TERMS: $2.00—$1.50 IN ADVANCE.

VOL. 36.

EMPORIUM, PA., THURSDAY, JANUARY 9, 1902.

NO. 46.

Hour of Meeting Changed.

Notice is hereby given to the members of C. M. B. A. that the meeting hour has been changed from nine o'clock to eight o'clock.

Will Visit Old Mexico.

Henry Auch, of this place, a member of the firm C. B. Howard Co., of Emporium, accompanies a party of prominent lumbermen to Old Mexico to examine an extensive purchase made by his firm and other capitalists. They leave Williamsport Jan. 15th and expect to be absent one month, returning via Cuba. They will leave by special cars.

Dinner Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Julian entertained a company of friends at a dinner party New Year's day. Covers were placed for fourteen and the dinner served in seven courses was a most elegant and elaborate one. The table decorations and favors were pink and white roses. Their guests thoroughly enjoyed the luxurious appointments of their beautiful home and are full of enthusiastic praise of their genial host and hostess.

Dr. A. A. Willits.

The large audience that heard Dr. Willits' lecture Dec. 27th, was given a treat. "On the Wing" was his subject, and as was anticipated, it was an eloquent description of his European travels, delivered in strong, resonant voice, and with no small degree of dramatic action. Running through it was a vein of chaste and delightful humor that kept his auditors in a most agreeable mood and made them sorry when the beautiful peroration brought to an end their "Summer's flight across the Sea."

Remedy for Smallpox.

A very high authority speaking of smallpox cases says: "I am willing to stake my reputation as a public man if the worst cases of smallpox cannot be cured in three days simply by cream of tartar. This is the sure cure and never failing remedy: One ounce of cream of tartar dissolved in a pint of boiling water, to be drunk when cold, at intervals. It can be taken at any time, and is a preventative as well as a curative. It is known to have cured in 100,000 cases without failure. I have myself restored hundreds by this means. It never leaves a mark, never causes blindness and prevents tedious lingering."—EX.

Violin Recital.

Miss Grace A. Walker's class in violin gave a recital at her home, on West Fourth street, Saturday evening, Dec. 28th, in the presence of a number of invited friends, all of whom enjoyed the treat and were gratified that the advancement of the class was so marked. We Don't Know Much about other people's business, it keeps us too busy to attend to our own, but we do know that our men in the woods don't seem to care for a real fancy stripped heavy winter underwear, they seem to want something plain and sober. Now, we have no plain and sober underwear left, but we have forty dozen fancy stripped winter underwear and we are not going to tell you what it costs us, but we are going to tell you that it will cost you 25c a garment or 45c a suit. We also made a miscalculation on the amount of good mackinac coats we would sell. We did not have enough $5.00 coats, and ran short of $2.00 coats, but we did have a lot of $2.75 coats and $3.50 coats on hand when we took stock the first of this week, but we do not want to have them the first of next week, and the only way we can be sure of getting rid of these coats is to mark them $1.50, $1.75, $2.00. There might be a few ladies in the other department who would be interested in outing flannel at 6c. If there are, and we have any left when they come in we would be glad to give them to them. Cash only always.

Cochran—Overton.

The marriage of Miss MARY E. COCHRAN to DR. JAMES BERTRAND OVERTON, of Jacksonville, Ill., on Thursday, Dec. 26, 1901, took place at the residence of Hon. J. W. Cochran, Ashland, Wis. The bride formerly resided in Emporium, where she is greatly respected. The following from the Ashland News will interest many old friends:

A trace of romance runs through the make up of each one of us and the faintest rumor of a wedding interests us immediately, doubly so when one of the contracting parties is a well known and tried friend, so I am going to tell you all about this beautiful wedding. The hour for the ceremony was four o'clock and none of us were tardy.

Entering the hall we noted the stair case solidly wreathed in holly and smilax while at a side table a heavy of young society buds fluttered about the punch bowl dispensing its contents to all who thirsted; upstairs the opera house orchestra played the music which makes us glad or sad as the mood may be.

