ANARCHY AND YELLOW JOURNALISM

President's Death May Be Traced to Sensational Newspapers

REVIEW OF THEIR WORK

Czolgosz Inspired By Emma Goldman to Fire the Shots

Wanamaker's "North American" Roundly Denounced For Its Defense of the "Queen of Anarchy" Against the Philadelphia Authorities and Its Attack Upon the Police For Attempting to Prevent Her Spreading Her Damnable Doctrines.

While the entire nation is bowed in sorrow over the death of the beloved McKinley, an outraged people are crying out in vehement denunciation of those at whose doors can properly be placed the responsibility for the dastardly attack upon the President.

Czolgosz, the assassin, has confessed that he was prompted to the terrible deed through the teachings of Emma Goldman, the "Queen of Anarchy."

Emma Goldman, through the medium of yellow journalism, has been enabled to spread her damnable doctrines, notwithstanding the interference of the police authorities, and since she has been taken into custody and the secret service agents of the United States have been at work the ramifications of the Anarchistic movement have been disclosed with startling results.

CZOLGOSZ'S SHOT.

It was not until Czolgosz's shots thrilled and shocked the entire Christian world that the people awakened to the rightful work of yellow journalism.

Right here, in prosperous, patriotic Pennsylvania, was given an exhibition of the extent to which a yellow journal would go to further personal or political ends.

Since the assassination of President McKinley the eyes of the nation have been directed to the work of Wanamaker's Philadelphia North American in championing the cause of Emma Goldman, when the authorities of the Quaker City attempted to prevent her from addressing meetings in the city. While the Hearst yellow newspapers in New York, Chicago and San Francisco were hounding the President with editorials, cartoons and caricatures, all inciting hostility to his administration and inflaming the minds of the unemployed against the government, the work of The North American, in the light of recent events, was quite as scandalous and outrageous.

GOLDMAN AND HER TEACHINGS.

It was in April last when Emma Goldman arrived in Philadelphia to carry out her purpose to make public addresses. The police notified her that she would not be allowed to preach her Anarchistic doctrines, whereupon The North American, with an evident purpose to make capital among the unemployed, for its political interests, declared that it was an outrage to interfere with the "right of free speech," and at once began a series of attacks upon the city authorities.

THE NORTH AMERICAN'S RECORD

Commenting upon the action of the yellow journals, the Philadelphia Inquirer, of recent date, said:

"We presume that the New York Journal and the Philadelphia organ of Wanamakerism, familiarly known as the Yellow Pest, would resent the implication that they have been in any way responsible for the crime. And yet they, by their attacks upon public men without cause, have been firing the brains of Anarchists and leading crack-brained persons to believe that the removal of public officials is something to be commended."

"The man who shot the President confesses that he has been a pupil of Emma Goldman, the infamous beast, who was, not many months ago, suppressed by the police force of Philadelphia.

"She came to this city to spread her doctrines of assassination and disaster. The mayor and the director of public safety served notice that she would not be allowed to speak. Immediately yellow journalism took up her cause.

"And what did the newspaper that is run by Wanamaker money say?
"Here are some quotations:
"The silencing of Emma Goldman is an outrage."
"The example of lawlessness being given by the police authorities is at once dangerous and disgraceful. Should force be met with force the moral responsibility would rest upon the stupid despots of the City Hall. . . . The law should be brought to bear upon the lawless mayor and director of public safety."

"Now she (Emma Goldman) becomes the representative of the American right to free speech."

"It is to be wished that somebody might show sufficient public spirit to contest in the courts the power of the police department to say who shall or shall not have the right to address public meetings."

"There is no law in the United States against preaching the gospel of Anarchy."

"No law against preaching the gospel of Anarchy?"

"So say the yellow journals—the New York Journal and the direct representative of Wanamakerism in this city."

"But as long as yellow journalism is permitted to denounce public officials as thieves without reason for doing so," adds The Inquirer, "just so long will a dangerous class be bred, ready when the brain is excited to the pitch of action, to murder as the present product of Goldman and yellow journalism has done."

"Crimes are committed daily by newspapers under the appeal to the public and to the lawmakers for the 'freedom of the press.'"

"Freedom does not mean license."

"It does not mean the advocacy of doctrines that lead men to assassination."

"Anarchy and yellow journalism go hand in hand."

Ten of Wealth in Italy.

In Sicily, which was generally supposed to have been ruined by brigandage and occasional failures of crops, there are more rich persons compared with the total population than in any other part of Italy. Fourteen families in that beautiful island have fortunes aggregating $75,000,000. Commander Florio takes an easy first place in the list with $20,000,000.

In Rome there are 44 persons with fortunes exceeding $200,000,000. Of these fortunate individuals the richest are Prince Terina, whose wealth is $40,000,000; Prince Odescachi, $16,000,000, the Duke of Caetani, $12,000,000, and Count Caprerar, $10,000,000.

In Milan there are no fewer than 150 lire-millionaires; in Genoa, 49; in Turin, 62, and in Padua, 30. A lire is about 20 cents.

In the Chamber of Deputies there are 38 millionaires, and in the senate 116. The richest Deputy is Sigor Quintieri, with about $40,000,000. Count Papadopoli has a fortune of $10,000,000; Prince di Tribie, $6,000,000 and the ex-Premier, Marquis di Rudini, $3,000,000.

Many of the Cardinals are very rich. Cardinal Casseti, for instance, owns more than 100 big palaces and other buildings, new and old, in Rome, and is worth at least $6,000,000. Cardinal Casali del Drago has a fortune of $5,000,000.

The newspaper Italia estimates the wealth of the Pope at $400,000,000 and his personal income at $2,500,000 a year. These figures are probably not very wide of the mark. The various jubilees have brought him gifts from the faithful all of the world of the estimated aggregate value of $30,000,000. His Holiness has from time to time invested his surplus income in United States Government bonds and his present holding is estimated at $6,000,000. The cash reserves of the Holy See are estimated at $50,000,000, invested mostly in American, British, Italian, Belgian and French Government securities. The interest on all this capital has for the past twenty-three years been accumulated and invested in various directions.—Exchange.
