LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

The Blue and the Gray.

Knee-deep in the scarlet poppies,
Waist high in the waving corn,
At the edge of a silver streamlet
They met by chance one morn.
He was a Union soldier
In blue and buttons gay,
And she was a Southern maiden
In a shabby gown of gray.
She looked at his stalwart shoulders,
And face with his healthy tan,
He looked at her cheeks of roses,
And so the tale began.
The poppies yet were sleeping,
And who was to hinder, pray,
If the blue-clad soldier captured
A kiss from the girl in gray.
Every night off duty
He stole from the lines of blue
To meet her under the live-oaks
In the moonlight and the dew,
And lo! when the bugle sounded
And the regiment marched away,
He left a ring and a promise
With the sweet little maid in gray.
After the war was over
And the battle-flags were furled,
And the peaceful snow of the orchards
Folded the weary world,
He came again to the village
In the heart of the fragrant May—
The bells rang out for a bridal
And the blue was wed to the gray.

Read it in His Newspaper.

George Schaub, a well known German citizen of New Lebanon, Ohio, is a constant reader of the Dayton Volkszeitung. He knows that this paper aims to advertise only the best in its columns, and when he saw Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised therein for lame back, he did not hesitate in buying a bottle of it for his wife, who for eight weeks had suffered with the most terrible pains in her back and could get no relief. He says: "After using the Pain Balm for a few days my wife said to me, 'I feel as though born anew,' and before using the entire contents of the bottle the unbearable pains had entirely vanished and she could again take up her household duties." He is very thankful and hopes that all suffering likewise will hear of her wonderful recovery. This valuable liniment is for sale by L. Taggart.

Croup is so sudden in its attacks that the doctor often arrives too late. It yields at once to One Minute Cough Cure. Pleasant to take. Children like it. Sure sure for grip, bronchitis, coughs. R. C. "The Independence Hall of To-day" is a charming historical article woven round the Hall in Philadelphia, which has been lately restored. "The Death Throes of the Confederacy" gives a vivid description of the last battles of the Civil War. A humorous story of the War of 1812 is "The Battle of Quahog Neck," by Joe Lincoln. Cyrus Townsend Brady's charming story, "Woven With the Ship," is continued. Onoto Watanna contributes "The Love of a Geisha Girl," and Will N. Harben has a tale of the Georgia mountaineers. Miss Grace Margaret Gould gives valuable hints on the latest frills of fashion. Published by The Crowell Publishing Co., Springfield, Ohio; one dollar a year; ten cents a copy; sample copy free.