Entering the front parlor we were welcomed by Mrs. W. G. Sanders and Mrs. E. J. Cochran. This room was in green and pink, smilax and roses plentifully interspersed with ribbon. The back parlor was done in green and white, the bay window being a perfect bridal bower of palms and white roses. The color scheme in the library was supplied by the magnificent Poinsetta, whose crimson flowers mingled with the great quantity of Alabama smilax gave the room a delightfully southern appearance. In the dining room a great bank of white roses with pink shaded candleabra decorated the table at which the bridal party should partake of lunch. At all the door ways hung portieres of smilax and roses looped gracefully back with ribbons, the whole forming a picture to be long remembered.

Four o'clock rang out the silver chimes of the great clock in the hall. The orchestra played softly the wedding march and the bridal procession came slowly down the stairs headed by the officiating clergyman.

Following him was Mrs. E. J. Cochran, matron of honor, attended by Mr. Percy Cochran, brother of the bride, who in his uniform gave a military touch to the picture. Then the bride leaning on the arm of her father. As she took her place by the side of the waiting groom a solemn hush fell over the scene, then the clergyman read in a most impressive manner the old but ever new Episcopal service, and all realized that it was no light matter for the father to give away the daughter, who has been so much to him, sending her away on untried paths. But the ceremony is over and all eagerly congratulate the happy couple.

The bride was simply charming in an exquisite gown of ivory satin, lavishly decorated with rose point lace and panne velvet, a billowy train, and over all the shimmering veil. She wore a beautiful pendant of sapphire surrounded by diamonds, gift of the groom. A shower of dozen of lilies of the valley completed a costume at once elegant and chaste.

The matron of honor, beautifully gowned in white silk and lace, carrying a huge bouquet of lilies of the valley and English violets, looked every inch her part.

The ceremony was performed by Dr. Smythe of DeLafield Military Academy, an old friend of both bride and groom. A number of his scholars reside in our city and were present in their uniforms.

Dr. Overton occupies the chair of biology in the University of Illinois, situated in Jacksonville, Ill., where they will make their home in a residence already prepared for them. Miss Cochran has for the last ten years made her home in Ashland and is one of our city's most popular young ladies. Her departure from our midst will cause a wide spread feeling of regret. Both rich and poor have shared in her thoughtful kindness. That which she has done here she will do elsewhere. Social circles into which she goes will receive in her a valuable addition and we bespeak for her a warm welcome in her new future residence.

A delicious lunch was served, the health of the couple drank in sparkling champagne, and amid showers of rice they have gone.

Now we look over the gifts numerous and costly for the most part but mingled with them are some which show that while the givers were not rich in this world's goods, their hearts beat none the less warmly for the one who was leaving. The gifts are too many to particularize extensively. That of the father being a magnificent chest of silver, a check for five thousand dollars and five bonds of one thousand each. An elegant hall clock from her uncle and cut glass, silver, pictures, and dozens of other beautiful articles, which anyone might envy betokened the esteem in which she is held.

Among the out of town guests were Dr. and Mrs. Smythe of DeLafield, Burton Nicholson of Chicago who was best man, Rev. Mr. White of Freeport, Ill., and Miss Rebecca Knight of Milwaukee.

Those receiving were Mrs. W. G. Sanders and Mr. E. J. Cochran. The ladies assisting were Mrs. Merrill, Mrs. Dunham and Mrs. Latimer. The decorations were done by Fleischman of Chicago.

Card of Thanks.

The undersigned take this method of returning their thanks to their neighbors and friends for the many acts of kindness and sympathy extended them during their late affliction.

MR. AND MRS. DOWNEY,
FRANK R. DOWNEY.

Religious.

There will be preaching services in the M. E. Church, at Sizerville, next Sunday at 3 o'clock, p. m.

Disastrous Fire.

Roulette was visited by a disastrous fire last Sunday, destroying the business part of the town, only one store remaining. Loss $30,000. The cause of the fire is supposed to have been caused by over pressure of gas.

Baptist Church Notes.

Preaching morning and evening by the pastor, Rev. W. A. Pugsley. Morning subject "Repentance," evening topic "A Man with one Creed." Bible school at the close of morning worship, Chas. E. Crandall superintendent. Y. P. S. C. E. 6 o'clock. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening 7:30. All welcome.

Eye Specialist.

