Foot Ball Team Beaten.

The Emporium foot ball team met defeat at the hands of the St. Marys boys on Saturday last, at the grounds of the latter. While the Emporium boys each played a good individual game, they lacked the experience of team work. The game was fiercely contested from start to finish, the St. Marys boys winning by a score of eleven to nothing, only after playing the hardest game this season. The main feature of the game was a seventy-two yard punt of Howard's for Emporium boys in the last half of the game. A return game will be played here in the near future and the boys should be accorded the patronage of the people in their athletic endeavors. The line up of Saturday's game was as follows:

St. Marys	Emporium
Holes	Left End
Bauer	Left Tackle
Gist	Left Guard
Auman	Center
Croak	Right Guard
Squares	Right Tackle
Kragle	Right End
Hartman	Quarterback
Richie	Right Halfback
Rogan	Left Halfback
Leible	Fullback
Hartman	Manager
Touchdowns—Leible, one; Rogan, one. Goals—Leible. Time of halves—twenty and fifteen minutes. Referee—McCabe. Empire—Billings.

Emporium Roller Mill.

Extensive improvements have been going on at the Emporium Roller Mills during the past two months. New machinery throughout the plant has been installed at a heavy expense, making the popular Emporium Mills equal to any in this country of the same capacity. The Messrs. Felt have for years covered a wide area and the capacity of their two mills (Olean and Emporium) has been taxed to their utmost, to meet their trade. Their brands of flour, as well as feed, continues to increase in popularity.

Valuable Sheep.

W. R. Johnson, one of Bryan Hill's industrious farmers, has entered the sheep raising business quite extensively. He recently purchased a full blooded Shropshire Ram, weighing 250 pounds, from Mr. Campbell, a noted breeder in Canada. Mr. Johnson intends to enlarge that branch of his farm, believing there is money in the same.

Large Bear.

Jacob Andrus yesterday killed a monster black bear on Hicks Run and brought the same to Emporium this morning for shipment to New York. Bears are quite plentiful in this county this fall. A few days ago one walked on the P. & E. track, between this place and Beechwood, ahead of Erie mail train, being knocked down the embankment.

Baptist Church Notes.

Preaching morning and evening by the pastor, Rev. W. A. Pugsley; morning subject, "Say So," evening topic "The Devil's Hobby." Bible school at the close of morning worship; Prayer and praise service Wednesday evening, 7:30 o'clock. Young People's society of Christian Endeavor, Sunday evening, 6:00 o'clock. All welcome.

As Others See Us.

Williamsport Bulletin.

Advices received from Cameron county leads the Gazette and Bulletin to believe that the prospects for success of the Republican county, as well as state ticket, grows brighter every day. While Cameron is usually very close and not always reliably Republican on local matters, this year it appears to be the intention of the Republicans, as well as many Democrats, who, disgusted with the betrayal of their party in the interests of Wannamaker, McClure, Guffy, et al., to vote the entire Republican ticket. The latest reports predict the election of Hon. George A. Walker, Associate Judge, and Walter Yothers, Treasurer. Both are popular gentlemen. Mr. Walker, one of the sitting associates, is a star man and trusty in every emergency.

Mr. Yothers, for Treasurer, is exceedingly popular with the laboring class, especially the woodsmen, having for many years followed that occupation, until by economy he was able to acquire an education. He is a gentleman of spotless character, popular with all classes and will receive the hearty support of many prominent members of the opposition, who appreciate his eminent fitness for the responsible position of County Treasurer. The citizens of Cameron will make no mistake by voting for the honorable gentleman, but on the other hand will be doing themselves credit.

Estray Notice.

Came to the subscriber one black heifer, about two years old. The owner can have property by paying all damages and proving property. S. F. EBERSOLE. Sterling Run, Oct. 30th, 1901.

Prominent Society People Wedded.

On the twenty-second anniversary of her birth and the thirty-fourth anniversary of her mother's wedding, Miss Alice Weir Soffel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Breck Soffel was united in marriage to William Barnum Philleo of Cross Fork, in the Presbyterian church at noon yesterday.

