Complete Returns From the State are in.

Philadelphia, Nov. 9.—Complete returns from every county in the state have now been received. Many of the counties give the figures as officially computed by the courts.

The total vote for the leading candidates for state treasurer and supreme court justice follows:

State treasurer—Harris (Rep.), 443,488; Coray (Fusionist), 385,120. Harris' plurality, 48,368.

Justice of the supreme court—Potter (Rep.) 431,443; Yerkes (Fusionist), 385,107. Potter's plurality, 46,336.

Booker T. Washington, when he visited Windsor Castle, during a trip to Europe, was entertained at tea by Queen Victoria, and while in Paris attended a banquet which was presided over by United States Ambassador Porter, the late ex-President Harrison, Archbishop Ireland and others.

There was a shrewd girl and not devoid of sense, either, who remarked when the other girls were making fun of her short skirts and affected to be much shocked over the exhibition thereof at a party: "If you'd only pull up your dresses about the necks where they ought to be, they'd be as short as mine."—Exchange.

According to the Philadelphia North American, the P. & E. railroad is about to abolish its docks at Erie and have its ore business handled at Buffalo. The paper states that this is the reason of the acquisition of the W. N. Y. & P. by the Pennys. Should this change be made it would make a vast difference in the freight traffic through this city.

A Stench in Decent Nostrils.

Lewisburgh News.
How things have changed since revenge and boodle have become the dominating factors and forces in opposition to the Republican party! Instead of having a great party, Democrats these days are asked to support cast-off mugwump Republicans; instead of the great principles of their former great leaders, the Democrats are asked to subscribe to the doctrines of yellow journalism and the malignity that is exhaled from a pirate band of Republican soreheads who have failed to rule or ruin the party. All this has been a stench in the nostrils of fair-minded Democrats. They see that to win with a Republican mugwump on a fusion and a platform of revenge is no gain for Democracy, no matter how successful as to the number of votes received.

For five years fusion has been declared to be the thing to win on, and yet every time it is tried the Republican majority and pluralities are much greater than those received by Curtin, Hoyt, Hartman and Blaine in the old days. And they will grow greater and greater as the public come to comprehend the hypocrisy of reformers like Dr. Swallow, who has been put out of the church for lying, and the farce and fraud of yellow journal sensationalism. Gradually they are opening their eyes, Democrats as well as misguided Republicans, to the fact that the contest against the Republican party is not a contest for reform, but one for the offices and to wreak revenge.

A Tarantula's Jump.

"There are strange sights in Porto Rico," said a returned traveler. "Tarantulas are one of them," he continued, "and you should see a tarantula jump! One of them went through a marvelous performance, with myself and a dog for spectators. The dog's barking awoke me early one morning, and I slipped into my shoes and ran out. Spot—that's the dog's name—was making frantic plunges at an enormous tarantula, as big as my palm and its legs covering as much ground as a soap plate. Its wicked black eyes made me creep."

"All of a sudden the thing shrank up like a sponge and jumped for the dog. I give you my word, it jumped fifteen feet if it was an inch. Twice the dog ran under the spider's jump—fact. Others were watching by this time, and they all saw it. Usually, though, he just side stepped a bit.

"I broke up little pieces of a branch of a tree and hurled them at the tarantula. My aim was just good enough to stir him up. At first he kept jumping away from us, but Spot always herded him back again. Then he jumped straight for us. At last a lucky shot keeled him over, and a few strokes with a convenient club finished him."—New York Times.

The Subjection of Man.

"No, I never have a bit of trouble with my husband," remarked the frail little woman with the intelligent face. "In fact, I have him right under my thumb."

"You don't look very strong," doubtfully commented the engaged girl.

"You mistake me, my dear. 'It's a mental, not a physical, subjection.'"

"Would you mind telling me how?"

"Not a bit. Always glad to help any one steer clear of the rocks. First of all, you must know that a man in love is the biggest sort of a fool and says things that make him almost wild when he hears them in after life. I realized it, and from the very beginning of our courtship I kept a phonograph in the room, and every speech he made was duly recorded. Now, whenever my husband gets a little bit obstreperous I just turn out a record or so. Heavens, how he does rave! But he can't deny it. 'They always will, though, if you don't have proof positive.'"

"Thank you," gratefully murmured the engaged girl. "I'll get a phonograph this very day."

His Prize.

An amusing story, which may perhaps be entirely true, is told of a short-sighted but energetic member of the Russian secret police.

He was walking through a little frequented street of St. Petersburg one night when he spied high up on a lamp-post a placard.

"Aha!" he said to himself, scenting mischief on the instant and alert for action. "That's one of those incendiary notices about his majesty the czar! It must come down at once!"

With some difficulty, being of a stout build, he succeeded in climbing the post and dislodging the placard. He bore it to the ground, and there, peering at it by the light of the lamp, he read two Russian words, the English equivalent for which is the well known legend "Wet Paint."—Youth's Companion.

The dog in the kennel barks at the fleas; the dog on the chase does not feel them.

Zinc and Grinding Make Devoe Lead and Zinc Paint wear twice as long as lead and oil mixed by hand.

A Physician Testifies.

"I have taken Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and have never used anything in my life that did me the good that did," says County Physician Geo. W. Scroggs of Hall County, Ga. "Being a physician I have prescribed it and found it to give the best results." If the food you eat remains undigested in your stomach it decays there and poisons the system. You can prevent this by dieting but that means starvation. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. You need suffer from neither dyspepsia nor starvation. The worst cases quickly cured. Never fails. R. C. Dodson.
