LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Contributions invited. That which you would like to see in this department, let us know by postal card or letter, personally.

Miss Maud Steek spent Sunday at Portland Mills.

C. W. Shaffer paid Coudersport a professional visit on Tuesday.

Miss Lillian Heilman returned on Tuesday from visiting several days at Pittsburg.

Mrs. Quimby, of Keating Summit, is guest of her brother, Fred Crosby and wife, at this place.

Mercantile Appraiser I. K. Hockley visited First Fork and the lower end of county Tuesday and Wednesday.

W. M. Carter was in town on Monday, not forgetting the printer. William believes if a man takes a paper he should pay for it.

John Heilman, who has been in the employ of the New York Creamery Co., at Newark, N. J., has been promoted and stationed at Owego, N. Y.

Claud E. Lyons, of Shippen, one of our most energetic and reliable young men, was a PRESS visitor on Tuesday. He will read the PRESS for another year.

D. S. Logue, of Huntley, was in Emporium on Tuesday and made the PRESS his usual visit about this time of the year and carried away a receipt for another year's subscription.

Miss Gertrude Hill, of Huntley, Pa., and Mrs. John Othmer, of this place, were PRESS callers on Tuesday. Miss Hill will remain in Emporium this summer to attend summer school.

County Treasurer Walter Yothers, who grows in popularity with our people, was a PRESS visitor on Tuesday. He has a little continued story in this issue of the PRESS, the Treasurer's Land Sales.

F. B. Brady, of Lebanon, Pa., has been guest of his brother, Andrew Brady, manager of Emporium Furnace, during the past week. He returned to his home to-day, after enjoying several days along the trout streams.

Miss Mabel M. Wylie, formerly one of Johnsonburg borough's popular school teachers, but who has been teaching at Sterling Run the past winter, is the guest of her many friends in town this week.—Johnsonburg Press.

Miss Miller, of Pittsburg, is a new clerk in Climax Office.

W. S. Walker and C. Jay Goodnohn visited Austin yesterday.

Frank Beers and family now occupy their West Allegany residence.

Mrs. E. M. Newton was suddenly called to New York city, last Sunday.

John E. Smith and son Grover, of Sterling Run, visited the PRESS yesterday.

Miss Sadie Chapman has resigned her position as cashier at Leet & Co.'s store.

J. M. Davison is now employed in C. B. Howard & Company's store as shipping clerk.

A. M. Hamilton, formerly Sheriff of this county, has been in town for several days.

N. J. Schouton has moved to Olean. He failed to call on the PRESS before leaving town.

Miss Berkle, chief clerk in Climax office, returned on Tuesday from visiting at Pittsburg.

Tax Collector Jessop is out again, after a few weeks' sickness, looking as fresh as a peach.

Wm. Lawler left on Tuesday for West Virginia to see how the new tannery is progressing.

Attorney S. W. Smith, of Port Allegany, was in town on Monday on professional business.

Judge Warner who has been quite ill for several days with a severe cold, is able to be out again.

Jas. McNis has returned from Virginia and will remain with the lumber men of Cameron county.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Norris passed Sunday with the former's mother and sisters, at Kane, last Sunday.

Mrs. W. D. Johnson and daughter of Grantonia, visited in Emporium yesterday, guest of Mrs. H. H. Cloyes.

Mrs. Florence Mason came home from Buffalo on Monday to attend the funeral of her grandmother, Mrs. Heilner.

Gordon Baker's little daughter has been very ill for several days with pneumonia. Dr. Bardwell reports the child much better.

W. H. Roach, of Driftwood, was transacting business in Emporium yesterday. Will is now employed on A. V. R. R., as fireman.

A. Q. Krebs, who has been dangerously ill with typhoid fever for several days, at his home on Four Mile, is reported slightly improved by Dr. Smith.

John D. Bell has gone to Virginia and all sorts of rumors are afloat as to the cause of his visit, but "Jack" shook his head, saying, "don't you believe Palmer."

L. E. Specht, who recently completed a handsome residence on West Fourth street, is turning his attention to his lawn and is doing some good work.

H. B. Mutersbaugh, of Driftwood, visited in Emporium last Thursday. Mr. M. is constable as well as night agent at Driftwood. A fine young man, one of the best.

E. M. Parrott, President of Sinnamoning Iron Company, accompanied by his attorney, Mr. Webb, of Rochester, visited in Emporium several days during the past week.

We notice Miss McCormick, who has made her home in Port Allegany for some time, is in town this week, to remain permanently, we learn, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan McCormick.

Edward Fout, accompanied by several men, left on Monday for Veshoro, Wis., to enter the employ of C. B. Howard Co. Ed. will take charge of the log train, a position he is fully competent to fill.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Burrows and daughter Gladys, have returned to Emporium. The scarcity of houses has compelled them to board at the Warner House and rooming with Mr. and Mrs. I. K. Hockley.

Ex-County Treasurer Franklin Houser, after being confined to his residence for several days, was able to come down town on Tuesday for the first and crack a few jokes with Frank Balcom and Henry Edgcomb.

Miss host William McDonald, accompanied by his friend, engineer Welsh, returned from Hix Run on Monday, with a big catch of "speckled beauties." Of course their friends enjoyed eating them.

F. D. McClure (mail agent) and wife are entertaining Mrs. McClure's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Vosburg, of Bradford. F. D. took his brother up Parker Run after trout, giving him a good sunbathing and worked up a good appetite. It was fun for McClure, who is used to rugged western life.

