A TIMELY WARNING.

David B. Hill's Advice to the Democrats Contains Much That is Significant.

There were some plain, incontrovertible facts stated in St. Clair McKelway's letter to the Manhattan club, which Mr. Hill had completely ignored when he prepared his plan for reconstructing the democracy...

Mr. McKelway has his eyes open to conditions. He has learned wisdom from the sad experience of his party's past. He knows that the democratic party cannot ever hope to win success by resurrecting issues that are dead...

Mr. McKelway accepts the fact that the people are committed to the gold standard, and to expansion, that they are determined that free capital as well as free labor shall have its rights...

INSINCERITY OF DEMOCRATS.

Conviction of the Party Before the American People by Its Utter Unreliability.

The democratic members of the United States senate have been extremely loud and constant in their professions of benevolent intentions toward the Filipinos. They have insisted that the administration and the republican party have been oppressing the Filipinos...

A few days ago the opportunity was presented to the indignant democratic senators to prove their benevolence to the Filipinos. A bill was to be voted on to encourage Philippine industry by remitting 25 per cent. of our tariff on island products...

How then did the democratic senators live up to their professions of sympathy and benevolence and make their deeds square with their words?

HIS FIRST VETO.

President Roosevelt Sends Message to the Senate.

Senate Had Voted to Remove the Charge of Desertion from a Man's War Record -- President Says Bill is Unjust to Men Who Were Faithful to Duty.

Washington, March 12.—President Roosevelt on Tuesday sent his first veto message to congress. It was directed to the senate and the bill vetoed was one removing the charge of desertion from the naval record of John Glass...

"There can be no graver crime than the crime of desertion from the army or navy, especially during war; it is then high treason to the nation and is justly punishable by death. No man should be relieved from such a crime, especially when nearly 40 years have passed since it occurred...

"In any event it is incomprehensible to me that he should have made effective effort to get back into the navy. He had served but little more than a month when he deserted, and the war lasted for over a year afterwards, yet he made no effort whatever to get back into the war. Under such circumstances it seems to me that to remove the charge of desertion from the navy and give him an honorable discharge would be to falsify the records and do an injustice to his gallant comrades who fought the war to a finish...

After the message had been delivered Senator Gallinger, from the committee on naval affairs, read the report of the committee on which the senate acted. From that statement it appeared that Glass enlisted in January, 1864, when only 16 years of age, and that, having witnessed an act which compromised the second officer of the ship, he was taken ashore in March of that year by that officer and told not to report again for duty...

THE SEALERS' STRIKE.

It is Ended by Giving Them an Advance in Wages.

St. John's, N. F., March 12.—The sealers' strike here is ended and the sealing steamers have sailed for the ice floes. The men Tuesday afternoon refused the owners' offer of $3.50 for seals, besides the abolition of all berth charges...

As a result of this refusal, public opinion strongly condemned the men, the concessions accorded by the owners being regarded as liberal. Some of the crews then withdrew from the owners' terms. The police afforded these men protection and enabled the owners and crews to reach the ships in spite of the threatening overtures of the strikers...

The aggressive strikers boarded these vessels and drove the men ashore, but they could not keep pace with the defections. Finally the committee of the strikers, seeing that the situation was getting beyond their control, decided to accept the owners' terms and ordered the strike off. The committee directed all the men to join their ships and within two hours the ships had crews and were sailing to sea...

The terms of the settlement are that the men shall get $3.50, as against $3.25 last year, per hundred weight for seals; they also get free berths, as against the former charge of $3.

A CYCLONE IN TEXAS.

Much Property Destroyed and Two People Fatally Injured.

Dallas, Tex., March 12.—A cyclone yesterday swept through the southern suburbs of Dallas and passed on toward the northeast, leveling fences and destroying small farm buildings in its path.

At De Soto, 15 miles from Dallas, three dwelling houses and two stores, including the post office, were demolished. One of the dwelling houses destroyed was that of J. M. Johnson. His 4-year-old daughter was so badly injured that she died.

