LIVELY CAMPAIGNING

Canvass For Governorship Keeps Party Workers Active.

COUNTIES GETTING INTO LINE

Three Aspirants Are Now in the Field For Second Place on the Ticket and Each of Them is Quite Hopeful.

(Special Correspondence.)

Philadelphia, May 20. — These are busy times with the active Republican workers throughout the state.

Primary elections are being held for the selection of delegates to the Republican state convention and a most aggressive canvass for the nominations to be made at Harrisburg on June 11th next is attracting widespread attention.

The three leading candidates for the governorship, Attorney General John P. Elkin, former Lieutenant Governor L. A. Watres and Judge Samuel W. Pennypacker, each has a host of friends at work and most strenuous campaigning is being resorted to in the struggle for delegates.

Up to date it is "any man's race," but developments within the next ten days may alter the conditions and give an opportunity to make a fairly reliable prediction as to the probable winner.

ELKIN PUSHING AHEAD.

Mr. Elkin's friends have reason to be pleased with the headway he has made during the last week. In a contest before the people with the name of each candidate, Elkin and Watres, printed on the ballot, he defeated Mr. Watres in the Northumberland county primaries by an overwhelming majority. The Elkin men were on the aggressive from the outset and planned their campaign carefully and thoroughly. Mr. Elkin visited the county and made an address to the voters. When it became manifest that the Elkin men were going to win Mr. Watres concluded not to make a speech in that county, although he may accept invitations to go elsewhere before all the delegate elections shall be held.

There was a hotly contested struggle in Schuylkill county in which Mr. Elkin's friends claim to have won five out of the eight delegates. Their opponents will not concede more than four to Elkin. In Dauphin county the Elkinites will get six of the seven delegates. They also got three in Armstrong and one in Forest.

The return judges in Mercer county held a meeting during the week and adopted resolutions instructing the three delegates to the state convention from that county to vote for Mr. Elkin. The county convention had previously simply endorsed Mr. Elkin's candidacy, without "instructing" the delegates.

WORKING FOR PENNYPACKER.

Members of the bar and other admirers of Judge Pennypacker have taken hold of his campaign in Philadelphia and are flooding the state with literature sounding his praises and urging his nomination for governor. A public meeting of leading citizens of the Quaker City is booked for this week and strong resolutions commending his candidacy have been prepared and will no doubt be adopted. Judge Pennypacker is generally respected by his fellow citizens of Philadelphia, regardless of their political affiliations. He is looked upon as a most excellent judge and a brainy man. He has certainly reason to feel proud of the endorsements he has received from representative and influential citizens of his home county. A committee, which has charge of the campaign in his behalf, will canvass every county in the state in his interest before the state convention shall be held.

Mr. Watres bagged another delegate last week, when the county committee of Monroe county met and elected one of his supporters as state delegate. Friends of Elkin in Monroe attempted to have a resolution adopted instructing this delegate to vote for the Indiana county candidate, but the resolution was defeated. In Crawford county the supporters of Dr. Flood, who aspires to the lieutenant governorship, won the delegates to the state convention without opposition. The county committee had previously met and adopted resolutions giving Dr. Flood the privilege of naming his own candidates for state delegates. Dr. Flood will make a canvass among the delegates from the western counties with a view to having their united support in his candidacy for second place on the ticket. He will be confronted by the admirers of former Senator William M. Brown, of Lawrence, who is also after the backing of the western delegates for the lieutenant governorship.

While these two aspirants for Lieutenant Governor Gobin's shoes are working the west, a new candidate has been trotted out in the east. Mayor Lewis, of Allentown, with the Lehigh delegation at his back, now wants to be lieutenant governor. His home county newspapers have begun to boom him and some of his admirers have made a pilgrimage to Harrisburg to confer with party leaders there in his interest.

There will be strong delegations of citizens from different parts of Lehigh county, as well as Flood shouters from Crawford, and Brown boomers from Lawrence, to work up interest in the lieutenant governorship fight in the convention throngs at Harrisburg.

Major Brown, of Erie, who aspires to the office of secretary of internal affairs, starts out with his home county delegation solidly for him and he has a number of other delegations committed to him. General Schall was endorsed for honor by the Montgomery delegation, which also went on record in favor of Judge Pennypacker for governor. It is apparently too soon to venture a prediction as to the likely winner for this office.

