Col. Andrews Indorsed.

It is common to see men about the Capitol wearing buttons in the lapels of their coats bearing the features of Col. W. R. Andrews, clerk of the Senate Committee on Immigration. A big box of these buttons has been received here from Pennsylvania. They were sent by Col. Andrews' friends, who have named him as their candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania. He has received the indorsement of various political organizations of his State, and many Republican newspapers have indorsed his candidacy. He is thoroughly familiar with Pennsylvania politics, is a man of wide experience and great ability and has an unusually large amount of popularity. He came here when Senator Penrose entered the Senate. Col. Andrews served with distinction throughout the Civil War, and many of the Grand Army posts of his State are supporting his candidacy .- Washington Star.

Everyone Is at Sea.

Harrisburg Telegraph, Monday. The center of political agitation in Pennsylvania has shifted. It is now in Harrisburg, and the principal actor is on the stage, occupying the center. Last night Attorney General Elkin arrived here from Philadelphia, fresh from the agitation that has caused so much excitement, and he announced that he is in the fight for the Republican nomination for Governor, and, he added, emphatically: "I expect to win just as certain as I am here.' There are others who think that in time Mr. Elkin will think otherwise, but at present he has all of the air of a man who expects to win, and all of the confidence of a fighter who is conscious of his power and skill in matters political in Pennsylvania. Mr. Elkin had heard of the news that ex-Senator Cameron will likely be the man supported by Senator Quay, but he Yardley who is regarded as the made no comments, except to say that he would not get out of the contest for any man, and that on convention day, if he goes down to defeat, it will be with colors flying; "but I am not going to be defeat-ed," said Mr. Elkin. He is in receipt of hundreds of telegrams from all over the State advising him to stay in the fight, and of these twenty-five have been made public. They are from all parts of Pennsylvania and are of a singular unanimity in advising him to remain in the field, and not to quit the contest. It is this which has bolstered up Mr. Elkin's nerve and caused his friends to take heart. Superintendent T. Larry Eyre, who had intended to go to Charles-ton tomorrow with the Governor and party to observe Pennsylvania Day, has sent word that he will not go as he expects to remain home and take off his coat for Mr. Elkin. and that he expects to be on the winning side when the convention is held. Senator Quay's return to Wash-ington was very quiet, and up to last night he had not conferred with anybody on the situation. He was called upon yesterday by a delegation of-Erie and Warren people who asked his assistance in making W. R. Andrews the candidate for Governor, but made no promises. It is well known that Senator Quay is for ex-Senator Cameron first, and that he has no second choice at present should the Harrisburg stateman decline to be a candidate. There was a rumor in Harrisburg on Saturday night that the real cause of Mr. Elkin's being asked to withdraw was the fact that the national ad-ministration was afraid that with him on the ticket a number of Republican candidates for Congress in close districts might not be elected, and the majority in Congress be made so close as to jeopardise a number of matters of legislation that the administration particularly wants to complete before the next national election. Mr. Elkin's friends scouted this, and insisted that with him on the ticket the members of Congress who are now timid would be certain of election, and that there was really no danger. It comes from Pittsburg that George Von Bonhorst, a friend of the late Senator Magee, has been made the party leader in Allegheny county, and that he will see that the Allegheny delegation will not support Mr. Elkin, but will give their aid to the candidate named by Senator Quay. This would mean a solid delegation from Allegheny and Philadelphia counties for any candidate Quay may name, which is a great start in a race for a nomination.

Mr. Elkin's friends are said to be engaged in perfecting an organ-ization, with T. Larry Eyre in charge in the cast, Mr. Elkin himself conducting the Central Pennsylvania campaign from Harris-burg, and ex-State Treasurer Beacom and ex-Senator Mitchell caring for the western Pennsylvania interests. Friends of Senator Quay say that even with this organization there cannot be sufficient headway made against the strength of Mr. Quay as to at any time jeopardise his control of the convention when it meets.

