A glass of water and a sponge or brush act like a box of paints on the wonderful "Watergraphs," which will appear in next Sunday's Philadelphia Press. It's the cleverest novelty of the year. The pictures are printed apparently in black ink. You touch them with water, and in a second they become beautiful water color paintings. No skill is needed. Children can do it as well as grown folks. These "Watergraphs" are in addition to the mysterious magic pictures, which you rub over a blank space with a coin and a picture appears.

The great puzzle-man, Sam Loyd, is now on The Sunday Press staff of entertainers. He has a page each Sunday that will set you thinking and amuse you, too. Order next Sunday's Philadelphia Press of your newsdealer in advance. Then you'll be sure to get it.

President Roosevelt's Mother.

The mother of a President of the United States is always an object of special interest and regard on the part of the people. But in all that has been written about Mr. Roosevelt since he became Chief Executive last September there has been little or no mention of his mother. On this account, and because she was a remarkably fine and lovely woman, much interest attaches to an article on "The President's Mother" which will appear in The Ladies' Home Journal in the near future. It will be the first story of her life yet told, and will be one of a series of articles, the first of which is published in the current number of The Journal, on the President and his family. Miss Alice Roosevelt is the subject of this. Next month "The Outdoor President" will be told of, and later the President's wife and children will be portrayed.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

CARSON.

Died at St. Marys, Pa., March 19th, 1902, Mary, wife of Mr. William Carson, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James O. Jordan, Mason Hill, aged about 35 years.

She fell asleep in Jesus after suffering about eight months with that dreadful disease, consumption. For many years past she has been a member of the M. E. Church and a firm believer in Christ. She was also a member of the W. C. T. U. and Ladies Aid Society at St. Marys, of which a fine floral wreath was presented by both societies in token of love and respect. She remained conscious almost to the end and chose the minister to preach her funeral discourse, place of interment, etc., gave orders concerning her children, and calling her parents, husband and four children to her bed side she bid them an affectionate farewell; warned them to meet her on the shores of everlasting deliverance—where sickness, sorrow, pain and death shall be "felt and feared no more." She then passed away, leaving us to mourn our loss. But we do it not as "those without hope" for we are confident that our loss is her eternal gain. The funeral took place on Friday afternoon at two o'clock, in the Mason Hill school house, amid the scenes of her childhood days, surrounded by a large circle of grief stricken relatives and friends. Rev. Faus, of Sinnemahoning, an intimate friend of the family, officiated at the funeral, and spoke words of wisdom and consolation to the grief stricken family. His Text was, "To live is Christ, and to die is gain." Interment was made in the Mason Hill cemetery.

A MEMORIAL. Oh come, ye blessed of My Father, The purchase of my dying love, Receive the crowns of life and glory, Which are laid up for you above.

For you, dear soul, who have continued With me, and my temptation bore, I have prepared a glorious kingdom, Come dwell with me for evermore.

Near flowing streams of living water There is no pain, nor death to fear; No sorrow, sighing, tears, nor weeping, Shall ever have admittance there.

Mason Hill, Pa., March 25, 1902. C. J. M.
