Death of Mrs. Theresa Glaeser.

Mrs. Theresa Glaeser, the estimable wife of Frank Glaeser, died at 7 o'clock Wednesday morning at the hospital, after an illness of about two weeks, with peritonitis. But small hopes were entertained for her recovery during the past week, although the attending physicians taxed their medical skill in an endeavor to overcome the ravages of the malady. Deceased was aged forty-nine years, fifteen of which had been passed as a resident of this city, where she was held in the greatest esteem by a wide circle of friends and acquaintances. Mrs. Glaeser was a member of the First Presbyterian church, a consistent Christian woman, possessing those qualities of mind and character which endeared her to all with whom she came in contact. Besides her husband, she leaves to mourn her loss, a father, Charles Weller of Sizerville, Pa., and two sisters, Mrs. George C. Fagan of this city, and Mrs. Kate Tough of Olean, all of whom are, at present, in Bradford. The remains were taken to the residence of Mr. Fagan on Kennedy street, from where the funeral was held at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Rev. George M. Hickman of the First Presbyterian church officiated at the services. The interment took place at Oak Hill cemetery.—Bradford Era.

The People's Course.

The Peoples Popular Star Course will open Monday evening, Nov. 4th, the attraction being the Patricello Grand Concert Company, of Chicago—a strong musical and literary organization. The course tickets are now in the hands of the committee and are being distributed to advance subscribers. It is hoped that all who have not subscribed will do so, as the list of talent is of exceptional merit and deserves the largest patronage of our people. Holders of course tickets can reserve seats for the series of five attractions. This change was determined upon in deference to a general desire and it is believed the plan will prove popular with all. Course tickets will be $1.50 each and can be obtained from members of the committee and at the book store of H. S. Lloyd. The time of the opening of the chart will be announced later.

Duties of Acting Coroners.

Recently Judge Clark, of Clarion county, held over the allowance of costs on three inquests held by justice of the peace, who acted in the place of the coroner. In the opinion which he filed Judge Clark said: "Where a justice of the peace holds an inquest, the return must show that he had jurisdiction by reason of there being no lawful appointed coroner, or of his absence from the county, unable to attend, or that his office was more than ten miles distant from the place where the death occurred or the body was found." The judge therefore held the three cases over until the jurisdiction of the justice of the peace, as stated above, is properly set in the return of each case.

Cobb-Lect.

At the pleasant home of our townsman, Henry H. Cobb, is transpiring to-day a happy event, in which his daughter, Louise, and Frank A. Leet are the parties most deeply interested. Rev. W. H. Rogers performed the ceremony that made these two very highly esteemed young people one. Only the near relatives and four members of the H. S. M. S. were present. A trip to Buffalo will be included in the tour, after which the newly wedded pair will reside in Coudersport, where Mr. Leet enjoys a growing law practice and where we hope they may "live happy forever after," as they certainly deserve to do.—Coudersport Journal.

Died of Diphtheria.

Last Sunday, Marion, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Barr died of diphtheria, aged 12 years. This is a severe shock to his parents, he being a model son, beloved by all who knew him.

Miss Barr is suffering with the same disease and is in a critical condition. Several other families in the neighborhood are afflicted with the dreaded disease among whom are those of W. U. Barr and Messrs. Bailey.

Almost Obliterated.

The castle built by Ole Bull on Kettle Creek near Olean, is now almost obliterated. The Lackawanna Lumber Company's operations this year was on the sight of the eccentric musician's whim. The splendid hemlock surrounding his castle has been cut and into logs. This spot has been visited by hundreds of tourists and men, who have heard and seen the great violinist, in his last days.—Austin Republican.

A Winner? Of Course.

George A. Walker, of Emporium, is the Republican candidate for Associate Judge of Cameron county, and it is predicted that he will win in a walk. That's proper, as he was once a resident of Warren. Warren people always win—if they want to!—Warren Mail.

Chicken Pie Supper.

A chicken pie supper will be held at the home of Mrs. Olive Downey, corner W. Fifth and Popular streets, Thursday evening, Oct. 24th, for benefit of the First Methodist Episcopal Church. Mrs. Walter Morrison's band will have charge and assure their friends of an abundance of good things. Tickets, 25 cents.

We welcome every one to any or all of our services.

Emporium Talent Appreciated.