Prof. W. H. Budine, the well known Eye Specialist, of Binghamton, N. Y., will be at R. H. Hirsch's jewelry store, Emporium, Pa., Jan. 10th and 11th, where he will test and examine the eyes free. All work guaranteed. Remember Prof. Budine guarantees to cure all cases of headache caused by weak eyes or astigmatism. New lenses ground to fit old frames.

Florida Weather.

The PRESS is in receipt of a postal from W. H. Cramer, who is spending the winter at DeLand, Fla., accompanied by his wife and daughter. He says "the weather is delightful here at present, the thermometer registering 73° to 81° in the shade—regular August weather. We are all quite well, but caught a cold on our way down."

Election of Post Officers.

At the last meeting of Lieut. D. W. Taggart Post, No. 241, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Commander, Joshua Bair; Senior Vice Commander, E. C. Davey; Sergeant, George W. Barker; Chaplain, M. M. Larrabee; Quartermaster, J. O. Brookbank; Officer of the Day, A. O. Swartwood; Officer of the Guard, Dan'l Downey.

Wesleyan Methodist.

The third quarterly meeting of the Wesleyan Methodist church, Cameron circuit, will be held, D. V., next Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 11th, 12th, 1902, at the church in Rich Valley. Services as follows: Saturday, 2:30 and 7:00 p. m. Love-feast Sunday morning at 9:30, followed by preaching and the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. Evening service, at 7:30 p. m. All are cordially invited.

W. READETT, Pastor.

Election of Officers.

W. C. No. 136, P. O. S. of A. of Sinnamahoning, Pa., held their annual election, Saturday evening, Dec. 28th, 1901 and the following officers were elected: P. Pres., N. H. Drum; Pres., C. E. Shafer; V. Pres., J. W. Wykoff; M. of F. C., A. B. Beldin; Recording Sec'y, Geo. D. Mead; F. S., J. H. Drum; Treas., J. R. Batcheider; Con., J. H. Swartz; Inspector, W. J. Mead; Guard, A. E. Woster; Trustees, H. M. Fry, H. B. Lightner, J. L. Logue; Chaplain, G. L. Piper; Ass't. Sec'y., H. M. Fry. Camp No. 136, is the largest Camp in this district, with a membership of 94.

The Big-Hearted Woodsmen.

The "Crew" from Johnston's Five Mile shingle mill, at North Creek, had a fine surprise awaiting Rev. and Mrs. Readett last Sunday morning, when they went to fill their regular appointment. It was no less than a nice purse raised among them as a Christmas present for the dominie and his wife. To add to the pleasure of the gift they had turned out, rank and file, to the morning service, making a nice addition to the regular congregation.

Such tokens of good will and appreciation go a great way toward cheering and encouraging any pastor in his labor of love.

New Year's Reception.

The New Year's reception in the parlors of the First Methodist Episcopal church New Year's eve was a pleasing event in the social life of that denomination. Fully two hundred persons were present, and heartily entered into the glad spirit of the hour. The following program of music was pleasingly rendered: Piano solo Miss Nellie Lingle, vocal solo Miss Grace Lloyd, vocal duet Misses Lillian Hellman and Lena Healy, piano duet Misses Eva and Iva Lest, violin solo Miss Grace Walker vocal solo Mrs. Grant Walker-Egbert. At 10 o'clock a light lunch of coffee, sandwiches and cake was served and the evening concluded with a general interchange of greetings for a happy, peaceful and prosperous New Year.

Mortality Report for 1901.

Total number of deaths in Emporium borough during the year 1901, 32, from the following causes: Angina Pectoris, 1; Apoplexy, 2; Asphyxiation, 1; Bright's Disease, 1; Cancer, 1; Cerebral Meningitis, 1; Cholera Infantum, 1; Epilepsy, 1; Heart failure, 2; Inanition, 1; Killed by cars, 3; Malignant Ulcer, 1; Old Age, 4; Paralysis, 3; Pneumonia, 6; Purpura Haemorrhagica, 1; Suicide, 1; Typhoid Fever, 1. The death rate seems unusually large, but some of them were people who were only temporary residents, four were accidental and four old age.

ALBRA W. BAKER,
Jan. 3, 1902. Health Officer.

Hurteau-Wheeler.

