucktail" Gone.

F. A. Magee, one of the older residents of Kane and a survivor of the famous "Bucktail" regiment of the Civil war, died at his home in Kane on Friday last aged 77 years. Funeral services were conducted on Monday, mass being said at St. Callistus church, in Kane, in the morning and the body taken to his former home at Crown on the 9.30 a. m. train, where another service was held. Comrades Milton Craven, Lucius Rogers, David Howells, Geo. Griffith, Joshua Davis and J. O. Delp, of Chas. J. Biddle Post G. A. R. served as pall bearers and accompanied the body to Crown where the service at the cemetery was in the regular G. A. R. form—Kane Leader.

Faithful Unto Death.

Williamsport Grit.

Sharon, Aug. 16.—Last week mention was made in Grit of the death funeral party of Father James Brennan of Sharon. A number of years ago a marvel at the devotion and faithfulness of the dead priest's dog, which proved himself one of the most sincere mourners of the funeral party. A number of days ago a strange dog appeared around the parsonage and although Father Brennan tried to chase him away, the visitor would not leave. Finally one night he aroused the sleeping priest in time to frighten away several burglars, who had gained partial entrance to his house. The dog won himself a home by that act, and ever since was taken care of at the parsonage. At the funeral the little fellow was almost human in his respect to his dead master. Following the casket from the parsonage to the church, he sat outside on the steps until the services in the church were finished. When the cortege started on its way to the cemetery, four miles away, the dog took a position under the hearse and followed to the burial ground. Once on the way he left the procession to get a drink, and hurrying back he passed all the other carriages until he arrived at the hearse, where he took his former position. When the services were commenced at the grave the dog crowded his way through the party of chanting priests and mourners to the brink of the grave, where he stood and faithfully watched the lowering of the casket, keeping his eyes riveted on it until it disappeared beneath the earth. The services concluded, the mourners passed away from the grave, and as the last of them slowly left the deserted burying ground, the last look was taken, not at the newly made grave, but at the faithful and grieving dog, which lay alone and apparently heart-broken, his head resting on the mound of earth which separated him from his master. On Tuesday Mr. S. S. Filbert and Dr. Van Oresdale went to the cemetery, and there found the faithful dog lying dead on his master's grave.

Union Meeting.

Mrs. Carrie W. Sisson, of Towanda, Pa., will give a Gospel Temperance and Prohibition Recital at Presbyterian church, Monday evening, Aug. 26, 1901. Mrs. Sisson is endorsed by pulpit and press as an eloquent and temperance advocate of rare merit. She holds her listeners spell-bound during the entire program with her excellent finished selections. All are invited. A collection will be taken.

Off for the Conclave.

The following jolly crowd of Knight Templars will leave the first of next week for Louisville, Kentucky, where they will attend the triennial conclave of the Knight Templars of the U. S. E. C. Davison and wife, O. B. Barnes and wife, U. A. Palmer and wife, E. W. Gaskill and daughter, G. J. LaBar and wife, Joseph J. Earle and wife, Dr. A. W. Baker and wife, Leroy Gleason and wife, of Driftwood, John E. Smith, of Sterling Run.

State Ticket Nominated.

HARRISBURG, August 21.—Judge William P. Potter, of Pittsburg, was nominated for Supreme Court Judge and Representative Frank G. Harris, of Clearfield, for State Treasurer, by today's Republican State convention. Theirs were the only names presented and the nominations were made by acclamation. Judge Potter was appointed to the Supreme bench one year ago by Governor Stone, whose law partner he was, to succeed the late Judge Green, of Easton. Mr. Harris is serving his third term in the Legislature, and his nomination is regarded as a recognition of his loyalty to United States Senators Quay and Penrose.

Found Dead in Bed.

Last Tuesday evening a man registering as J. F. Dugan, of Eldred, Pa., arrived on the evening train, from Buffalo, and was assigned a room at the Warner House, as he did not put in an appearance the next morning his room remained undisturbed till late in the afternoon when the hotel clerk upon going to the room was horrified to find that the guest was dead in bed.

Coroner Baker was immediately summoned and an inquest was held, the jury returning verdict to the effect that the deceased had met his death by reason of an overdose of morphia. From papers found upon his person it is believed that the party is not J. F. Dugan of Eldred but Chas. F. Dunham of Bolivar, N. Y. It was learned at the inquest that on the evening of his arrival here he had purchased seventy-two grains of morphia at one of our drug stores and as none of the drug could be found in his room or about his person it is believed he took the entire quantity purchased, at one dose thereby causing his death.

Coroner Baker is endeavoring to locate the relatives of the dead man and if no replies are received by this Thursday afternoon the remains will be interred in Newton Cemetery.

The Convention.

