Marriage is heaven or hell. "In dealing with man, remember that a spoonful of oil will go farther than a gallon of vinegar." The same may be said of children. There is nothing so good for children as the old-fashioned castor oil. However much they may abhor it, it is their best medicine for disorders of the bowels. In the more severe cases of diarrhoea and dysentery, however, Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy should be given after the oil operates, and a quick cure is sure to follow. For sale by L. Taggart.

Better half-hanged than ill-wed. Josh Westhafer, of Loogootee, Ind., is a poor man, but he says he would not be without Chamberlain's Pain Balm if it cost five dollars a bottle, for it saved him from being a cripple. No external application is equal to this liniment for stiff and swollen joints, contracted muscles, stiff neck, sprains and rheumatic and muscular pains. It has also cured numerous cases of partial paralysis. It is for sale by L. Taggart.

He has great need of a wife who marries mamma's darling. A Certain Cure for Dysentery and Diarrhoea. "Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long bicycle trip," says F. L. Taylor, of New Albany, Bradford County, Pa. "I was taken suddenly with diarrhoea, and was about to give up the trip, when editor Ward, of the Laceyville Messenger, suggested that I take a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I purchased a bottle and took two doses, one before starting and one on the route. I made the trip successfully, and never felt any ill effect. Again last summer I was almost completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy, and this time one dose cured me." For sale by L. Taggart.

The day upon which you marry, you make or mar yourself. A Communication. Mr. Editor—Allow me to speak a few words in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I suffered for three years with the bronchitis and could not sleep at nights. I tried several doctors and various patent medicines, but could get nothing to give me any relief until my wife got a bottle of this valuable medicine, which has completely relieved me.—W. S. BOCKMAN, Bagnell, Mo. This remedy is for sale by L. Taggart.

The day you marry, 'tis either kill or cure. A Night of Terror. "A awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she would die from Pneumonia before morning," writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended that fearful night, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, which had more than once saved her life, and cured her of Consumption. After taking, she slept all night. Further use entirely cured her." This marvellous medicine is guaranteed to cure all Throat, Chest and Lung Diseases. Only 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at L. Taggart's drug store.

Rising early and marrying young are what no man repents of. Stood Death Off. E. B. Munday, a lawyer of Henrietta, Tex., once fooled a grave-digger. I am sure Electric Bitters saved his life." This remedy expels malaria, kills disease germs and purifies the blood; aids digestion, regulates liver, kidneys and bowels, cures constipation, dyspepsia, nervous diseases, kidney troubles, female complaints; gives perfect health. Only 50c at L. Taggart's drug store.

I tried a great many remedies and was under the care of physicians for several months. I used one bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar. It cured me, and I have not been troubled since." L. Taggart.

Cartoons That Killed. CLEVELAND, Sept. 20.—One of the striking features of the memorial exercises in this city during the late President's funeral was a scathing arraignment by the Rev. Morgan Wood, pastor of Plymouth Congregational Church, of yellow journalism.

"Let me tell you" he exclaimed, "that the cartoonist in this city or in New York or Chicago that occupied a position upon any daily paper and drew the cartoon I have in mind, among many others, depicting William McKinley, the man of God and the man whose heart went out for interest of all men, sitting upon a newly created American throne, with a crown on his head, a mace in his hand, wrapped in the purple of his office, and Mark Hanna standing as the power behind the throne—that cartoonist and the journals that published and reproduced the cartoon were tending to inflame the blood of those who have flowed into our midst through this European sewer. I trust that from this gloomy hour on, journalism and daily press and monthly magazines and men in their casual, ordinary speech upon the street corner, in public and private life will, before they speak, think twice, that before we pay with names of great men we learn to have reverence for their high office.

"Up to last week, throughout this country, the leading journals have never spoken of him who is now our Chief Executive in any other than the common, flippant, vulgar American way, as 'Teddy Roosevelt,' but suddenly the bolt flashes from heaven and the Chief Executive falls. The swift-footed courier speeds his way over the Adirondacks, crying, 'You are the President of the United States'; then these flippant gibbers must change their vernacular—it is no longer 'Teddy Roosevelt' in this hour of solemnity; it is President Theodore Roosevelt.

"So let us cease to talk about 'Uncle Mark' in our midst; let us cease to talk about 'Grover Cleveland,' and of Benny Harrison and his hat.' Let us crown these men with respect and honor while they are in that position, and see to it that we do not put men in those positions who are unworthy of honor."

A Shocking Calamity. "Lately befell a railroad laborer," writes Dr. A. Kellett, of Williford, Ark. "His foot was badly crushed, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly cured him. It's simply wonderful for Burns, Boils, Piles and all skin eruptions. It's the world's champion healer. Cure guaranteed. 25c. Sold by L. Taggart.

Whoever indulges long in monologue in the presence of others, without flattering his listeners, provokes ill-will. Working Night and Day. The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. These pills change weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, brain-fag into mental power. They're wonderful in building up the health. Only 25c per box. Sold by L. Taggart.

Mediocrity has no greater consolation than in the thought that genius is not immortal. No Relief for 20 Years. "I had bronchitis for twenty years," said Mrs. Minerva Smith, of Danville, Ill., and never got relief until I used Foley's Honey and Tar which is a sure cure for throat and lung diseases." L. Taggart.

A Little Known Fact. That the majority of serious diseases originate in disorder of the kidneys. Foley's Kidney Cure is guaranteed. Be sure to get Foley's. L. Taggart.

No man is a hero to his valet, the proverb says. But that is only because it requires a hero to recognize a hero. The valet will probably know how to value the valet-hero.

A freely offered homage is the most beautiful of all relations. And how were that possible without love?

H. C. Watkins, sexton of the Methodist Church, Springfield, Pa., says: "My wife has been very bad with kidney trouble and tried several doctors without benefit. After taking one bottle of Foley's Kidney Cure, was much better, and was completely cured after taking four bottles." L. Taggart.

There is a courtesy of the heart. It is akin to love. Out of it arises the purest courtesy in the outward behavior.

Behavior is a mirror in which everyone displays his own image. "I had a running sore on my leg for seven years," writes Mrs. Jas. Forest of Chippewa Falls, Wis., "and spent hundreds of dollars in trying to get it healed. Two boxes of Banner Salve entirely cured it." Beware of substitutes. L. Taggart.