Miss Grace Walker, of this place, recently assisted at a concert given at Warren by the choir of the First Lutheran church and the Warren Daily Mirror speaks in flattering terms of the entertainment, referring to Miss Walker as follows:

Miss Grace Walker, violinist, who assisted the choir, evinced that she is an artist of unusual ability. Her playing is full of color and a charming personality is given each piece. Whether octaves, chords or double notes occur, which is indisputably difficult on a violin, one is surprised with the ease and clear manner in which she presents them. She puts much feeling in her whole playing which only a true lover of the instrument and profession can do. A most hearty reception will be accorded Miss Walker should she ever visit Warren again.

A Beautiful Wedding.

No wedding in recent years elicited more general interest in the social world than the marriage yesterday of Miss Adah Richardson with Mr. V. King Pifer, of DuBois, which occurred at noonday in the Union church, and everyone was unanimous in voicing the wedding a beautiful one.

The bridal party included Miss Ethel Richardson, sister of the bride, who was maid of honor; Mrs. E. L. Kimpel, matron of honor; Misses Elizabeth Richardson and Myrtle Smith, the maids; Helen Richardson and Beatrice Sherwood, of Union City, flower girls. Mr. Pifer's best man was Wm. G. Brown, of DuBois, and the ushers were Andy Denny, Jr., of Williamsport, Jos. F. Spankie and Walter Eisenman, of DuBois, and Frank E. Richardson, Jr., brother of the bride. The usual order of bridal processions was observed, the ushers leading the way, followed by the maids and maid of honor.

The bride was given away by her father, F. E. Richardson with whom she entered the church. She was handsomely gowned in white satin draped with cream lace and wore a long tulle veil and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The maid of honor was gowned in white d'esprit over pink silk and carried pink and white carnations. The bridesmaids wore cream silk and the flower girls were gowned in white organdie.

Miss Nellie Huntley presided at the piano and Miss Frank Huntley sang the bridal solos, the first of which was "Shall I Wed Thee," followed by Lohengrin's wedding march. After the ceremony the solo, "Thou Art Mine and I Am Thine," was sung and the party, marched out to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march. Miss Huntley then sang "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice."

The church was handsomely decorated for the occasion. On the stage was a mound made of evergreen and fern, and the organ was banked in like manner. The windows were covered with curtains bedecked with vines, potted plants were generously distributed about the altar and the pews were decorated with hydrangea and laurel.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Laughton, uncle and aunt of the bride, on Third street, and after a sumptuous wedding dinner the happy couple boarded the 3:48 flyer for Buffalo and other points. They will be at home in DuBois the latter part of October. The bride was the recipient of many valuable and varied presents.—Driftwood Gazette.

REPUBLICANS! DO YOUR DUTY.

Republicans of Cameron! Another important election will soon be here and you will be expected to exercise your constitutional right and vote for the elevation of certain gentlemen to positions of responsibility and honor. Which will it be? Your duty as honest Republicans and loyal citizens calls upon you to vote the straight Republican ticket, both state and county, without a scratch.

Your state candidates are men of unimpeachable character and of course will have an old-fashioned majority of at least one hundred thousand. See that the party of McKinley rolls up a McKinley majority in Cameron county.

The most important matter for your consideration is the election of safe and good men to the responsible positions of Associate Judge and County Treasurer of this county. While the Press has no intention to speak disparagingly of the candidates placed before you by our friends of the other side, yet we should not be doing our duty if we failed to call your serious attention to some facts.

The office of Associate Judge is of vast more importance to the taxpayers of Cameron county than you imagine. Questions are continually arising that, of necessity, must be decided by the Associates, and they should be men of ripe business experience and therefore familiar with public questions. George A. Walker, your candidate, by careful industry and economy after years of hard labor as an iron worker, having for more than twenty years wielded the hammer and handled the tongs, rose, step by step, until to-day he is considered one of the best business men in this section of the country and identified with important financial and manufacturing institutions. His ripe experience eminently fits him for election to the position he so ably fills by appointment of Gov. Stone. Again, Mr. Walker is on the shady side of life and as a neighbor, good citizen and faithful officer wherever called, it is a duty we owe, one and all, (laying aside politics) to an honored and respected citizen to give Mr. Walker a practically unanimous election. We have too much faith in the good judgement of the citizens of this county to believe they will do otherwise.