Senator Quay, who was elected a delegate to the state convention in Beaver county last week, has not yet publicly indicated his favorite for the governorship.

Institute Entertainment Course.

The week of October the twentieth has been selected as the time of the Teachers' County Institute. The selection of talent for the evening entertainments was made last week and is as follows: Thomas Dixon, Jr., of New York, lecture subject to be announced. The Chicago Lady Entertainers; Edward P. Elliott Impersonator in the play of David Harum, and the Ernest Gamble Recital Company. Absolutely a better list of attractions could not be brought together, and a rich treat is in store for the patrons of the Institute course. The largest counties in the state have nothing better, and many have nothing of equal or approximate merit. This course should receive the largest patronage of all classes of citizens.

Prof. J. W. Elliott Passes Away.

Renovo, Pa., May 19. — Professor J. W. Elliott, principal of the Renovo Public School, died at his home in Renovo at 12:45 M. to-day. He was born in Reesville, Mifflin county, Pa., August 27, 1861. His father, Rev. George Elliott, was a Presbyterian minister for six successive years. Mr. Elliott was recently re-elected superintendent of Presbyterian Sunday school. He was active member of the Royal Arcanum of which he was grand deputy, also secretary Board of Trade of Renovo. Services will be conducted Wednesday by Rev. J. D. Cook, after which the body will be taken to Bellefonte for interment. A wife and daughter mourn his death.

Smith-Mills.

Mr. William H. Smith of Austin, and Miss Lena Mills of Emporium were united in marriage last Sunday afternoon at the parsonage of the First Methodist Episcopal church, by the pastor, Rev. O. S. Metzler. Attending them were Mr. Henry Depp, of Austin, and Miss Josephine Edelman, of town. Mr. Smith is in the employ of the Goodyears at Austin and is a young man of industrious habits, while Miss Mills is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Mill, who reside just east of town, where they have charge of the Russell farm. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will reside in Austin.

Will Cut 18,000,000.

G. W. Huntley & Son will cut 18,000,000 feet of hemlock this season and will naturally require a great many men during bark peeling season. This lumber will be manufactured by the Medix Run Lumber Company. Reports are to the effect that the operations will be advantageous for good woodmen as the timber is mostly on level ground, is large and will be easily handled.

The Huntleys are said to be first-class people, always pay the highest price and pay promptly.—Clearfield Republican.

State Board of Agriculture.

Editor Press:—

I expect to attend the spring meeting of the State Board of Agriculture to be held at Gettysburg on May 28th and 29th, and should be glad to receive suggestions from any one of something that the Board's attention should be called to.

Yours respectfully,
W. H. HOWARD,
Chairman County Institute.

Chapter Banquet.

Emporium Chapter, No. 227, H. R. A. C., banqueted their members at Warner House, Tuesday evening, covers being laid for thirty. Among those from out of town were Chas. O. Laymon, F. B. Todd and John Dick, Port Allegany. The occasion was a pleasant one and of course enjoyed by those in attendance. Mine hostess, served an elegant menu.

Concert Company Coming.

The Carl Crance Trio, Mr. Carl Crance, Bass; Mrs. Alice Mead Martin, Harp Soloist; Miss Mable Maitland, Recitations, Stories, Sketches; will give a concert in the Court House Tuesday evening, May 27th, under the auspices of the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Presbyterian church. This will be a fine musical and elocutionary treat and merits the largest patronage.

The New Town Clock.

The ladies of Emporium, who have in charge the purchase of a town clock have secured the funds and ordered the same, which has been shipped. The court house tower has been made ready for the clock and soon the time indicator will notify the belated promenaders that it is time to get home. The ladies have worked hard and deserve the thanks of the public.

New Cigar Store.

Mr. Peter R. Beattie (everybody knows Uncle Peter) has opened a cigar and confectionery store in the room one door north of H. W. Graham's barber shop, where he will be pleased to meet all of his old friends. He has fitted up a neat store and is well stocked with choice cigars, tobacco, fruits, etc. Don't forget Uncle Peter when in need of anything in his line.

An Evening of Entertainment.

A very pleasant surprise party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Snyder of Emporium, in honor of their oldest son Peter K., who celebrated his 18th birthday on Monday May the 19th 1902.