S. S. Miller of Driftwood, informs the PRESS he has purchased the timber on 1100 acres of land, located near his Castle Garden mill. The bark goes to Gleason's Driftwood tannery. This, in addition to his recent purchase from T. R. Clark, gives him plenty of timber. This Sam says will allow him to spare the walnuts for a rainy day. Rambos are not in it any more.

Mrs. J. I. Murry and daughter of Buffalo, are guests of Miss Yates.

John W. Trotter and wife have located in Emporium, at present Mr. T. being employed at furniture factory.

Walter Slocum and family have moved to Franklinville, N. Y., where Mr. Slocum has purchased a meat market.

Mrs. R. W. Robinson went to Williamsport on Monday to be present at the marriage of her brother Frank Murry to Miss Walker, the ceremony taking place on Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock. After spending a few days at Baltimore and Washington Mr. and Mrs. Murry will make their home at St. Marys.

New Clergyman.
Rev. Jno. A. Miller, the newly appointed M. E. minister for Cameron circuit, has arrived and preached last Sunday at Moore Hill, Beechwood and Howard Siding. Next Sabbath morning he occupies the pulpit at West Creek and in the evening at Cameron.

House Burned.
The A. O. Swartwood homestead, in Rich Valley, now owned by Mr. Josiah Howard, was totally destroyed by fire yesterday morning, caused by a spark from the chimney lighting upon the roof. The house was occupied by a Mr. Johnson, whose loss on furniture is $200, with $150 insurance. Mr. Howard's loss on house is $900, insurance $500.

Bible school at the close of morning worship. C. E. Crandell, superintendent; Y. P. S. C. E. 6:30, B. Olmsted, president. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening, 7:45. All welcome. 30th Benedictary song service in the lecture room at the close of the evening service.

Fire at St. Marys.
St. Marys was visited by a $25,000 fire last Friday morning, the fire originating in H. M. Sillman's big store. Well insured.

First Fork.
Uncle Jimmy O'Brien is stepping high on account of a new boy which arrived at his house a few days ago.

D. D. Colcord returned on Friday from a week's visit with relatives and friends in Coudersport and vicinity.

Robt Krebs was summoned by telegram on Friday to Sizerville on account of the serious illness of his brother Al.

Currier's mill at this place was burned on Friday evening just after the men had quit work and was a total loss. Not much lumber was burned but a large pile of four foot slab-wood was burned. The mill had only been running a short time, and had saved only a small portion of their stock. Shipping of lumber had just commenced. No insurance on mill and stock. It is reported the mill will be rebuilt.

John Caldwell bought a house at Blowville, and has removed it to his place and is putting it up, and will soon have a home in place of the one burned a short time ago.

If troubled by a weak digestion, loss of appetite, or constipation, try a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Every box warranted. For sale by L. Taggart.

A man may be judged by his judgments of others.

Wields A Sharp Ax.
Millions marvel at the multitude of maladies cut off by Dr. King's New Life Pills—the most distressing too. Stomach, Liver and Bowel troubles—Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, Biliousness, Fever, Malaria, all fall before these wonder workers. 25c at L. Taggart's drug store.

God wants flowers on hearts more than on altar-cloths.

Jangling Nerves.
Are you irritable? Do you sleep badly? Is it hard to concentrate your thoughts? Is your appetite poor? Do you feel tired, restless and despondent? Try Lichty's Celery Nerve Compound. It will do you more good than any thing you have ever tried. Sold by L. Taggart.

The pearls of truth lie deep in the sea of patience.

"A neighbor ran in with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy when my son was suffering with severe cramps and was given up as beyond hope by my regular physician, who stands high in his profession. After administering three doses of it, my son regained consciousness and recovered entirely within twenty-four hours," says Mrs. Marry Haller, of Mt. Crawford, Va. This Remedy is for sale by L. Taggart.

A Doctor's Bad Plight.
"Two years ago, as a result of a severe cold, I lost my voice," writes Dr. M. L. Scarbrough, of Hebron, Ohio, "then began an obstinate cough. Every remedy known to me as a practicing physician for 35 years, failed, and I daily grew worse. Being urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, I found quick relief, and for the last ten days have felt better than for two years." Positively guaranteed for Throat and Lung troubles by L. Taggart.

It is hard to be healed when we hide our wounds.

The Great Dismal Swamp
Of Virginia is a breeding ground of Malaria germs. So is low, wet or marshy ground everywhere. These germs cause weakness, chills and fever, aches in the bones and muscles, and may induce dangerous maladies. But Electric Bitters never fail to destroy them and cure malarial troubles. They will surely prevent typhoid. "We tried many remedies for Malaria and Stomach and Liver troubles," writes John Charleston, of Byesville, O., but "but never found anything as good as Electric Bitters." Try them. Only 50c. L. Taggart guarantees satisfaction.

A state religion does not make a religious state.

A Nearly Fatal Runaway.
Started a horrible ulcer on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove, Ill., which defied doctors and all remedies for four years. Then Buckle's Arnica Salve cured him. Just as good for Boils, Burns, Bruises, Cuts, Corns, Scalds, Skin Eruptions and Piles. 25c at L. Taggart's drug store.

The truth of martyr does not hire out to a museum.

Good for Rheumatism.
Last fall I was taken with a severe attack of muscular rheumatism which caused me great pain and annoyance. After trying several prescriptions and rheumatic cures, I decided to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I had seen advertised in the South Jerseyman. After two applications of this remedy I was much better, and after using one bottle, was completely cured.—Sallie Harris, Salem, N. J. For sale by L. Taggart.