To the sweet strains of the "Wedding Morn" the bridal party entered the sacred edifice at 11:30 o'clock. Leaning on the arm of her father, the bride headed the procession to the chancel followed by the groom and his best man Mr. Leon H. Newton, of Rochester, N. Y. Rev. Francis Yarnell, of Coudersport, officiated, using the nuptial Episcopal ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The costume of the bride was a creation of loveliness that gratified the eye of the gentler sex in Austin far more than is usual on similar occasions. Her dress was composed of white silk trimmed with liberty satin ribbon; her feet were encased in silver slippers an heirloom of the family. Instead of a bouquets he carried a pearl bound prayer book containing the marriage certificate. Miss Margaret Edith Carson was maid of honor. Miss Carson was beautifully attired and carried a bouquet of white hyacinths. Her bridesmaids were Miss Edith W. Cowles of Wellsville, N. Y., and Miss Mary A. Welch of Eldred, Pa. Their dresses were splendid creations of costuming. The groom was tastefully and elegantly attired in a conventional Prince Albert black coat and light trousers. Messrs. Clinton N. Smith, of Theburn Falls, Mass., and Edward H. Weaver, of Cross Fork were groomsmen, while Messrs. Vernon Grinolds and Fred Pomeroy of Austin acted as ushers.

A pleasing feature of the ceremony was the presence of flower girls and ribbon boys, Ruth Allison and Marie Brisbois acting as the former and Harold Caskey and Foster Johnston the latter. The floral decorations in the church were tasteful and remarkably pretty, the colors blue and white prevailing in consonance with the costumes of the bride and her attendants.

At the bride's home on Turner street where a reception was held during the afternoon, the floral decorations were even more gorgeous and pleasing. Hundreds of guests and the bride's friends called to offer their congratulations and well wishes.

Mention must be made of the numerous handsome presents of which the newly married couple were the recipients, especially the handsome silver service presented by the groom's employer, Mr. E. Peltz of Cross Fork. Its massiveness and beauty represents an intrinsic value that speaks well for the esteem in which Mr. Philleo is held.

The happy couple left on the evening train for Harrisburg and other cities. They will be "at home" in Cross Fork after Nov. 20th.—Austin Republican.

The Campaign Liar.

The Press had hoped the campaign liar would not be in evidence in this campaign, but it appears he has started out with the single purpose of attempting to deceive the people in relation to our worthy candidate for County Treasurer, Mr. Walter Yothers. One of the most ridiculous stories circulated is that Mr. Yothers receives a large sum of money as Justice of the Peace and a fabulous amount as bookkeeper, when the facts are that Mr. Yothers does not receive $5.00 per year, so we are informed by one of the County Commissioners. Any sensible man will take no stock in such trash. Not being able to injure our candidate in any other way, falsehood has been resorted to. The latest to be circulated is to the effect that Mr. Yothers does not intend to conduct the business of the office, but will farm it out. This old chestnut is always circulated when an election of Treasurer is before the people. The office of Treasurer in this county is not worth sufficient money to enable a Treasurer to do anything of the kind, unless he desires to give away all there is in it. Mr. Yothers is, practically speaking, a poor man, and being an expert accountant would naturally desire to give the office his personal attention. The question of deputy has never entered his mind. Walter Yothers will be elected Treasurer and his honest smiling, countenance will greet you on the Hill after the first Monday in January next. Anti-election stories react.

Thos. Gallagher, the hard worked P. & E. agent, at this place enjoyed a couple of days at Fan-Am. last week.

Election Day Dinner.

The L. O. T. M., of Sterling Run, will serve dinner and supper, in the Van Ness building, election day. Meals 25 cents.

Dangerously Ill.

We are pained to learn that Mrs. C. C. Fay is dangerously ill with pneumonia and very low. Her daughter, Mrs. Norris, returned to Emporium yesterday.

Got a Divorce.

Mrs. Edith A. Howard has secured a divorce from her husband, Samuel T. Howard, and has the custody of the children.—Wednesday's Williamsport Bulletin.

Council Accepts Electric Light Plant.

