The Last Heard Of It.

"My little boy took the croup one night and soon grew so bad you could hear him breathe all over the house," says F. D. Reynolds, Mansfield, O. "We feared he would die, but a few doses of One Minute Cough Cure quickly relieved him and he went to sleep. That's the last we heard of the croup. Now isn't a cough cure like that valuable?" One Minute Cough Cure is absolutely safe and acts immediately. For coughs, colds, croup, grip, bronchitis and all other throat and lung troubles it is a certain cure, very pleasant to take. The little ones like it. R. C. Dodson.

Letter to J. D. Swope.

Emporium, Pa. Dear Sir: The usual pain, lead and oil, is made more durable by the addition of zinc; as the more intelligent painters know.

Lead and oil, they say, lasts three years. Add zinc, and lasts three years with a margin, they say; but painters generally advise to paint once in three years.

Devote lead and zinc is nothing but lead zinc color dryer and oil; but it lasts about twice as long as painters reckon.

Mr. Knox, an undertaker for fifty years at Brewster, N. Y. Painted Devoe nine years ago. The paint is said to be in about as good condition as when it was first put on.

Lead and oil don't last nine years. Yours truly, F. W. DEVOE & Co.

Sinnamahoning Liars' Club.

The club held a very interesting session, Saturday night in Metzger's chicken coop with Harry Ward in the chair. Pap Blodgett's report of his visit to Emporium was received with cheers. The club was glad to hear that John Hogan and Murphy were upset in the second round. Dalrymple hid in Murphy's ice house; Fred Hill had business in other parts of the town and Seger threw up the sponge without a contest.

W. H. Michael's reported that he had three barrels of rattlesnake oil, of fine quality, secured from the snakes A. W. Mason killed at Sterling Run, of recent date.

O. L. Bailey appeared with a sealed quart and a good feeling prevailed while it lasted.

One of our members ran for judge of election and would have been defeated, but Frank Jordan, another, cast the last ballot, and prevented a tie.

Han-comie tried to swipe a six pound rooster. He was fined six cents for the attempt, as the club don't allow its members to confiscate any fowls larger than four pounds.

Our quarters were so small that we had to adjourn until the Fourth of July when we will be prepared to meet all comers. Mason's bean story included. FIDE.
