STATE AND COUNTY POLITICAL NOTES.

Judge Pennypacker has 104 delegates pledged to him in the State convention.

Senator Quay denies that Judge Pennypacker is his cousin. Their great-grandfathers were half brothers.

The average Republican vote cast in Potter county is from 2,200 to 2,500, yet 3,371 votes were cast at the recent Republican primaries.

Ex-Senator Cameron says he quit politics a good while ago and he is of the opinion that "when a man quits and says he has quit he ought to quit and his friends ought to let him quit."

The announcement comes from Indiana that Elkin's followers have formed an "Elkin Sink or Swim Club," named from Israel W. Durham's famous saying, and that the club will attend the Harrisburg convention in a body.

Former Governor Hastings in Bellefonte announced that he will support Judge Pennypacker for Governor, and would regard his nomination as a "happy solution of the present party difficulties in the state, assuring harmony and victory."

Ex-Senator Hummel, of Snyder, carried the Juniata primaries for Congress on Saturday night over Congressman Mahon. W. S. Arbogast, of Millintown, was elected state delegate on the Quay platform. A. H. Brown was nominated for the Legislature.

There are thirty-two candidates registered for the nomination by the Republican Convention of Tioga county, which meets at Wellboro, Tuesday, June 3. The primaries are to be held Saturday, May 31. John P. Elkin, Louis H. Watres and Samuel W. Pennypacker are all registered as candidates for governor.

WILL FIGHT IN CONVENTION.

HARRISBURG, Pa., May 19.—Attorney General Elkin will conduct his fight for the gubernatorial nomination from the floor of the convention, and will there meet Senator Quay face to face in the struggle. This has been decided upon by the Attorney General and his friends, and Elkin, so determined, has borrowed some of the Quay tactics. Whenever Quay wanted to win his point and thought he had the backing, he went into the convention and generally carried his points. He intends going into the convention on June 11.

Elkin will go to the convention as a delegate from Indiana, being substituted for one of the regularly elected delegates. He came to Harrisburg this evening in time to be in touch with the city convention, which gave him its delegates.

The Richmond News, a staunch Democratic paper, has this to say about the Philippine wrangle now going on in the Senate. The debate on the Philippines as it is now being conducted is doing harm every day, particularly to the South. But for the invincible common sense of the people of both sides, it might easily develop extremely grave and serious results. It would be a mercy to the country, and particularly to the Democratic party, if the Senators from South Carolina, Mississippi, Utah and Kansas could be locked up in a room together and allowed to conclude their discussion in private with tongues, statistics, affidavits, pen knives, bowie knives or axes, according to preference.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

Washington, May 19th., 1902.

Editor Press:—

"I am afraid the Republican Senators will die like poor Pat O'Brien," said Senator Hansbrough yesterday, when I asked him how the Philippine debate was coming on. "How was that?" I asked. "I'll tell you," replied the Senator. "Poor Pat's got to hang."

A friend of Pat's to a mutual friend, one evening, "No he hasn't" replied the friend. "Shure an' he has," said the first speaker. "He's been convicted of murder in the first degree. He's got to hang. It's th' law. 'No, no, no, man replied the friend, 'Ye're behoid the toimes altogether; they've got a new way o' killing min' now. Shure he'll die by electrocution. And if the Democrats keep on that will be the fate of the Republican senators," concluded Mr. Hansbrough.

The Democrats still continue to play on their single string and are prolonging the Philippine debate to the last possible moment but there is reason to believe that the vote will come some time this week. What bill will follow the Philippine measure has not yet been definitely settled and Senator Allison, chairman of the Republican steering committee, assured me that he did not know himself, when I saw him Saturday. "I get all my inside information from the bright young men who represent the press, these days, and, as you have the inside track on that, you probably know more than I do," facetiously remarked the Senator when I tried to "pump" him. There is a rumor abroad that Congress will adjourn without acting upon either the Cuban reciprocity bill or the Nicaraguan Canal bill and as soon as I heard it I had sought the senior Senator from Iowa. He said he hardly thought Congress would do that but when I asked him to confirm a positive statement which he made to me some weeks ago, that the canal bill would be considered at this session, he refused to do so. Some Republican senators believe that the canal bill will be considered first and others that the Cuban bill will take precedence.