At a special meeting of Borough Council held last evening they accepted the electric light plant from contractor Geo. Metzger, every member present voting aye, except Mr. Hackett. Our people are pleased.

Brushing Up.

R. H. Hirsch has made a great change and improvement in his jewelry store. In addition to purchasing two handsome up-to-date show cases he has purchased and has now displayed an entirely new and handsome line of goods, embracing a complete line.

Safety Burglar Vaults.

The First National Bank of Emporium has received and will soon place in position for the use of their patrons, one hundred safety fire burglar proof vaults, where valuables may be deposited by the renter. The boxes range in price from $1.50 to $5.00 per year. This new departure on the part of the First National will be appreciated by their patrons.

Will Harry.

Henry W. Graham, of Emporium, will lead to the altar Miss Adeline Lawson in the near future, the ceremony to take place in St. Paul's A. M. E. Church, at Bellefonte, Pa., Nov. 21st. Mr. Graham has resided in Emporium for many years and is a quiet, industrious citizen, having the respect and confidence of our citizens. The lady of his choice has for more than seventeen years been with the family of the late Ex. Gov. A. G. Curtin, and no doubt will make our friend's home a happy one. Our citizens will certainly wish them well.

Long Distance Phone.

Commencing with to-day Emporium is connected with the outside world. The New York and Pennsylvania Telephone and Telegraph Company, whose announcement appears on the 8th page of this week's Press, have completed their line. This will be a great convenience to our business men who have occasion to talk with distant points.

Geo. Metzger, Jr., is manager of lines in this county and patrons will be served by calling at his place of business.

Our Landlord Farmer.

William McGee has been absent for several weeks and the boys were greatly concerned about him, until word was received that he was somewhat dubious as to when he would reach home but that he had started for home with his share of the potatoes, three bushels, having left Meshoppen ten days ago, following a pheasant trail in the direction of Renovo. This morning John Meyers reported he had met him at Renovo, but fearing his potatoes would not last until he reached Emporium had turned back to Meshoppen for a fresh supply, or wait until watermelon season arrives, when Dean Sampson had guaranteed some blind robins.

At the Same Old Game.

Honest Republicans will not be caught voting for the fusion state ticket, commonly called the "Onion" ticket. Republicans should reflect and ask themselves this question: "are not these gentlemen who are urging you to vote this ticket the same men who yearly pose as reformers and are always sure to be kickers, no matter how worthy the candidates upon the Republican ticket may be." These bogus reformers will hear something drop on Nov. 5th, that will bury their hypocritically self-nominated ticket under a sweeping Republican majority of one hundred thousand for Potter, Harris and regularity in party politics. Honest Democrats are just as much interested in defeating this pang of bogus reformers (?)

Walter Yothers is a good clean gentleman and his administration of the affairs of the office of County Treasurer will receive his individual attention. Vote for Yothers.

BRIEF MENTION.

A new issue of postal cards will appear shortly after December 1st. President McKinley's picture and name will embellish them.

The Pennsylvania railroad company will erect car shops at Olean for the Buffalo & Allegheny division of the company's property.

A serious freight wreck is reported to have occurred near Buffalo, this morning, all trains being delayed. We are unable to secure one word of information.

Don't get gay with the editor, says an exchange. A young woman poked fun at the editor of the Bluffton (Ind.) Banner because his trousers were patched. The editor went home and sued her husband for $10 he owed on subscription.

Representative Maloney, of Venango county, it is said will vote for Potter and Harris this year, because he cannot stand the fusion idea. Mr. Maloney is a good deal of an independent Democrat, and cannot stand the "Onion" party.

It is proposed at Washington to erect a magnificent monument to the late President McKinley in the shape of a memorial arch to cost $2,000,000, on the district of Columbia end of the proposed memorial bridge, the construction of which is practically assured. The bridge will be one of the finest in the world, and the proposed arch will make it almost unique among memorial structures.

