WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From an Occasional Correspondent.)
Editor Press:—
Session and Soiree, caucus and levee, negotiations and flirtations pass and intermingle in the national capital this season with such kaleidoscopic rapidity as to almost bewilder the on-looker and the pen of a Balzac or a Thackeray would be needed to adequately portray the scenes which surround the legislation of a nation of over eighty million people upon which the sun never sets.

Congress is once more in session. Refreshed by the holiday recess seasoned senators and some somewhat fresh representatives have converted the halls of the Capitol into a human beehive. Astute lobbyists and alert correspondents through the galleries and committee rooms. Reciprocity and tariff, canals and civil service, pensions and irrigation are discussed and argued with earnestness or nonchalance as they are demanded or disregarded by each legislator's constituents, but out of chaos will come order and legislation pregnant with beneficial results to a great people will have been enacted, private feuds will have been repressed and the knowledge of work well done will afford comfort and satisfaction to the legislators who, after having worked or played unceasingly for months, will flee from the summer heat of Washington next June or July.

In the meantime the record of the Fifty-Seventh Congress will be watched with keenest interest by millions of people. Upon its decisions rests the welfare of thousands of citizens, not alone in this country but in Porto Rico and the Philippines, in Hawaii and Samoa and even in little Guam, while Cuba, the young sister republic so lately born into the world, notes with intense anxiety the deliberations of that body upon whose statesmanship her future prosperity so largely depends.

Before the holiday recess was over seven thousand bills had been presented in the Senate and House, more than the fifty per cent of the total number introduced during the Fifty-Seventh Congress. Hour after hour Senator Frye and General Henderson occupy the chairs of Senate and House and refer bills and resolutions to their proper committees. To the uninitiated the halls of Congress frequently present scenes of singular inactivity and the question is often asked, how can Congress accomplish so much when its sessions are so short and so little attention seems to be paid to the proceedings by the members? But it is not on the open floor that bills are framed and legislation enacted. There they are formally passed only after they have been determined upon 'in committee.' But glance into the committee rooms after the session has adjourned. There is no inactivity there. Intense earnestness characterizes the informal debates which are to decide the fate of the favorite measure of the Western members, the pet bill of the representatives of the New England States, the cherished scheme of the Southern delegation. There red tape is abandoned, sophistry is dropped and the member from Pedunk frankly admits the senselessness of the bill he champions but, he adds, "My constituents demand it. It must pass or I will not be returned," for, as some wit has put it, "a Congressman no sooner gets to Washington than he must labor to get back"—secure his reelection. It is to the committee rooms that the experienced correspondent gets for news.

The days of biting repartee and cruel invective in the Congress of the United States have passed. No longer will a venerable Southern Senator be heard to characterize the oration of his Northern colleague as "the incarnation of malice, mendacity and cowardice," as one once described a speech of Sumner's in the days before the war, but sharp, quiet wit is still displayed in House and Senate and this Congress promises to contribute its quota of brilliant oratory and sparkling repartee.

In another chamber of the Capitol the majesty of the law is portrayed by the impressive dignity of the learned and distinguished men who constitute the Supreme Court. Here come the ablest jurists of the country to plead their client's causes before a bench which is the stronghold of the constitution, its interpreter and its defense. In this room oratory gives place to logic, brilliant panegyric and repartee and displaced by stern facts and keen deductions, and here, too, the welfare of the people is at stake, for this court is the nation's great bulwark against injustice and anarchy.

Remarkable Cure of Croup. A Little Boy's Life Saved.
I have a few words to say regarding Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I saved my little boy's life and I feel that I cannot praise it enough. I bought a bottle of it from A. E. Steere of Goodwin, S. D., and when I got home with it the poor baby could hardly breathe. I gave the medicine as directed every ten minutes until he "threw up" and then I thought sure he was going to choke to death. We had to pull the phlegm out of his mouth in great long strings. I am positive that if I had not got that bottle of cough medicine, my boy would not be on earth to-day.—Joel Demont, Inwood, Iowa. For sale by L. Taggart.

Not to know love is not to live.
Profitable Investment.
"I was troubled for about seven years with my stomach and in bed half my time," says E. Demick, Somerville, Ind. "I spent about $1,000 and never could get anything to help me until I tried Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I have taken a few bottles and am entirely well." You don't live by what you eat, but by what you digest and assimilate. If your stomach doesn't digest your food you are really starving. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does the stomach's work by digesting the food. You don't have to diet. Eat all you want. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cures all stomach troubles. R. C. Dodson.

'Tis better to have loved and lost, than never to have loved at all.
"Some time ago my daughter caught a severe cold. She complained of pains in her chest and a bad cough. I gave her Chamberlain's Cough Remedy according to directions and in two days she was well and able to go to school. I have used this remedy in my family for the past seven years and have never known it to fail," says James Prendergast, merchant, Annato Bay, Jamaica, West India Islands. The pains in the chest indicated an approaching attack of pneumonia, which in this instance was undoubtedly warded off by Chamberlain's cough Remedy. It counteracts any tendency of a cold toward pneumonia. For sale by L. Taggart.

There's nothing half so sweet in life as love's young dream.
Don't Live Together.
Constipation and health never go together. DeWitt's Little Early Risers promote easy action of the bowels without distress. "I have been troubled with costiveness nine years," says J. O. Greene, Depauw, Ind. "I have tried many remedies but Little Early Risers give best results." R. C. Dodson.

A heart without love is a violin without strings.
Finds Way To Live Long.
The startling announcement of a Discovery that will surely lengthen life is made by editor O. H. Downey, of Churubusco, Ind. "I wish to state," he writes, "that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is the most infallible remedy that I have ever known for Coughs, Colds and Grip. It's invaluable to people with weak lungs. Having this wonderful medicine no one need dread Pneumonia or Consumption. Its relief is instant and cure certain." L. Taggart guarantee every 50c and $1.00 bottle, and give trial bottles free.

Life is a flower of which love is the honey.
Child Worth Millions.
"My child is worth millions to me," says Mrs. Mary Bird of Harrisburg, Pa. "yet I would have lost her by croup had I not purchased a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure." One Minute Cough Cure is sure cure for coughs, croup and throat and lung troubles. An absolutely safe cough cure which acts immediately. The youngest child can take it with entire safety. The little ones like the taste and remember how often it helped them. Every family should have a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure handy. At this season especially it may be needed suddenly. R. C. Dodson.

All mankind love a lover.
A Cure for Lumbago.
W. C. Williamson, of Amherst, Va., says: "For more than a year I suffered from lumbago. I finally tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it gave me entire relief which all other remedies had failed to do." Sold by L. Taggart.

A Life at Stake.
If you but knew the splendid spirit of Foley's Honey and Tar you would never be without it. A dose or two will prevent an attack of pneumonia or la grippe. It may save your life. L. Taggart.

In Bed Four Weeks With La Grippe.
We have received the following letter from Mr. Rey Kemp, of Angola, Ind. "I was in bed four weeks with la grippe and I tried many remedies and spent considerable for treatment with physicians, but I received no relief until I tried Foley's Honey and Tar. Two small bottles of this medicine cured me and I now use it exclusively in my family." Take no substitutes. L. Taggart.

She loves him best who last goes out the gate.
The many friends of G. H. Hausan, Engineer, L. E. & W. R. R., at present living in Lima, O., will be pleased to know of his recovery from threatened kidney disease. He writes: "I was cured by using Foley's Kidney Cure, which I recommend to all, especially trainmen who are usually similarly afflicted." L. Taggart.