MISS EDITH B. HURTEAU, of this place, and MR. JOSEPH L. WHEELER, formerly of Emporium but now residing at Rural Valley, Indiana county, where he is engaged in business, were quietly married at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. E. M. Hurteau, Dec. 26th, by Rev. Mr. J. M. Robertson, Rector of Emmanuel Episcopal church, only the family and a few intimate friends being in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler departed on the early train for the north on a short trip, taking up their residence at Rural Valley. Both have many warm friends in Emporium who wish them well. The bride has resided in Emporium all her life and her happy disposition made her of friends. Mr. Wheeler honorable and respected, kind hearted and devoted we believe will make a model husband. It is a happily mated match and the PRESS extends its best wishes.

Leg Broken.

Last Tuesday Robt. Willetts, while attempting to handle an iron acid tank at Climax Works had the misfortune to have it fall on him, breaking and severely crushing his left leg. He was taken to his residence on Cherry street and Dr. Smith called. He is doing as well as could be expected.

County Treasurer Yothers.

County Treasurer Walter Yothers assumed charge of the office last Monday, receiving the congratulations of all visitors to the Hill. He will give the office his personal attention.

Paint for Looks.

Use Devoe lead and zinc, and don't wait for your paint to wear out. Paint for looks. Devoe.

BRIEF MENTION.

The Franklin House, St. Marys, was very seriously damaged by fire, Dec. 28. Small pox scares are flying in every town. Emporium has escaped the dreaded disease thus far.

Fifteen passengers were killed and thirty injured by collision in New York city Park Avenue tunnel, yesterday. State College Thespians will visit Emporium, Feb. 8th, 1902. The troupe numbers twenty-one. Particulars later.

The CAMERON COUNTY PRESS came to hand last week in the form of a sixteen page paper, which is a credit to the publisher, as well as to the town it represents.—Austin Republican.

The Emporium PRESS distributed sixty-eight turkeys to the widows of Emporium for their Christmas dinner. The treat was highly appreciated by the ladies of that place. It was a commendable act for the PRESS.—Austin Republican.

The residence of J. Henry Cochran, Williamsport, was entered by burglars on New Year's while the family and invited guests were eating dinner. Several thousand dollars worth of diamonds and jewels were taken.

Some changes in railroad clerkships were announced last week. H. L. Baird, formerly extra agent on Middle division, gets a permanent agency at Wilcox; James A. Dowling of the Renovo freight office, succeeds Mr. Baird as extra agent, Thos. McCann of Emporium succeeds Will McCoy as baggage agent, the latter having been promoted to fill Mr. Dowling's vacancy as clerk in the freight office.—Renovo Record.

Last evening a party of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Kackenmeister, it being the seventh anniversary of their marriage. The party was gotten up as a surprise to "Jack", but we have been unable to learn whether he was very much surprised, as his eyes are always found open for things in the line of surprises. Those who were present report a fine supper and pleasant time generally, indulged in until a late hour, after which they all departed for their homes.

Sixty-eight turkeys were distributed to the widows of Emporium, says the PRESS, whose bountiful benevolence furnished the birds. It is inferred that there are sixty-eight live widows in Emporium borough, which does not speak well for the old bachelors of that town who are shirking a plain duty in defiance of the scriptural injunction and with selfish indifference to the unequal distribution of the burden of taxation for turkeys.—Potter Journal.

What's the use of buying guns to hunt with? When you find a bear send for B. J. Collins and his club. Last Friday a week he encountered a she bear and two cubs and killed one of the cubs, as stated in our last issue. Last Wednesday he treed the other cub and then knocked it off the tree and the dog held it till he came down and finished it with his club. They have since been looking for the old bear and probably before another paper is issued they will have made it bite the dust. It's the bare truth we're telling you.—Driftwood Gazette.

Barely Bro's. the extensive Sinnamahoning lumber manufacturers, have the thanks of the PRESS for a neat 1902 calendar.

John Collins, of Olean, N. Y., and Miss Anna Sunderlin, of Sizerville, Pa., were united in the holy bonds matrimony at the Baptist parsonage, West Fourth street, Dec. 24th, 1901, by the pastor, W. A. Pugsley.

