Mrs. Sarah Coleman, mother of Mr. E. G. Coleman, Secretary of Climax Powder Company, met with an accident last Sunday morning that might have proven fatal. The good lady, who is 83 years old, went to call the wildered, got into the bath room. Discovering her error she turned about and walked through a side door, falling down the back stairs. Dr. Bardwell was hastilly summoned and, aside from a few cuts, bruises and general shaking up, was surprised to find that no bones were broken. Mrs. Coleman's friends will be pleased to learn she escaped more serious injuries.

The Austin Republican, his Cameron county friends will be pleased to note, urge the Republican party of Potter county to present Mr. Colcord as their choice for Congressman. We know nothing of the political situation in that district but in case the one-term idea shall continue, which is mighty poor politics and unfair to any congressional candidate, we hope Potter will insist upon Mr. Colcord's name being presented. He deserves better treatment at the hands of the Republicans of Potter county.

Funeral of Chas. W. Beldin.

In our last issue we gave an account of the death of Ex-County Commissioner Chas. W. Beldin, but owing to the fact that we went to press before the funeral we, of course, could not give the full particulars.

The funeral took place from the M. E. church, Sinnamahoning, Thursday afternoon, and the neat little edifice was crowded with relatives and friends of deceased. Beautiful florial tributes were placed on either side of the

The services were conducted by Rev. Faus, the pastor, who delivered a very able discourse, appropriate to the occasion. The regular church choir, by the way one of the best in the county, sang very sweetly. After services at the church the remains were taken to the cemetery, where rests so many of our former good citizens. The services at the grave were conducted by the Masonic fraternity, of which the deceased was an honored member, having held many offices from the highest to the lowest.