The St. Marys Gazette truthfully remarks: "Girls will do well to hold aloof from so-called fellows that gain a livelihood by hanging around the home of their parents. Of all abominations on God's smiling earth, the most sickening is the young man who is too lazy to work and lives on the earnings of an aged father or mother. Parasites of such a type should not be allowed to associate with respectable people. They are a shame to their kin, a libel upon mankind, and are the best excuse for the existence of a hell of fire to punish such as spend their lives in sin and idleness."

Hon. Geo. A. Walker will have a walk-away for Associate Judge, but that is no reason why you should not vote for him. Make his election unanimous.

Last Sad Rites.

In our last issue the Press at some length, gave an account of the death of JAMES MORRISSEY. The funeral of the deceased took place last Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock and was one of the largest ever witnessed in this place. St. Mark's Catholic Church, of which deceased was a faithful member, was filled with our citizens, comprising all classes and denominations, attesting to the universal respect in which deceased was held by our people. The remarks by Father Downey were well timed and highly eulogistic. After viewing the remains the casket was closed by funeral director Egan, when the large concourse of people silently wended their way to the "silent city." Thus closes the career, on earth, of one more respected citizen. The Press scribe noticed a very large number of friends in attendance, in addition to relatives, and shall endeavor to give their names as far as possible:

The Family:—J. S. Morrissey, Superior, Wis.; Mrs. Webb Sater, Tacoma, Wash.; P. J. Morrissey, Sidway, Michigan; J. L. Morrissey, and Mrs. M. F. Friel, Renovo, Pa.; Mrs. H. Steel, Kane, Pa.; Mrs. Robert House, Emporium; Miss Ella Morrissey, Kane; Miss Mame Morrissey, and Mr. Thos. Morrissey of this place.

FRIENDS FROM OUT OF TOWN.

Mr. M. F. Friel and family, Harry Friel, Will Friel, John Houlihan, Forest Swyers, Berry Albright, M. J. Healy, F. Haley, J. Drohn, J. Koler, Pat Shelley and Mrs. W. Blosser, all of Renovo; Judge McDonald and Dan Dailey, Driftwood; Pat Clair, Pat Kileen and Dan'l Sullivan, Cameron; Chas. E. Voelk, Harry Steel, Kane; Mrs. Will Haley, Johnsbury; Mr. and Mrs. Ed May, Olean.

Walter Yothers is daily gaining strength with the people and will come in on the home-stretch in fine style. He is a laboring man and has had to work hard, from the woods to the desk, ever since he was old enough to grub for a living. You will not be ashamed of your ballot if you vote for Walter Yothers for County Treasurer.

Scotch Pays the Penalty.

Auburn, Oct. 29.—At 7.12.30 o'clock this morning Leon F. Czolgosz, murderer President William McKinley, paid the extreme penalty exacted by the law for his crime. He was shocked to death by 1,700 volts of electricity. He went to the chair in exactly the same manner as have the majority of all the other murderers in this state, showing no particular sign of fear, but, in fact, doing what few of them have done, talking to the witnesses while he was being strapped in the chair.

"I killed the President because he was an enemy of the good people—of the good working people. I am not sorry for my crime."

These were his words as the guards hurried him into the chair.

A moment later he mumbled through the half-adjusted face straps: "I am awfully sorry I could not see my father."

Rev. Cordello Herrick, chaplain of the prison, was in the death chamber ready for any call that might be made for his services. He was not wanted by the prisoner, however, and sat quietly in the rear of the chamber throughout the execution.

The clothing and personal effects of the prisoner were burned under direction of Warden Mead shortly after the execution.

A Delightful Concert.

The opening entertainment of the Star Course, given under the auspices of the Brockway Lyceum Bureau, of Pittsburg, at the opera house last evening, was a most delightful one. The audience was large and enthusiastic, and very liberal in its applause, and the numerous encores were responded to in a very gracious manner. The entertainment was given by the Patricolo Concert Company, comprising the following high class people: Signor Angelo Patricolo, Pianist; Miss Agnes Rapp, Soprano; Miss Winifred Gray Reader; Mr. Herbert Butler, Violinist. Their selections were of the very highest order, and in its entirety the concert was the treat that it was expected to be, and the audience was delighted.

