Generous, Very.

The Emmanuel Free Reading-room presented Miss Byrde Taggart of Emporium with a handsome souvenir bonbon spoon. Several beautiful designs emblematic of the state of Colorado are represented on the artistic stem, and in the gold bowl is a hand-engraved picture with the words "Manitou, Colorado," in German text. The gift is in a neat white satin case, and is intended to reward the young lady for having sent in the largest number of answers during the "Literary Prize Contest."

To Miss Margaret Farley, of Driftwood, who came off second in the contest, was also generously remembered with a very pretty souvenir spoon having a hand engraved picture of the entrance to the "Garden of the Gods" in the gold bowl.

Now was the lady who conducted the contest forgotten. To her surprise, as well as high delight, she received a beautiful souvenir spoon of San Francisco, and she feels assured that the next best thing to being born with a gold spoon in your mouth is to have a considerate friend present you with one that points an entrance to the "Golden Gate."

LITERARY PRIZE CONTEST.

Eye Specialist.

Prof. W. H. Badine, the well known Eye Specialist, will be at R. H. Hirsch's jewelry store, Emporium, Pa., Nov. 8th and 9th, where he will test and examine the eyes free. All work guaranteed. Remember Prof. Badine guarantees to cure all cases of headache caused by weak eyes or astigmatism. New lenses ground to fit old frames.

Star Course Opening.

It may sound like extravagant laudation to say that the Patricolo Grand Concert Company is the finest aggregation of artists that has ever appeared in Emporium but that would probably not be fit wide of the truth—every member of the Company is an artist and every number in the rich and varied program a gem. The audience was delighted and demanded encore after encore, to which the several members of the company gracefully responded. The Piano playing of Patricolo is indeed phenomenal, the renditions on the violin by Prof. Butler a revelation of the possibilities of that instrument.

The vocalizations of Miss Rapp displayed the highest degree of cultivation and training, and the readings of Miss Gray were in the utmost favor with her auditors. She easily excels in all the elements that make up the finished Elocutionist, as her frequent recalls indicated.

The Rogers-Grilley recitals will be the next number in the Star Course, Dec. 10th.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

ELLIS.

The death of GEORGE W. ELLIS, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Ellis, of Emporium, at his late home near Pittsburg, from typhoid pneumonia was a sad blow to his family and to his many friends.

His disease assumed a most serious form from the beginning and while the best medical attention, together with the most skillful nursing, was employed these were ineffectual to save his life. The end came last Friday morning, his wife, father and mother being with him at the time.

The remains were brought here for burial, the services being conducted in the First Methodist Episcopal Church by his pastor, the Rev. O. S. Metzler, assisted by the Rev. Robert McCaslin.

A delegation of the Brotherhood of R. R. Trainmen, of which the deceased was a member, accompanied the remains and rendered faithful service to the afflicted family. The beautiful floral piece "a broken wheel" was a gift from the Brotherhood and was much admired.

Mr. Ellis was but 22 years of age and had only been married about six months. He was a member of the First Methodist Church and was active in the Sunday School and young people's meetings. He was a young man of excellent habits and had a large circle of friends, by whom he will be greatly missed.

Among the friends and relatives from abroad in attendance at the funeral were Miss Mary Marshaugh, cousin; Hood Ellis, brother, Mr. Pustle and Mr. White, all of Allegheny City, Pa.

Miss Frank S. Huntley, who sang on several different occasions at the teachers' institute in this borough last week, fully sustained the enviable reputation that preceded her as being an accomplished vocalist. Miss Huntley certainly has a remarkable rich, clear voice, and she reaches the highest notes with the greatest ease, showing the thorough cultivation she has received at the conservatories at Dickinson seminary, Williamsport; at Ithaca, and finally at Chicago, where she won the first prize, a diamond medal. After listening to this talented young lady it is not difficult to predict for her a most successful career in a profession she has spent years of hard and patient study to perfect herself for. No one who heard her during her recent visit in Smethport could have failed to have been captivated by her tuneful voice. Miss Huntley was accompanied in her solo work here by her sister, Miss Nellie, an accomplished pianist, who is also a graduate of the Chicago Musical College.—Smethport Democrat.

Change in Lecture.

Dr. Madison C. Peters will lecture in the Baptist church on Friday evening instead of in the Court House as advertised. This change was made necessary because of the improvements now being made in the Court room.

The Augusta, (Ga.) Herald, says: "For an hour and a half he held his audience literally spell bound and mingled laughter and applause ruffled over the audience from beginning to end."

Doors open at 7:30. Lecture begins at 8 o'clock. Admission, 35c.

Great Luck Of An Editor.

"For two years all efforts to cure Eczema in the palms of my hands failed," writes Editor H. N. Lester, of Syracuse, Kan., "then I was wholly cured by Bucklen's Arnica Salve." It's the world's best for Eruptions, Sores and all skin diseases. Only 25c at L. Taggart's.

A barrier against disease and better than drugs is SHAW'S PURE MALT. Sold by F. X. Blumle, Emporium, Pa. n2-yl

The country is safe and the people of the country have once more responded in unmistakable terms in behalf of Republicanism, sweeping every northern state that held state elections. Tammany Hall is wiped out and New York city passes into Republican hands. Even Bryan's state was carried by the Republicans. It was a glorious victory, especially in Pennsylvania, where the most desperate effort was made by the Fusion party to defeat the regular nominees of the Republican party. Fusion is dead in Pennsylvania—dead as a door nail.

The result in Cameron is very gratifying on both state and county ticket. While the county is safely Republican on state issues the result on the county ticket rather surprised the most sanguine. The election passed off quietly, except in one district (Lumber) where a small riot disturbed the election for a time. The successful candidates may well feel proud of their handsome vote. The contest was quiet, yet closely contested and the result unprecedented in the history of the county. The popularity of the county candidates is very evident by the handsome vote each received. The Press congratulates the victors and sympathizes with the defeated. We have been there and know just how they feel. Now, "let us have peace," and see what we can do to upbuild Cameron county.

He is one of the most popular railroad officials in local circles and the South Shore has made no mistake in appointing Mr. Morrissey, Superior, (Wis.) Telegram.

Fire at Sterling Run.

To the Editor Cameron County Press: Here is a notice about a fire, and I would like you to put a notice in the PRESS about it. It was as follows: Little John Whiting said that he was fooling down at the barn and said that he set it on fire to see the rats run and asked his mother how soon it would burn. There was a horse and buggy saved and some wood and feed, and a lot of hay and lumber burned upstairs. I forgot to say there were two barns adjoining each other—one was Ed. Whiting's and the other Straw-bridge's.

Yours truly,

GROVER C. SMITH,

Age, 9 years.
