Magic Color Pictures.

A glass of water and a sponge or brush act like a box of paints on the wonderful "Watergraphs," which will appear in next Sunday's Philadelphia Press. It's the cleverest novelty of the year. The pictures are printed apparently in black ink. You touch them with water, and in a second they become beautiful water color paintings. No skill is needed—Children can do it as well as grown folks. These "Watergraphs" are in addition to the mysterious magic pictures, which you rub over a blank space with a coin and a picture appears.

The great puzzle-man, Sam Loyd, is now on The Sunday Press staff of entertainers. He has a page each Sunday that will set you thinking and amuse you, too. Order next Sunday's Philadelphia Press of your newsdealer in advance. Then you'll be sure to get it.

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured After Fourteen Years of Suffering.

"I have been afflicted with sciatic rheumatism for fourteen years," says Josh Edgar, of Germantown, Cal. "I was able to be around but constantly suffered. I tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured, and I am happy to say it has not since returned." Why not use this liniment and get well? It is for sale by L. Taggart.

That no man is so skeptical as to not believe the good things he heard about himself.

For Those Who Live on Farms.

Dr. Bergin, Pana, Ill., writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment; always recommend it to my friends, as I am confident there is no better made. It is a 'judy' for burns." Those who live on farms are especially liable to many accidental cuts, burns and bruises, which heal rapidly when Ballard's Snow Liniment is applied. It should always be kept in the house for cases of emergency. 25c, 50c and $1.00 at L. Taggart's.

That many a fellow who can read a menu in French hasn't the price of a dinner.

World Wide Reputation.

White's Cream Vermifuge has achieved a world wide reputation as being the best of all worm destroyers, and for its tonic influence on weak and unthrifty children, as it neutralizes the acidity or sourness of the stomach, improves their digestion, and assimilation of food, strengthens their nervous system and restores them to the health, vigor and elasticity of spirits natural to childhood. 25c at L. Taggart's.

That the huckster may not be a jack of all trades, but he is a man of many callings.

You never heard of any one using Foley's Honey and Tar and not being satisfied. L. Taggart.

That the man who first said that figures never lie, evidently never saw a burlesque show.

Like a Drowning Man.

"Five years ago a disease the doctors called dyspepsia took such hold of me that I could scarcely go," writes Geo. S. Marsh, well-known attorney of Nacoma, Tex. "I took quantities of pepsin and other medicines but nothing helped me. As a drowning man grabs at a straw I grabbed at Kodol. I felt an improvement at once and after a few bottles am sound and well." Kodol is the only preparation which exactly reproduces the natural digestive juices and consequently is the only one which digests any good food and cures any form of stomach trouble. R. C. Dodson.

Will Cure Consumption.

A. A. Herren, Finch, Ark., writes, Foley's Honey and Tar is the best preparation for coughs, colds and lung trouble. I know that it has cured consumption in the first stages." L. Taggart

FIGHT FOR GOVERNOR

Most Remarkable Struggle in the History of Pennsylvania.

ALL CANDIDATES ARE GUESSING

The Contest For the Lieutenant Governorship Has Also Become One of Intense Interest, With a Field of Strong Candidates.

(Special Correspondence.)

Harrisburg, May 27.—The contest for the gubernatorial nomination continues to occupy the attention of the Republican workers of the state and the election of every delegate to the state convention is a matter of very serious moment in every locality in which the primaries have not yet been held.

Not for many years has there been such a closely contested struggle for party honors.

Thousands of county committeemen and others identified with the party organization are keeping tally on the returns from the counties, and speculating as to the outcome of the struggle for control of the state convention.

Attorney General Elkin, former Lieutenant Governor Watres and Judge Pennypacker continue to be the only avowed candidates for governor. Congressman Sibley, who was mentioned for the place, has taken to the woods, or rather gone back to Washington, where he is devoting his entire time to his congressional duties and not taking any hand whatever in the hunt for delegates.

The various other "favorite sons" have reached the conclusion that they are not wanted this time and they, too, have gone back and will try to forget that they ever thought of running for governor.

ELKIN'S VIGOROUS CAMPAIGN

The Elkin campaign has progressed with characteristic vigor and a number of delegates have been added to the list of supporters of the "Indiana County Plow Boy." The candidate himself has been on the go constantly. He is managing his own fight. He is meeting his own lieutenants, is keeping his own tally, and he is working out his own plan of campaign.

Northampton county's convention was held on Saturday last. It was an enthusiastic Elkin gathering. The five delegates to the state convention who were elected signed a pledge which put them on record for the Indiana county candidate "as long as his name shall be before the state convention." General Frank Reeder, chairman of the Republican State Committee, heads this delegation in favor of Elkin for governor.

The Elkin men also claim the votes from Fulton, Fayette, Warren and Elk counties, which held primaries on Saturday last. All these claims are not conceded by their opponents, however.

Colonel Watres has emphatically denied the reports that he proposes to withdraw from the canvass. He still contends that he is the "logical candidate for governor with which to unite all factions" and he contends that he still has a chance of winning the prize.

The activity of friends of Judge Pennypacker in Philadelphia during the last week has brought his boom into prominence. The meeting held in his behalf in the Witherspoon building in Philadelphia resulted in the appointment of a committee of fifty leading citizens of the Quaker City who have already begun to flood the state with literature setting forth the desirability of Judge Pennypacker's nomination, his devotion to the interests of the commonwealth and his frequent and vigorous rebukes to critics and traders of Pennsylvania, her state government and her Republican leaders.

BIG FIGHT IN TIOGA.

Widespread interest is attracted to the contest now being waged in Tioga county for the delegates to the Republican state convention.

This will be the last struggle, probably, in which the people will have an opportunity to vote directly for the endorsement of candidates for the Republican nomination for governor. The names of Elkin, Watres and Pennypacker will all be printed upon the official ballots and each participant at the primaries will have a chance to indicate his favorite. The candidate receiving the highest vote will have the delegates to the state convention instructed for him from this county.

Candidate Elkin is the only aspirant for the nomination who has up to date accepted an invitation to go into the county and address the voters on the issues of the canvass. He has arranged to make speeches at different points in the county on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week. The primaries will be held on Saturday next.

It was believed that Huntingdon would present a similar condition of affairs, as it is the custom in Huntingdon to let the people pass upon the candidacy of aspirants for state offices. Elkin registered in the county and it was said that Messrs. Watres and Pennypacker would do likewise, but when the last day for registration had passed, it was found that Elkin was the only candidate who had agreed to submit his name to the voters. There was but one set of candidates for delegates running, too, and these are friends of Elkin. The primaries in Huntingdon take place on Saturday next and the Elkin men will, of course, be elected.

LOOKING FOR SECOND PLACE.
The struggle for second place on the Republican state ticket is becoming more interesting every day.

Mayor Lewis, of Allentown, has biosomed out as a full fledged candidate for lieutenant governor. He has the backing of his home delegation and these delegates refuse to pledge themselves to any candidate for governor until they know what is to be done with the Lewis boom.

Dr. Flood, of Crawford county, former Senator Brown, of Lawrence, and Colonel Clement, of Northumberland, are also in the race for this office. Each will have a large delegation at the state convention.

There will surely be "a hot time in that old town" that night.