Governor Stone, who is for Mr. Elkin, says that he will not talk for publication. Privately the Governor is going to do what he can for his cabinet member, and he expects the administration family to turn in and each do what he can. Congressman Connell left Washington for his Scranton home yesterday and again took occasion to place himself on record as favoring Mr. Elkin for Governor. Mr. Con-nell says that Colonel Watres will be given the Lackwanna county delegates as a compliment on the first ballot for Governor, but after that they will go to Mr. Elkin. The Watres men will not have it that way, and say that the Lacka-wanna delegates will be first, last and all the time for Watres. In Luzerne county it is said that Senator Quay's action has made it possible for Mr. Elkin to carry that county, and a number of Watres men met in Wilkes-Barre on Saturday night and decided to make the fight to get the delegates for Watres In Westmoreland former State Treasurer Beacom is quoted as say-ing that he favors the nomination Mr. Elkin, regardless of the fact that Mr. Quay does not want him, and Henry High, the Berks leader, is out in an interview in which he says that Berks will stick to Elkin. In our sister county of Lebanon, Messrs. A. M. Houck and George B. Woomer, the Republican leadhave announced that Lebaers, non's delegates, being instructed for Elkin, will vote for him. In Lancaster Secretary Griest maintains the stand he took last week as being unalterably for Elkin. In Republican leader, says that the delegates will stand by Senator Quay, but ex-Congressman Gilkeson, another leader, says Elkin will get the Bucks support, and there is promise of a fight. Montgomery county is on the fence, and will be for whoever United States District Attorney says, and it was reported here to-day that Mr. Holland favors Elkin. In Delaware Leader Mathues says he is for Delaware's canfor Gevernor, Senator didate Sproul.

Sinnamahoning Liars' Club.

The Liar's Club held a long solemn ssion last night in the graveyard, all members in attendance except JohnLogue. Harry Ward held the reins of government in his usual bashful manner. Par Blodgett's report of his visit to Empori-um was received and placed on ice. Ho swears he met Dalrymple and made him squeal three times, but admits that he had to cut corners to get away from Alfred Nelson. John Hogan had nothing to offer, his last experience with the sewer taking out all the starch. Buck holder holds the record and will be the next representative from this county, should he get the nomination and be en dorsed by Sinnamahoning Liars' Club. Pap Blodget enjoyed his visit and had a large time until he met the court house gaug, when Yothers and Hockley fixed him plenty. In his dispair he called on Joe Lechner for consolation, but was sorely disappointed to learn it was empty been for Sheriff Swope, the Had it not club would have been minus their president, for he kindly loaded him on the train at the Junction. Pap had an idea that if he could only stay over until Sunday he could clean out Jake Slaigle The report satisfied the members present that the next time Pap Blodget goes to Emporium Hanscome and DeShetler will sent along. Martin Bowen and D. D. Colcord came down one day too soon. P. H. Haynes stole the march on the old cronies and secured that jug, well filled before the gang got onto him. Hans-com has been suspended for 30 days for daring to tell the truth twice within a week. It was too much for Howard Metzger and he withdrew.

A NEW DEPARTURE. A NEW DEPARTURE. The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway has recently put in service on its Pioneer Limited trains the largest and handsomest dining car ever built. It is 82 feet in length from tip to tip, and its body is 6 inches wider and high-er than the usual dining car. It seats 36 people comfortably in movable chairs, and has a kitchen large enough to permit the working of six cooks which with six waiters and a conductor make up the crew. The dining cars heretofore in service did not provide sufficient space to properly care for the large number of patrons of the Pioneer, so that it became necessary to have a larger car. 8 3t larger car. 8 3t

Emporium, Pa. Dear Sir: A painter wants to know what his paint is made of. That's all right: he's welcome. Devoe is white-lead and white-zinc ground together in linseed oil. There is nothing else in it, but color and turpentine dryer. Our agent in your town has the official State Chemist's certificate of analysis certifying to that effect. It is the zinc and the grinding that effect. It is the zinc and the grinding that make it wear twice as long as lead and oil mixed by hand. Yours truly, 70 F. W. DEVOE & Co. P. S.-Murry & Coppersmith sell our paint paint.

A MAILER OF MISTORY. The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway, popularly known as "The St. Paul Road," began the use of electricity for train lighting in 1888. In that and many ways it has been a pioneer in the adoption of comforts for the traveler. TRAVEL LIKE PRINCES. Those who saw the special train in which H. R. H. Prince Henry of Prussia made his tour of the United States are comparing it with other trains in regular service, and it is admitted that none of the cars in the train compare favorably with the buffet, compartment and standard sleeping cars of the Pioneer Limited trains of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway in daily service between Chicago, St Paul and Minneapolis. The people of this country have the satisfaction of know-ing that at any time they cannot only travel like Princes, but can get much batter service. 7-3t