Three miles east of Dallas, the dwelling house of T. D. Reagan was wrecked. The family escaped without injury. In Queen City, the extreme southern suburb of Dallas, six dwelling houses were blown to pieces by the wind. Mrs. George Bray received fatal injuries. Mr. Bray and children were seriously injured. C. D. Bourne, wife and child, and Albert Ewing and family were away from home. Their house was literally torn to pieces, and a negro servant was badly hurt. A score or more of other houses were badly damaged, but not wrecked. The property loss in Dallas county will reach at least $100,000.

A Municipal Ownership Move.

Detroit, March 12.—The common council last night granted the Co-operative Telephone Co. recently organized here in opposition to the Bell Co., a franchise to do business, establishing the maximum rate at $24 for residence and $48 for business phones. The ordinance contains a provision that the company must sell its plant to the city when the city obtains the right to operate a municipal telephone exchange. The council also instructed the mayor to appoint a commission to install a municipal gas plant.

HOW TO BE BEAUTIFUL.

Aunt Democracy Tries Some New Cosmetics That Have Been Highly Recommended.

with power, while the party that would keep from them the things mentioned which they desire will be relegated to obscurity.

And Mr. Hill wants the party to declare for bimetalism, against expansion, against the right of capital to engage in large industrial enterprises! He wants it to take up again the tinkering with the tariff that was responsible for the last period of commercial and industrial depression through which the country passed.

Mr. Hill has shown himself to be a man as dangerous to the country's interests as Mr. Bryan was in 1896 and again in 1900. The rumor that Mr. Bryan favors his candidacy in 1904 is denied, but it would not have been strange, if true, if we supposed that Mr. Bryan himself had renounced his ambition. Mr. Hill has shown himself to be a man after Mr. Bryan's own heart.

It is well that the people of the United States have received timely warning. They will have ample time to prepare themselves to resist the renewed attack upon their prosperity which probable leaders of the democracy are contemplating.

CURRENT COMMENT.

President Roosevelt's message and his statement on the Schley controversy are a fresh confirmation of his native force as a writer. — St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

In view of the fact that the output of gold has increased 145 per cent. during the last decade, was not the demand for 16 to 1 free and unlimited as absurd as can be imagined? — Indianapolis Journal.

David B. Hill wants the democratic party in 1904 to make a general assault on the Dingley tariff the paramount issue. A declaration of war on established prosperity would be just about as sensible. — St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The American people have never turned back from the point where once they have planted their feet, and no one believes that they will ever do it at the behest of a party that has been systematically and consecutively wrong for at least the last 40 years. — Albany Journal.

Did they vote for the Foraker amendment and thus relieve the Filipinos of a large share of the "arbitrary taxation" which they have so vigorously condemned? Only six of them proved their sincerity by so voting. Eighteen of them voted the other way.

Among those 18 democrats were Messrs. Bailey, Culberson, Dubois, Money, Patterson, Rawlins, Teller and Vest, all most ardent critics of the republican policy toward the islands, and all constantly bubbling over with sympathy for the Filipinos. If only these eight democrats had voted as they talked the Foraker amendment would have been adopted. The Filipinos would have been relieved of one-half of the taxes now imposed on their products at our custom houses. But these eight gentlemen would not have it.

In the United States senate, as elsewhere, men must be judged not by their words, but by their deeds. By their votes on the Foraker amendment 18 of the 24 democrats present ate their words and repudiated their party's declaration of policy. Their words professed friendship and benevolence towards the Filipinos. Their deeds were those of injury and hostility.

By its deeds is the democratic party convicted before the American people of utter insincerity.

One of the men at whom the Kentucky Wheeler flings his abuse is Capt. Clark, of the Oregon, the prudent, intelligent and watchful officer who brought that ship 12,000 miles and added her to the fleet about Cuba in a condition to take a prominent part in the victory at Santiago. The Oregon always had fires under her boilers, and, though not regarded as a speedy ship, the speed she developed at Santiago enabled her to take a prominent part in the fight, due to the fact that by not using boilers for condensation scale was kept from them, which made it possible to get under way promptly and to get the best results from her boilers. The president, in designating him for the coronation service, has recognized an capable and deserving officer. — Indianapolis Journal.

Senator Hanna scarcely ever speaks nowadays outside of the senate without emphasizing his earnest desire to bring about a better understanding between capital and labor. It may be added that no other man of the time has done more in this direction than he. — Indianapolis Journal.
