The Temperance Meeting.

The Gospel Temperance Recital given by Mrs. Carrie W. Sission in the Presbyterian Church last Monday evening was worthy of a larger attendance than it received. The recitations were of high order of merit and made a most favorable impression on those present, while apart from these, the remarks of the lady were of a highly instructive character and carried the force of conviction to her auditors.

The Up-to-Date Locomotive County Fair in Williamsport, Sept. 3, 4, 5 and 6.

There will be something doing all the time at the Locomotive county fair in Williamsport, Sept. 3 to 6. While the spectators are waiting for the races interesting exhibitions will be given on the track, such as the genuine horse races with dog drivers, in which the pacers "Nan Wilkes," "22," and "Humming Bird," 2:25, will go every day, driven by trained dogs.

On Sept. 3, 4 and 5—Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday—"Sappho," an ape, will go up a balloon and drop in a parachute.

Miss Sunlin and her trained bull dog will give daily exhibitions.

Nothing has been left undone to make this fair a clean, up-to-date, worthy exhibition that will please and entertain the public, men, women and children, and the people of the West Branch valley will find it the best exhibition ever given in this county.

PAN-AMERICAN.—Mrs. F. W. Raikes, who is located at No. 59 Robie Avenue, Buffalo, N. Y., will furnish sleeping accommodations. Terms, $1.00 per night. Ten minutes walk to Park entrance.

Communication From Mr. Howard.

Editor Cameron County Press:
I wish to take very serious objection to your very scant notice of the Firemen's Convention, held here last week. Your remarks were favorable enough, but I do not think that even your absence this week, in managing the Republican State Convention, to be excuse enough for the scant report you gave of an affair so important in our history as to call for the expenditure by our home people of over three thousand dollars, and to hold the Borough's undivided attention for a week.

It shut down the Iron Works and saw mills and was a financial damage to Mr. Brady and our lumbermen, for which we are sorry, but otherwise the Convention was decidedly a good thing. Mr. Seger of the East Ward clothing store, says he never before had such good trade, and the Church eating stands all cleared upwards of $100.00 apiece, notwithstanding the terrible rain. Firemen represent the best idea of all religious teachings—that is, to use God's means of preventing or controlling the destructive tendency of vital forces instead of sitting down to cry or pray. Likewise Volunteer Firemen fulfill the unselfish duty of giving prompt assistance to a neighbor in need, without distinction as to nationality or friendship. Leaving Mr. Kaye and myself out of the question, special mention should be made of the efficient services of Chairman, C. W. Shaffer, who edited all the posters and printed matter, besides promptly and well attending to all the correspondence, and to whose ability we are mostly indebted for the general success of the Convention.

The people at large are entitled to credit for their general cleaning up and painting, as well as liberal subscriptions, likewise Mr. A. A. McDonald, A. F. Vogt and S. E. Murry should be commended for the good natured persistence with which they collected the large amount of money.

No less mention should be made of Mr. Henry Wheaton for the excellent race track and ball grounds arranged and managed by himself and the fire police. We should be glad to know, that we are a convention city of ability, glad to know that our home firemen are as well dressed and well behaved as any that visited us and we should be glad to know that we have a Chief of Police who can protect our property and who made it safe and pleasant for women and children to visit any part of the town during the biggest crowd we ever had. Now Mr. Editor, if I have not already said too much I hope you will allow me to mention the Repass Band which furnished an elegant treat to our people and gave such general satisfaction that many think the music alone was worth all our effort.

The Convention developed very few silly girls or foolish young men, but brought to light, much good will, and broad minded generosity among our people and proved that Firemen's Conventions are a benefit to the public morals and general blessing when rightly managed.

Respectfully submitted,
JOSHUA HOWARD,
Emporium, Pa., Aug. 24th, 1901.

In reply to the above article we would say that when we reported the convention's doings in the article above referred to, we believed we had done ample justice to all, as that was our intention, although lack of space forbade our publishing a stenographic report of the convention's proceedings.

As for Emporium's reputation as a convention city, that was established years ago, for our people are noted for their ability to take care of a crowd and accord the best of entertainment to visitors.

We also feel that at such times it is a better observance of the demands of good taste for our town to receive favorable mention of its hospitality and entertainment from our visitors rather than for us to sound our own praises. (See the kind expressions of appreciation from our neighbors in another column, where we have printed a few commendatory notices, clipped at random from other papers.)

The success achieved by the members of the various committees who so generously contributed of their time and efforts, speaks volumes for itself and any words of individual comment or praise by us would sound idle indeed, when compared with the splendid work which these several committees have accomplished.

Personally we have nothing but the highest regard for Mr. Howard; as he is always foremost in advocating and promoting that which pertains to the welfare of our town, and we regret that he should have taken exceptions to the article in last week's issue.

Their Secret is Out.
All Sadieville, Ky., was curious to learn the cause of the vast improvement in the health of Mrs. S. P. Whittaker, who had for a long time, endured untold suffering from a chronic bronchial trouble. "It's all due to Dr. King's New Discovery," writes her husband. It completely cured her and also cured our little grand-daughter of a severe attack of Whooping Cough. It positively cures Coughs, Colds, LaGrippe, Bronchitis, all Throat and Lung troubles. Guaranteed, bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at L. Taggart's drug store.

Sterling Run.

The gospel temperance recital and lecture given by Mrs. Carrie Sission on Sunday evening last at the M. E. church, at Sterling Run was a highly beneficial and pleasing event.

Mrs. Sission is possessed of strong elocutionary powers which, coupled with intense heartfelt earnestness, and keen logical argument, made a deep, and lasting impression upon her audience, for good. Committees will be fortunate who secure her services.

ON OF HER AUDIENCE.

The Kind of Men Who Never Marry.
"There was never yet a bachelor of forty whose heart has not been at some woman's feet to take or leave as she would," says a well-known writer, and this, generally speaking, is absolutely true.

However, there is one type of man, a very rare one, fortunately, who form a mixture of cold love of self and miserliness rigidly eschews matrimony.

Of such a one the story is told that, being on one occasion somewhat impressed by the bright eyes and red lips of a certain damsel, he gave some thought to the married state and pondered o'er the advisability of entering it.

Racked with doubt, he ordered a large meat pie to be prepared, and on its appearance divided it in half. There was ample! Then the reflection crossed his mind that in course of time a subdivision might be necessary.

The portions were divided by a trembling hand into two. He looked, hesitated, and scraped them all on his own plate.

The damsel had to find another lover.

Men who regard marriages as "an insane desire to provide for another fellow's daughter," or "the picturesque gateway to a commonplace estate," are far better unmarried. The temporary devotion of their little souls would make no woman the happier.

Astounded the Editor.
Editor S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., was once immensely surprised. "Through long suffering from Dyspepsia," he writes, "my wife was greatly run down. She had no strength or vigor and suffered great distress from her stomach, but she tried Electric Bitters which helped her at once, and, after using four bottles, she is entirely well, can eat anything. It's a grand tonic, and its gentle laxative qualities are splendid for torpid liver." For Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, Stomach and Liver troubles it's a positive, guaranteed cure. Only 50c at L.