The other important and responsible position to which you are called upon to elect is that of County Treasurer. Both of the candidates are young men of ability and popular, especially so where they are more familiarly known. While we do not dispute the ability of the gentleman presented by the opposition, it does not prevent the Republican party from praising the signal fitness and ability of their candidate, Mr. Walter Yothers, of Driftwood. He is a gentleman of pleasing address, expert accountant and obliging at all times. In his intercourse with men he has shown his sturdy character to be such as to rally to his support, practically the unanimous vote of his neighbors, regardless of party. That he will make a competent official none can say to the contrary; that he is entitled to the united support of his party there can be no valid reason offered why not. The eastern section of the county for the first time in twenty years ask that they be accorded this office and strongly support Mr. Yothers as their candidate. Their demands should be listened to and heeded by the Republican party of the county. Their demands, made in strong terms, should receive serious consideration by all who call themselves Republicans. Right is right.

Republicans! Do Your Duty.

Good Workman.

J. H. Bennett, the painter, who has recently executed some work on the interior of the Warner House, has closed a contract with the county commissioners to fresco the court room. He is an excellent workman.

Maro.

A most remarkable performance by a man of wonderful versatility—far exceeding in interest anything of the kind ever given here.—Bridgeport, Conn., Morning Telegram. Thursday evening, Oct. 17th, 1901, Opera House, Emporium, Pa.

Seriously Injured.

We regret to learn of a serious accident to Mrs. J. H. Cole, of Keokuk, Iowa, by falling into a sewer. Her parents at this place, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Warner, received a letter on Tuesday conveying the news. Her injuries are serious.

Passion Play.

The marvelous reproduction of the famous Passion Play of Ober Ammergau will be produced in St. Mark's Church, Wednesday evening, Oct. 23d at 8 p. m. Admission only 25c. The patronage of the public is respectfully solicited.

The Electric Light Plant.

J. H. Vail, of Philadelphia, one of the finest Electrical Engineering experts in country, came to Emporium Tuesday, at the request of Borough Council to inspect our Electric lighting plant. Mr. Vail in his report says, that the gas engine and appliances, the electric generator and exciter, the switchboard and instruments, the arc lamps and regulators, poles, wires, insulators &c., have been supplied equal to the specifications and that all are strictly first class, of a high grade. He states however that some of the poles have been pulled out of position by the strain of the heavy wires and that the trees have not been sufficiently trimmed and not enough insulators put on the wire where they pass through the trees. He says that the corrections required are not serious or expensive and can readily be made without interfering with the operation of the lights.

Mr. Vail concludes by saying that he believes we will have a very excellent and economical plant that will give first-class service, and that he knows of no plant of the same capacity that was ever put in at a less cost, when it is considered that all the apparatus is of a high grade. He winds up by saying that he knows of many plants of the same capacity that are not nearly so good but have cost more money.

The Institute.

The thirty-fifth session of Cameron county Teachers' Institute now in session, is one of the most satisfactory, in point of practical worth to the teacher, ever held in this county. Miss Collins has engaged the very best talent to be had and we hope may realize sufficient to meet the heavy expense. The attendance and entertainment, thus far has been very good. This evening Maro, the magician, will hold the fort. Let every one attend.

THE EVENING ATTRACTIONS.

Monday Evening: "Life's Musical Scale" was the subject of a lecture by Prof. Frank H. Green, of West Chester. While not posing as a platform orator, Prof. Green has powers as an entertainer far beyond the average. His humor was chaste and natural and kept his audience in a very agreeable mood all through the evening. As a summary of the forces that insure success in life, the lecture could scarcely be surpassed and its power for good will long abide.

Tuesday Evening: The Ariel Ladies Sextette achieved a distinct triumph and, if possible, made for themselves a firmer place than ever in the appreciation of our people. The length of the program was more than doubled and even then the audience seemed insatiable.

Miss Marguerite, the Reader, was accorded an ovation. Her impersonations of child-hood were simply inimitable.

Wednesday Evening: "Sparks from the Anvil" by Dr. Homer T. Wilson, of Kentucky, can justly be characterized a great lecture, nothing finer has ever been heard here, while the manner of its delivery was truly and greatly impressive. His beautiful tribute to our martyred President made a fitting climax to a lecture that will live long in the memory of his auditors.

Lost.—On Thursday, Oct. 10th, on Fourth street, near Geo. J. LaBar's, a ladies cameo brooch. A liberal reward will be paid for its return to this office.

