Robt. Willett moved his family to Emporium last week. Pap Blodgett, of Sinnamahoning, was transacting business in town on Monday. Chas. L. Butler, who has been on the sick list for several weeks, is visiting his brother at Port Allegany. Frank Murry, of Buffalo, is visiting his parents at this place. Frank is looking well we are glad to note. Hon. W. E. Wheeler visited Emporium last Wednesday, to inspect the Howard lumber plant. He was a guest at Newton Terrace. Dr. A. W. Baker was called to Philadelphia on Monday by a telegram announcing the serious illness of his nephew. The doctor returned this (Thursday) morning and reports the little fellow much better.

Ben Egan visited St. Marys yesterday. Wm. Snyder has been on the sick list for several days. Mr. David Murry is seriously sick at his home on Third street.

From present indications, next week's court will be an important one. John Quigley, who has been on the sick list, is out again and attending to his duties at A. A. McDonald's.

Miss Hattie Ness and brother, of Allegheny, Pa., are visiting R. H. Hirsch and wife at this place.

Mrs. Josiah and W. H. Howard left last Friday to visit friends at Lock Haven, Williamsport and Philadelphia. Henry Auchu and Jos. J. Lingle returned yesterday from Wisconsin, where they examined an extensive lumber industry.

Mrs. L. T. Hackett and brother, Mr. Frank Murry, were called home on account of the serious illness of their father, Mr. David Murry.

Rev. Metzler attended the lecture by Ex-Gov. Bob Taylor, at Smethport, last Friday evening. He was delighted with the entertainment.

Mrs. Elizabeth Howard was summoned to Philadelphia on Tuesday by a telegram informing her of the death of her eldest sister. She left on Buffalo Flyer.

Joseph Kaye, and son Elmer who accompanied a party of lumbermen to Mexico, where they examined an extensive timber property, returned home on Monday.

S. D. McCoolle, of Driftwood, was calling on Emporium friends last Monday, receiving congratulations upon the advent of his twin babies. "Mac" is a popular gentleman and makes friends with all whom he meets.

C. D. Osterhout, a popular citizen of Ridgway who recently had an operation for appendicitis, is now thought to be nearly well. He is able to walk out on the street for exercise. His many friends will be glad to hear of his rapid recovery.—Ridgway Advocate.

O. P. Waters, of York, Pa., was guest of his old friend, Rev. O. S. Metzler, on Tuesday. Being closely identified with the newspaper world he naturally wandered in this direction, accompanied by Mr. Metzler. We enjoyed his short visit and hope he may call this way again.

We noticed attorney E. J. Jones, of St. Marys, in town yesterday afternoon. Mr. Jones is reported an aspirant for Senatorial honors in this district at the hands of the Republican party. He formerly resided in this county and is very popular with all who know him. No doubt he would make a good fight for the election.

R. H. Hammond, of Lebanon, Pa., has accepted the position of Master Mechanic of Emporium Furnace and entered upon the discharge of his duties. Mr. Hammond is a very efficient gentleman, having for years been in the employ of Lackawanna Iron & Coal Company in similar capacity.

Zinc and Grinding Make Devoe Lead and Zinc Paint wear twice as long as lead and oil mixed by hand.

Be More Careful. Miss Alda Carter, teacher at Plank Road, was a Press visitor last Monday and complains that our Valley correspondent reported in last week's PRESS that she was visiting at Smethport. Such was not the case, her mother being quite sick at the time. We hope all correspondents will be more careful in the future and refrain from misrepresenting any person. Very often it causes the newspaper men considerable annoyance and under certain cases we must divulge the names of our contributors. "Hew to the line."

Died After A Perilous Ride. WILLIAMSPORT, Dec. 9 (Special).—Mrs. W. H. Fowler, died suddenly at her home at Williamsport last Monday. While death was due to a blood clot on the brain, it is believed, that a thrilling experience through which Mrs. Fowler passed about two months ago hastened her death.

She was about to board a train at Montgomery, when it started while she was standing on the step of a Pullman car. Unable to open the vestibule door Mrs. Fowler was compelled to cling to the hand rail until the train reached Muncy, a distance of five miles, where she was rescued in a state of utter collapse.

Elsie Moran's Quick Wit. AUSTIN, PA., Dec. 9.—Miss Elsie Moran, a school teacher of Corwin, Pa., is a heroine, having earned her right to the title by saving the life of a young man Saturday afternoon.

The young fellow, considerably under the influence of liquor, was reeling along the Buffalo and Susquehanna railroad just as the Sinnamahoning train came bowling along. When the train was only a few feet away the fellow lost his balance and fell across the rails, limp and helpless.

He would have been ground to pieces in a few seconds if it had not been for Miss Moran, who had just dismissed her school and was on her way home. She realized his peril at a glance and acted just as quickly. Calling to one of her scholars to try and attract the engineer's attention she rushed to the drunken man and dragged him from the track.

And she was none too soon, for the instant that the fellow was safe the train wizzed by.

Albert Lesno died very suddenly at Thos. Murdock's camp on Lick Island Run, on Thursday last. He had only worked one day and was apparently well in the morning. Burial was made at Wharton on Sunday. He was about 65 years old and of German descent. The body of Caleb Haynes was brought home from the Warren Asylum and funeral was held on Tuesday last, interment being made at the Smith burying ground. He was one of the old settlers in this section, and must have been somewhere in the 70's as to age. The old landmarks are rapidly passing away, although there are a number of men in this township who are over 80 years old and some of them nearing the ninety mark.

Information Wanted. The manufacturers of Banner Salve having always believed that no doctor or medicine can cure in every case, but never having heard where Banner Salve failed to cure ulcers, sores, tetter, eczema, or piles, as a matter of curiosity would like to know if there are such cases. If so they will gladly refund the money. L. Taggart.