The passage of the Senate, on Thursday, of the bill providing for the erection of a union railway station in Washington was a serious disappointment to Senator Hansbrough who had conceived and formulated a substitute which provided for the erection of the new station by the government with a view to renting its use to the railroads. As the measure passed carries a considerable appropriation of public funds the Senator from North Dakota believed the government should retain its ownership and his proposition attracted much favorable comment from the residents of the District of Columbia but so much time and labor had already been spent on the bill which eventually passed by the Committee on the District of Columbia that the Senator's "municipal ownership" idea was rejected.

Ex-Senator Manderson of Nebraska appeared before Senator Platt's committee this week and offered the first important testimony derogatory to Cuban reciprocity. He claimed, among other things, that there had started a flow of emigration from Iowa and Nebraska to the cheap lands of Manitoba which flow could be effectually stopped by encouragement to the beet sugar industry, but that the passage of the proposed bill would seriously augment that immigration. Mr. H. G. Leavitt, also of Nebraska, testified against the bill which, he claimed, was entirely in the interests of the Sugar Trust. It is probable that if, at a reasonably early date, Senator Platt finds that he has sufficiently strong following in the Senate to pass a straight Cuban reciprocity bill such a measure will be reported and passed, but until the Senator so decides the bill will remain "in committee."

Whooping Cough. A woman who has had experience with this disease, tells how to prevent any dangerous consequence from it. She says: Our three children took whooping Cough last summer, our baby boy being only three months old, and owing to our giving them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, they lost none of their plumpness and came out in much better health than other children whose parents did not use this remedy. Our oldest little girl would call lustily for cough syrup between whoops.—Jessie Pinkey Hall, Springfield, Ala. This remedy is for sale by L. Taggart.

Traveling is Dangerous. Constant motion jars the kidneys which are kept in place in the body by delicate attachments. This is the reason that travelers, trainmen, street car men, teamsters and all who drive very much suffer from kidney disease in some form. Foley's Kidney Cure strengthens the kidneys and cures all forms of kidney and bladder disease. Geo. H. Hausen, locomotive engineer, Lima, O., writes, "Constant vibration of the engine causes me a deal of trouble with my kidneys, and I got no relief until I used Foley's Kidney Cure." L. Taggart.

Biliousness is a condition characterized by a disturbance of the digestive organs. The stomach is debilitated, the liver torpid, the bowels constipated. There is a loathing of food, pains in the bowels, dizziness, coated tongue and vomiting, first of the undigested or partly digested food and then of bile. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets allay the disturbances of the stomach and create a healthy appetite. They also tone up the liver to a healthy action and regulate the bowels. Try them and you are certain to be much pleased with the result. For sale by L. Taggart.

Further service is God's reward for faithful service.

I am glad to endorse them for I think when we find a good thing we ought to let others know it," writes Alfred Heinze, Quincy, Ill. They never gripe or distress. Sure, safe pills. R. C. Dodson.

Holds up a Congressman. At the end of the campaign," writes Champ Clark, Missouri's brilliant congressman, "from overwork, nervous tension, loss of sleep and constant speaking I had about utterly collapsed. Overworked, run-down men and weak, sickly women gain splendid health and vitality from Electric Bitters. Try them. Only 50c. Guaranteed by L. Taggart.

Cures When Doctors Fail. Mrs. Frank Chiasson, Patterson, La., writes June 8th, 1901: "I had malaria fever in very bad form, was under treatment by doctors, but as soon as I stopped taking their medicine the fever would return. I used a sample bottle of Herbine, found it helped me. Then bought two bottles, which completely cured me. I feel grateful to you for furnishing such a splendid medicine, and can honestly recommend it to those suffering from malaria, as it will surely cure them." Herbine, 50c bottle at L. Taggart's.