Among the guests who were with them to enjoy the evening were Miss Lena and Kate Weisenfluh, Alta Carter, Rose Stahly, Nellie Keyes, Rena Sprout, Rose Seibert, Anna Thomas, Harry Sprout, James Thomas, Charley Letzke, Otis Ulrich, Clarence Shirk, Aaron Reed, Ronald Kester, John Quigley, and George D. Neidinger, all of whom reported a very pleasant evening.

Refreshments were served during the evening by Mrs. Wm. Snyder, Mrs. J. D. Swope and Mrs. Wm. Keyes.

The Broad Street Bridge.

What is the matter that the bridge at the foot of Broad street is having nothing done to it? We were informed that a liberal subscription had been taken up for the purpose of rebuilding it, but we fail to see any further move in that direction. This bridge and road is certainly a valuable improvement to both town and country and ought to be maintained. It is current talk among the Mason and Huston Hill people that it would be so nice if they could come over this way to Emporium but that there is no use trying if they cannot cross the creek. The beauty of the drive along the crest of the mountain of itself ought to induce some body to push a bridge to completion so that the beautiful scenery all along the road might be more fully enjoyed.

OBSERVER.

Death of Miss Mary Heverly.

The remains of Miss Mary A. Heverly, aged 66 years, were brought to Emporium from Danville, Pa., last Friday afternoon for burial, being met at Buffalo Junction by many friends. Interment was made in Newton Cemetery. Miss Heverly has been an invalid for several years with organic heart disease. Years ago Miss Heverly was employed in our public schools and was a lady of splendid education and popular as a teacher.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

COYLE.

EASTER MARGARETTE COYLE, aged 24 years, died quite suddenly last Monday morning and the sad news was a great shock to the family and friends of the popular young lady. Miss Coyle, very acceptably filled the position of clerk in Emporium post office, where she held the esteem of our citizens. Faithful in the discharge of her duties she stuck to her post long after it was evident to her friends that her health was breaking down and that consumption had fastened its deadly grip upon her young life. All that the best medical skill could invent was used to check the disease, change of climate was tested but all seemed of no avail.

Full of hope, the good young lady battled bravely and manifested a wonderful degree of confidence and hope for life. Returning to Emporium from Wilkes-Barre on May 10th, where she had been treated by a specialist for several weeks, it was sad for her friends to witness the faded form of the once beautiful and joyous girl. Despite the decision of the doctors she continued to struggle against the fatal disease and only last Saturday asked that she be taken out for a carriage ride, which request was granted and seemed to do her good. On Sunday she was able to walk around her home and remarked that she had not felt so well in a long time.

Her death occurred early Monday morning, from internal hemorrhage and she peacefully passed away, surrounded by her devoted mother, sisters and brothers.

Poor Maggie. The death of this sweet young lady is especially painful to the Press force, from whom we have always received such courteous treatment and had grown to respect her for the many true lady principles. No sacrifice was too great for her to make if it would help her loved ones or aid some needy person. A general favorite with our citizens—always her friends. She leaves behind only the fondest recollections of a well spent life.

The funeral service will be held at St. Mark's Catholic Church to-morrow morning at nine o'clock.

The following relatives and friends have arrived to attend the funeral: Mr. and Mrs. E. O'Connor, Mrs. H. Mallett, Wilkes-Barre; Mrs. James Wilson, Blanchard; Misses Jennie and Jessie Norris, Kane.

Accidents.

An eighteen months old child of R. Lockwood's while playing in the yard with her brother had her wrist broken. Dr. Heilman attended.

Daniel Downey, while engaged in the erection of a dwelling house on his Fifth street lot had the misfortune to fall from a scaffold, spraining his left ankle.

On Monday 19th, a Mr. Fisher from Craven's camp walked into Dr. Heilman's office with a cut knee. He and a companion were running to get out of the way of a falling tree. His companion was ahead and while running threw his ax from his hand, which struck Fisher on the left leg just above the knee cap making a wound about three inches long and going clear to the bone.