Just received at Balcom & Lloyd's "Salada" Ceylon Tea. Wholesome and delicious.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

CAVANAUGH.

Mrs. MARY CAVANAUGH, aged 56 years, wife of Mr. Michael Cavanaugh, died at the family residence, corner of Broad and Third street Sunday, Oct. 13th, 1901, of congestion of the brain, after an illness of only a few weeks. Deceased came to Emporium in 1865 with her husband and raised a large family of eleven children—eight sons and three daughters—all of whom are grown to manhood and womanhood, except one son, Frank, aged 14 years. During all these years she was faithful in the discharge of her duties as mother and wife and it is due, in a great measure, to her economy and hard work that she reared the large family of industrious children, all of whom respected and greatly loved their mother.

The funeral took place yesterday morning from St. Mark's Catholic Church, Rev. Father Downey officiating. The pall bearers were six sons, John, Richard, Malachy, Thomas, Andrew and Michael. Interment in Catholic cemetery.

BRIEF MENTION.

Dr. C. L. Bradford, of Austin, has placed in his office an X Ray machine. That's enterprise sure.

Reynoldsville was visited by a $60,000 fire last Sunday.

The pretty school teacher is very much in evidence this week.

The wedding of Miss Nellie McCormick, daughter of ex-Attorney General Henry C. McCormick, of Williamsport, to Joseph William Cochran, will take place in First Presbyterian church at Williamsport, October 21.

The insurgent Republican journals of the state are busy about their accustomed work of heaping abuse on the stalwart representatives of the party even in this dark hour of the nation's grief. Representative Harris, of Clearfield, the candidate for state treasurer, is just now the innocent object of their vile attacks.—Pittston Gazette.

The second Quarterly Meeting of Emporium Charge, Wesleyan Methodist church will be held in the hall on Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 19th and 20th. Evening services 7:30 o'clock, preaching Saturday afternoon 2:30, p. m. Saturday evening 7:30 o'clock Love feast, Sunday morning 10 o'clock followed by preaching service, etc. Rev. C. H. Dow, president of the Conference will be present and have charge of the services. Rev. Dow is a pleasant speaker, and every one that hears him will be well repaid. We extend a cordial invitation to all. The joining circuits are cordially invited. Preceding the Quarterly Meeting Rev. Dow will preach Wednesday evening at Truman, Friday evening at Emporium.

J. DEAN BROWN, Pastor.

Why Young Boys Leave Farm Homes The other day a Franklin man visited one of the large farms in a certain township in Venango county and says he never until then found out the reason the farmer boys like to leave the country and come to the city. He says he took notes on what the farmer boy did the day he was in the country.

They follow: Arose at 4 a. m., walked three miles after four cows and drove them home; went the same distance into the pasture and got three horses; came back and fed and cleaned the horses and helped milk the cows; fed the calves and a colt; got his breakfast; hitched up two horses; took the cows back to pasture; salted the sheep; worked in the garden; dug a couple of bushels of potatoes; carried in some wood; picked a wagon load of cider apples; unhitched the team for his father; got his dinner; hitched them up again; picked five boat loads of stone; carried in some more wood; dug half an acre of potatoes; picked some more stone; chopped some more wood; cut some corn and when then the man was leaving the boy said he would soon go after the cows and horses; chop the morning kindling; help his father with the team; turn out the horses, and go out and gather buckwheat until 9 o'clock. The reasons are pretty good.

Surprise Party.

Saturday, Oct. 12, was a day that will long be remembered by those who participated in the pleasant surprise party, given by the friends of Mrs. Nancy Russell, of Chapman Hill. About eleven of that lady's friends met at her house and as she had a quilt on the frames, each one showed their fancy stitches. An elaborate dinner was served, and each one voted it a splendid time.

Recognized at Washington.

The only instance on record of a post office being named after a patent medicine, was last year, when in Wetzel County, W. Va., a new post office was established and named Kodol, after the famous Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, manufactured by E. C. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago. It had given such satisfactory results that the name was unanimously selected by the people for the new office and adopted by the department at Washington, D. C. This action was entirely voluntary on the part of the people of the community, without any solicitation whatever from the manufacturers of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. In fact the first knowledge they obtained regarding the matter was when they received a letter bearing the post mark "Kodol, W. Va.," and the contents fully explained the circumstances. For a verification of this statement the reader is referred to the latest Post Office Guide. A preparation so highly prized by a community must be worthy of the greatest confidence.