The seventh annual convention of the Northwestern Pennsylvania Volunteer Firemen's Association which was held here on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of last week was a success in every way save perhaps in point of attendance. The inability of some of the departments to secure special trains, and the inclement weather, being responsible for some companies of the association not being able to be present.

We believe our citizens did themselves proud in the splendid manner in which they furnished accommodations and entertainment for the fire laddies, and the Executive Committee of which C. W. Shaffer was chairman, as well as all the auxiliary committees deserve great credit for the masterly way in which all the appointments conducive to the Convention's success were carried out.

The various prizes were awarded as follows:

In the hose, hub, and hook and ladder races the running team of the Emerald Hose company of Ridgway carried off the first prizes.

The prize for the best drilled company was awarded to the West Branch Hose company of Renovo.

The West Branch Hose company and the Coudersport Fire Department carried off the first and second prize respectively for being handsomest uniformed and upon their general appearance in parade. In this latter contest all the Emporium companies by rules of the association were barred from competing.

The St. Marys fire department was awarded first prize for having largest number of men in line, in the parade.

The visiting firemen were a gentlemanly set throughout and should they come this way again will be royally welcomed by our people.

Literary Prize Contest.

Answer to question number 10:—Ladies were first introduced in the Court of France during the reign of Francis I. The king said:—

"Like a year without a spring,
Or a spring without flowers,
So is a Court without ladies."

Query No. 11:—Who are the three greatest literary geniuses that the world has ever produced?
Send your answer to Box 163 Emporium, Pa., and get the prize offered by the Emanuel Free Reading Room.

Local Necrology.

WHITMER.

Capt. Israel P. Whitmer, long a respected resident of this place, died at his home on West Sixth street last Thursday morning at the age of 70 years. The recent death of his wife had a very depressing effect upon him and doubtless hastened his demise. He insisted that he would not long survive her and while everything was done by his family to alleviate his sufferings and render his condition comfortable the end came all too quickly. His regard for the various members of his family was tender and the severance of this tie was the source of his greatest trouble. He was always a useful citizen and enjoyed the confidence and regard of a large circle of neighbors who mourn his departure.

At the outbreak of the civil war Captain Whitmer was a resident of Michigan, and a man of considerable means, who demonstrated his love for his country by organizing and equipping at his own expense a full company of volunteers, lead them to the front where they rendered active service in several engagements.

The funeral services were held from his late home last Saturday at 2 p. m. and were conducted by the Rev. O. S. Metzler. Members of the G. A. R. acted as bearers and performed the ritual of their order at the grave.

FENTON.

After a lingering illness of several weeks, occasioned by an attack of paralysis, Mrs. A. C. Fenton passed peacefully away at her late home on East Allegheny avenue last Sunday afternoon, aged sixty-five years. Deceased had been in poor health for some time but even in her feeble condition she demonstrated wonderful vitality; her prolonged resistance to the fatal attack being almost phenomenal for one of her advanced age.

The funeral took place at the family residence on Tuesday morning, Rev. Robt. McCaslin officiating. An impressive discourse from the text, "And at evening time there shall be light," was delivered, at the close of which she was borne to her final resting place in Newton cemetery to repose beside the remains of her late husband. Six of her lifelong friends and neighbors acting as bearers.

Adeline Miller Fenton, the subject of this article was born in Thompkins county, N. Y., on April 10, 1836, and in June, 1855 was married to Amos C. Fenton. Soon after their marriage they removed to Emporium, where she has resided ever since. Mrs. Fenton was one of the pioneer residents of this county and was thoroughly familiar with the stirring and eventful scenes of those early days of Emporium's history.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. G. F. Balcom of Emporium, and three sons, E. M., of Stanton, Iowa and J. M. and A. C. of this place.

The deceased was a woman of refined tastes, a retiring disposition and led an exemplary christian life, and in closing this brief sketch we can only add that her life is her noblest tribute and fittingly say of her as was said of another, "The world is better because she has lived."

LUCORE.

It is with a sense of deep regret that we are called upon to chronicle the death of the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Lucore, which occurred on Sunday.

Brief funeral services were conducted at the house by Rev. O. S. Metzler on Monday afternoon at close of which interment was made at Sizer-ville.

Passed Worthless Checks.

Last week a man giving his name as Wm. F. Parker persuaded Peter Shoup to cash a check of ten dollars for him and on the same day Mr. R. M. Overhiser accomodated the stranger by cashing a check for him of five dollars.

The checks were drawn on the First National Bank of Emporium but before issuing the checks above mentioned it seems that Parker had withdrawn the balance of his account from the bank and upon the checks being presented for payment it was learned that there were no funds in the bank in the name of Wm. F. Parker. It was also learned that Parker had left town and could not be found. Warrants were quickly sworn out for his arrest and no doubt he will soon be given an opportunity to explain his actions to the court.

Mr. Joseph L. Emery, of Westport well known to many of our citizens, died at the above named place, yesterday.