E. M. Parrott Dead.

E. M. Parrott, President of Sinnamahoning Iron & Coal Company, who has been engaged on the company lands near this place, died last Friday evening very suddenly, aged 52 years to the day. Mr. Parrott left here just a few days prior to his death, upon the advice of his physician. His death was due to heart disease and blood poison. Mr. Parrott's death will be deeply deplored by his many Cameron county friends. Funeral took place at Arden, N. Y. Mr. Andrew Brady, manager of Emporium furnace, being in attendance.

Mission Services.

Mission services have been held at St. Mark's during the week and were largely attended. Two Missionaries have been present in addition to several Priests who assisted Father Downey.

The Mission Services are conducted by the Redemptionist Fathers and are very largely attended by our citizens, of all creeds. Rev. Thos. Grohowski and Rev. Jos. Lauer conducted the services. The meetings are accomplishing much good and will be continued until next Sunday.

Emmanuel Church.

A cordial welcome to the men of Emmanuel Parish at the supper to be served to them this (Thursday evening) in the Reading Room at 6:30 o'clock. No charge. Celebration of the Holy Communion next Sunday (Trinity Sunday) at 11 a. m.

Scientists tell us that if we kill one fly now, it is the same as killing 120,000 a little later on. Better take time, as well as the flies, by the forelock and smash 'em early in the season.—Ex.

Every month Senator Clark, of Montana, sends a check for $900,000 to the contractors who are building his railroad from Salt Lake City to Los Angeles. These checks do not decrease his capital, being met from the income from investments.

Under the fish laws of the State persons cannot give bail for catching trout under size. One has to either pay the fine, $10, for each fish found in his possession under size or else go to jail. There is no half-way business about it.—Franklin Leader.

The death of Col. J. G. Jewett, a member of the famous "Bucktail" regiment of the Civil war, by suicide, is announced. Col. Jewett lived at Saugertie, N. Y., and became involved in business trouble which led to the rash act.

Josiah Howard, one of the most public spirited citizens of Emporium, has agreed to donate $4,000 toward paving Fourth street in that town providing the citizens will raise $8,000 or he will donate $1,000 for every $2,000 the citizens will raise. Austin should have few men like Mr. Howard.—Austin Republican.

On the Philadelphia and Erie railroad at 4:30 o'clock Saturday morning the belated Buffalo Flyer crashed into a coal train just west of Antes Fort, and engineer Ira L. Shriner, of Harrisburg, was instantly killed while applying the emergency brake, while conductor George W. Kinley, of Williamsport, met death in saving a fellow trainman.

A Buffalo special says: The Cattle property on the lake shore in South Buffalo, lying between Tift street and the lands of the Lehigh Valley, railroad, has changed hands, and upon it and contiguous property will be located one of the largest blast furnace plants in the country, together with the terminus of the Buffalo & Susquehanna railroad.

Daniel Castello, one time partner of P. T. Barnum in the circus business, is in the county hospital dying from pneumonia. For the last year he has lived in a Chicago lodging house. Castello sold his half interest in the circus to Barnum in 1876 for $700,000 and started in the mining business in the Black Hills. He gradually lost his money, and he came to Chicago a poor man ten years ago. He is 67 years old.

A drunken man staggered into church one Sunday and sat down in the pew of one of the deacons. The preacher was discoursing about prevalent popular vices. Soon he exclaimed: "Where is the drunkard?" The drunken man was just far enough gone to think the call personal, so rising heavily, replied: "Here I am," and remained standing while the drunkard's character and fate were eloquently portrayed. A few minutes later the preacher reached another head of his discourse, and asked, "Where is the hypocrite?"

Gently nudging his neighbor, the drunkard said, in an audible whisper, "Stand up, deacon, he means you this time. Stand up and take it like a man, just as I stand! It will do you good!"

The Cameron county teachers' summer school opened with a very good attendance of students. The beginning of the second week brought a number of additional students, with assurance of a number yet to enter. This is the second year of the school and with the present patronage by the teachers of Cameron and adjoining counties it is destined to be a permanent factor in the educational work of the community. It offers an excellent opportunity for teachers and young people to obtain a more liberal education. All persons who are desirous of obtaining an education which will fit them for teaching or entering college should avail themselves of this school.

Don't miss the Carl Crance Trio at Court House, Tuesday evening, May 27th. Reserved seat tickets 35c. Board will be open at Lloyd's book store, Saturday morning at nine o'clock.
