Elkin Is the Choice of the Republicans

"Who favors the nomination of Attorney General Elkin for Governor of Pennsylvania ?" asks the Indiana Progress, and it answers, "the Stalwart Republicans !" And then: "Who is opposing the nomination of Attorney General Elkin for Governor?" and its answer is, "the Insurgents."

Not a single man have they suggested. Not an attempt has been made by them to produce a candidate for the people to pass upon. This is a Republican State, and it is expected that while Republicans may differ concerning a nomination and may contest with each other Emporium, Pa.

Emporium, Pa. Dear Sir: No man has more need of a quick and open mind for good new things than a grocery man. The whole town looks to him for advice to buy this, and not to buy that, among 1001 contrivances. It's his business to know what is good, to find out quick what is better, to drop the good, and sell his neighbors the better. Our paint is not new—we are our-selves 145 years old—it is new to some. Old-fashion painter's paint, lead and ol, is not good any longer-wears out in three years. Ours lasts six years, seven years, eight years, ten years, fifteen-in favorable conditions. Devoe lead and zine is the paint. Yours truly, F. W. DEVOE & CO.

even bitterly before conventions, the time for fighting each other expires with the choice of the majority.

But that is not the way of the Insurgents. They are no longer Republicans. That is why they are not in the field. They are mere party wreckers, and they join with the Guffeys and the Gordons and the like in attempts to overthrow the Republican party. And could they succeed in doing so, what would be the result? Just as in Philadelphia the Union party became a shelter for ambitious or disabled politicians and an aid to a few ambitious ones, so would the Insurgents be sold out in the State and left stranded.

There is not the slightest use in bothering with the Insurgents for a minute. A party-wrecker will be hours. a party-wrecker no matter what the Republican majority desires. There is but one course for the Republiean party in Pennsylvania to pursue, and that is to go right along attending to its own business and permitting the Republican voters at the primaries to choose delegates to the Gubernatorial convention.

When they have made their choice it will be ratified by the voters in November.

I have had no more trouble and when one can go to eating mince pie, cheese, candy and nuts after when a time, their direction must be such a time, their digestion must be pretty good. A Night Alarm.

Worse than an alarm of fire at night is the brassy cough of croup which sounds like the children's death kuell and it means death unless something is done quickly. Foley's Honey and Tar never fails to give instant relief and quickly eures the worst forms of croup. Mrs. P. L. Cordier, of Mannington, Ky., writes: My three year old girl had a severe case of croup; the doctor said she could not live. I got a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar, the first dose gave quick relief and saved her life." Refuse substitutes. L. Taggart.

She was very low and I lost all hope, when a friend suggested trying Foley's Honey and Tar, which I did; and thanks be to this remedy it saved her life. She is stronger and enjoys better health than she has ever known in ten years. We shall never be without Foley's Honey and 'Tar and would ask those afflicted to try it." L. Taggart.