Our new townsman, J. L. Wheeler, went to Emporium last Wednesday, and on Thursday was married to Miss Edith Hurteau, of that place, by Rev. Robertson of the Episcopal church. The happy couple will go to housekeeping at once in the E. Z. Schreengost house on Main street. We wish them a prosperous journey through life.—Rural Valley, Pa., Advance.

New P. O. at Sinnamahoning.

Chas. A. Council has been appointed postmaster at Sinnamahoning, vice Chas. W. Beldin, deceased. Mr. Council is an exemplary young gentleman and no doubt will make an efficient official. He was very generally endorsed for the position by the patrons of the office.

Mr. Joseph Kaye has been quite ill for several days, since his return from Mexico, but is improving under Dr. Smith's care. He expects to be out today or tomorrow.

We regret to learn that Theo. Newton's little child is in a precarious condition and is under Dr. Bardwell's careful attention.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

GALVIN.

MRS. MARY GALVIN, aged 73 years, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. O. J. Nangle, on Sixth street, Dec. 28th, 1901, of pneumonia. Interment was made at her former home, Belfast, N. Y., Dec. 31st. The aged lady was sick but a few days.

The remains were prepared for burial by funeral director B. Egan, and shipped to Belfast, N. Y.

PELLAM.

LEMUEL PELLAM, died at Glen Hazel, of pneumonia, last Monday. His remains were brought to West Creek yesterday for burial, the funeral being held at Howard Siding school house, Rev. Mulliner officiating. Deceased leaves a wife and three children. Funeral director LaBar had charge.

KREITNER.

JACOB W. KREITNER, aged 19 years, died of pneumonia at Sizerville, Dec. 29th. Undertaker LaBar prepared the remains and the funeral was held from the home of the parents at Gardeau, Dec. 31st.

ROSSMAN.

MRS. ROSSMAN, aged 71, died of cancer at Shippen, Dec. 29th. Her remains were prepared for burial and shipped to Blossom, N. Y., by director LaBar.

First Methodist Episcopal Church. Interesting revival services are being held nightly in this church. The congregations are large and much good is apparently resulting. The Holy Communion will be administered next Sunday. Pastor's Sunday evening subject, "The Moral Harvest."

Handsome Monument.

M. A. Colvin, of Ridgway, was in Emporium yesterday and completed the erection of a handsome Quincy granite monument to the memory of the late J. W. Brown, whose remains were brought to this place a few days ago from Elk county and placed in Newton Cemetery, on the plot recently secured, north of Dr. S. S. Smith's mausoleum. It is pronounced a very creditable piece of work.

Notice to Gas Consumers.

Beginning with February there will positively be no discount allowed on any bills after the 10th of the month on which they fall due. The office hours will be from 8 to 11:30; 1 to 5:30. The office will not be open evenings, except on the 10th of each month, when it will be open from 7 to 9. When bills are not paid by the 15th of each month the gas will be shut off.

46-4 ST. MARYS GAS CO.

A Good Smoke.

Ye editor acknowledges the receipt of a Xmas present, in the shape of a box of those popular cigars manufactured by Buckingham Brothers, Baltimore. Our friend H. E. Buckingham is fully conversant with our weakness for a good cigar. No better cigar comes to town than the Buckingham. Try them.

Great Stories by Great Authors.

A remarkable year of fiction, promised the readers of the Philadelphia Press during 1902. Famous writers of America and Europe will contribute to it each Sunday. The series begins next Sunday, January 5th, with a stirring story of the Philippines, by General Charles King. It is called "A Conquering Corps Badge." This will be followed by clever short stories by Justin Huntly McCarthy, author of "If I Were King," Sir Walter Besant, J. M. Barrie, author of "The Little Minister," John Strange Winter, author of "Boote's Baby," W. E. Norris, Frank T. Bullen, the great writer of sensations, Rev. S. Baring Gould, author of "The Crook of Gold," Amelia E. Barr, Morley Roberts, Fergus Hume, author of "The Lady from Nowhere," David Christie Murray, author of "A Rogue's Conscience," H. B. Marriott Watson, author of "The Princess Xenia," Adeline Sergeant, John K. Leys and others equally well known. This great series begins next Sunday. Be sure to order next Sunday's Press of your newsdealer in time.

Best.