Many took occasion to compliment Mr. S. H. Clair, the resident manager, as they were leaving the theatre, on the auspicious opening of the course.—Evening Telegram, Ashland, Pa., Oct. 29th, 1901. At Court House, Emporium, Pa., Monday evening Nov. 4th. Tickets on sale at H. S. Lloyd's, the chart to be opened tomorrow (Friday) at 4 p. m. Secure your seats now for the entire course.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

MELEN.

Mrs. Maggie Melen, aged 37 years, wife of William Melen, who came here some time ago from Buffalo, died suddenly at the American Hotel last Saturday, of heart failure. Deceased was recovering from typhoid fever when her death occurred. The funeral took place last Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from American Hotel, Rev. O. S. Metzler officiating. Although strangers in our midst the funeral was largely attended. The husband of the deceased is employed by Climax Powder Company and the officers and employees of the Company promptly came to the assistance of the afflicted husband with a liberal donation.

Let Him Alone.

When you ask a man to subscribe for your paper and he says, "Oh, I never read much, and, besides, the times are too plagued hard," for God's sake apologize and leave him. Life is too short to teach a jack to sing soprano. All gentlemen nowadays read newspapers, and lots of them. Show us a man who lives for years in a town or community and never subscribes for the papers published there and we will show you a man whose head is shaped like a piece of pie, with point up, and whose ignorance is only exceeded by his gigantic gall.—Ex.

Emmanuel Church.

The Holy Communion will be celebrated next Sunday, November 3rd, at 11 a. m. At the evening service Mr. Josiah Howard will give an account of the proceedings of the General Convention at San Francisco. Service Friday evening, Nov. 1st. J. M. ROBERTSON, Rector.

Eye Specialist.

Prof. W. H. Badine, the well known Eye Specialist, will be at R. H. Hirsch's jewelry store, Emporium, Pa., Nov. 8th and 9th, where he will test and examine the eyes free. All work guaranteed. Remember Prof. Badine guarantees to cure all cases of headache caused by weak eyes or astigmatism. New lenses ground to fit old frames.

WEATHER REPORT.

(Forecast by T. B. Lloyd.)

FRIDAY, Probably Showers.
SATURDAY, Fair
SUNDAY, Fair.

State Politics.

Dr. J. C. Weidman, of Mercer, announces that he will be a candidate for Congress in the district now represented by Congressman Sibley.

The Pittsburg political labor union has adopted resolutions condemning Judge Yerkes for his course towards workmen. The Philadelphia union also adopted similar resolutions.

From Washington again comes the story that ex-Senator Cameron is in Washington to consult with Senator Quay about the nomination for Governor.

Shamokin News—"Progress and prosperity will be given no backward slap in Northumberland county this year."

Senator William Flynn, former insurgent leader, Governor Stone and County Chairman Robertson, spoke at McKeesport last Saturday evening for the Republican ticket. Senator Flynn stood squarely on the Republican platform and said in part:

"There are many things I would like to have done in the State of Pennsylvania, and many that I would rather have left undone. More first class laws should be passed; improved ballot laws, stringent primary election laws, extensive additions to hospitals, educational institutions, insane asylums, public parks and good roads should be promoted."

Senator Flynn insisted that these all would come quickly, and asserted that his interest in them had not abated one bit. He also argued for personal registration, saying that under the present system there are 30 per cent. too many names on the lists.

Senator Flynn said the defeat of the Republican ticket will be considered in other States a failure on the part of Pennsylvania to support the martyred McKinley, under whose policies the industries of the Commonwealth have thrived, and his successor, Roosevelt. He therefore urged that all labor roll up a big majority.

Vote the entire Republican ticket and get your neighbor to do the same.

Up in Columbia county the old Jacksonian Fishing Creek Democracy get sick at the mention of Coray.

Every Republican should go to the polls next week and mark the circle at the top of the first column on the ballot.

Republicans! You have an excellent ticket and the candidates are all men worthy of your support. See that you are not deceived into scratching a single name—place an X at the head of the first column and you will have no regrets to make. It is your duty to stand by the party.
