Geo. W. Ebert and wife, of Pittsburg, visited in town over Sunday, guests of Mrs. Ebert's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Schlecht.

Mrs. Wm. McGee, who has been confined to her bed for several months, from the effects of a fall, is able to walk around the hotel by the aid of a cane.

John Cavanaugh, one of C. B. Howard Company's faithful employes and a hard working and industrious young man, pushed the date ahead one year on his Press.

Miss Katie Cummings and Miss Rose Ritchie, two of Emporium's exceptionally bright young ladies, leave this month for Grove City to attend Summer school.

Nace Drum, of Sinnamahoning, accompanied by his cousin, came up on Tuesday to visit friends. He will be remembered as a former obliging Western Union operator at this office.

Thomas Davin, conductor on Buffalo Division, met with an accident last Saturday evening, falling from the top of a box car. His back and neck was quite seriously injured by the fall, laying him off for a few days.

Mrs. David Hamilton, of Fourth street, received the sad news on Monday last, of decease of her sister, Mrs. Permelia Burger, of Kent, Washington. Mrs. Burger, had reached the advanced age of 82 years.

Reuben Doughty Dies From Broken Back.
Reuben Doughty, who broke his back at Driftwood in a fall from a second story window while asleep, on June 18, died at 9:30 o'clock Thursday morning at the Williamsport Hospital. Coroner Goehrig investigated his death and found an inquest unnecessary.

Doughty was fifty-five years of age, single, and a native of England. He has no friends here to attend to his burial and the Odd Fellows have interested themselves in his behalf, telegraphing to points in Michigan and to Pittsburg, this state, to find to what Odd Fellows' lodge he belongs. The hospital authorities also telegraphed to Driftwood, but up to noon Thursday no trace of relatives or friends was found. In case of a failure of any relatives to respond, Lyecoming Lodge, 112, of Odd Fellows will probably bury the body to-day with the rites of their order. The Odd Fellows have ordered Gage & Gage, undertakers, to prepare the remains for burial, and the body is now at their establishment, 130 West Fourth street.—Williamsport Bulletin

A MATHEMATICAL PROBLEM
Can You Solve It or Prove That It Cannot Be Solved?
At a lecture at the Royal Institution on the fascinating subject of "Magic Squares" Major P. A. MacMahon, F. R. S., reminded his audience of the existence of a curious problem which, despite its apparent simplicity, has never yet been solved. He commended it to the attention of any one present who desired to exercise his ingenuity and patience.

The problem is as follows: There are thirty-six officers of six different ranks and drawn from six different regiments, and it is required to arrange them in a square of thirty-six compartments, so that in each row as well as in each column there appears an officer of each rank and also an officer from each regiment.

Euler's "Recherches Sur une Nouvelle Espece de Quarres Magiques," which appeared in 1782, discusses this problem, but gives no solution, and the late Professor Cayley, writing more than a century afterward, confessed that it was beyond his powers.

Major MacMahon, who has added so much to our knowledge of the theory of groups—a fascinating branch of mathematics which has an important bearing on many branches of physical science—has not yet found a key to the mystery.

Whoever can solve this problem or prove that it cannot be solved will achieve immortality on the lips of mathematicians and perhaps open a door into a new realm of the scientific wonderland which is called pure mathematics.—London Post.

Catching a Muskellunge.
You feel the drops of sweat on your forehead, though the early morning air is as cool as the breath from some snow clad mountain. Gradually he weakens, and you know that, barring accident, you have won. Up, closer and closer, you draw him along till at last he floats there within a foot of your boat.

No eyes so wicked as a musky's. They glare up at you like an angry dog's, seeming to watch every motion you make. Be careful. Here it comes, his final despairing leap for liberty. As he makes it his powerful tail sweeps against the stern and deluges you with water. But the hooks hold, and once more, for the last time, you draw him again to where the guide waits with a revolver in his hand. A shot back of those glittering eyes, a shiver down the whole length of him, a swift jerk into the bottom of the boat with the gaff-hook—and you lie back in an ecstasy of exhaustion.—Scriveners.

Fresh Paint Stains.
A fresh paint stain on woolen goods will disappear if rubbed against other woolen goods. For instance, if the stain is on the sleeve of a coat take that garment off and rub the paint against the other sleeve. It will disappear and leave no sign. This is easier than applying turpentine and exactly as efficacious, but it must be done while the paint is still wet.

The Perfect Liver Medicine.
Mrs. M. A. Jolley, Noble, O. T., writes: "I have used Herbine for a number of years, and can cheerfully recommend it as the most perfect liver medicine, and the greatest blood purifier. It is a medicine of positive merit, and fully accomplishes all that is claimed for it." Malaria cannot find a lodgement in the system while the liver is in perfect order, for one of its functions is to prevent the absorption of liver producing poisons. Herbine is a most efficient liver regulator. 50c at L. Taggart's.

Exercising horses before a race might be called a pre-amble.

Mother Always Keeps It Handy.
"My mother suffered a long time from distressing pains and general ill health due primarily to indigestion," says L. W. Spalding, Verona, Mo. "Two years ago I got her to try Kodol. She grew better at once and now, at the age of seventy-six, eats anything she wants, remarking, that she fears no bad affects as she has her bottle of Kodol handy." Don't waste time doctoring symptoms. Go after the cause. If your stomach is sound your health will be good. Kodol rests the stomach and strengthens the body by digesting your food. It is nature's own tonic. R. C. Dodson.

Getting in a pickle is not apt to make a man look well preserved.

Cures Sciatica.
Rev. W. L. Riley, L. L. D., Cuba, New York, writes: "After fifteen days of excruciating pain from sciatic rheumatism, under various treatments, I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment, the application giving my first relief, and the second, entire. I can give it unqualified recommendation. 25c, 50c and $1.00 at L. Taggart's.

When a man gives himself away he naturally feels cheap.

The Boss Worm Medicine.
H. P. Kumpe, Druggist, Leighton, Ala., writes: "One of my customers had a child, which was sick, and threw up all food, could retain nothing on its stomach. He bought one bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge, and it brought up 119 worms from the child. It's the boss worm medicine in the world." White's Cream Vermifuge is also the children's tonic. It improves their digestion and assimilation of food, strengthens their nervous system and restores them to the health, vigor and elasticity of spirits natural to childhood. 25c at L. Taggart's.

Money talks, but a little scare causes it to shut up tight.

Vacation Days.
Vacation time is here and the children are fairly living out of doors. They could be no healthier place for them. You need only to guard against the accidents incidental to most open air sports. No remedy equals De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve for quickly stopping pain or removing danger of serious consequences. For cuts, scalds and wounds. "I used De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve for sores cuts and bruises," says L. B. Johnson, Swift, Tex. "It is the best remedy on the market." Sure cure for piles and skin diseases. Beware of counterfeits. R. C. Dodson.
