REPUBLICAN TICKET. For Governor, S. W. PENNYPACKER, Philadelphia.

Governor Stone's Callers. Senators Quay and Penrose are said to be due in Harrisburg to-day for a friendly conference with Governor Stone

EDITORIAL MENTION. The surplus in the United States Treasury, for the year just closed, is $92,196,000 and yet some people have the temerity to talk of a deficit.

The Hon. W. J. Bryan and the Kansas City platform are conspicuous by their absence in the platform just adopted by the Georgia Democrats.

The anti-imperialistic issue, inspired by "the Peerless Leader" has proven as much of a boomerang as did the "16 to 1" issue, of which he was the great apostle.

It is said that Judge Pennypacker, the Republican candidate for governor of Pennsylvania, can trace his descent from Edward III of England.

The news comes from the Philippines that indications of rich oil fields in the neighborhood of Cavite, and other localities, are most encouraging and numerous borings are being made.

Kansas, Missouri, Pennsylvania and Minnesota have all warmly endorsed President Roosevelt to succeed himself in 1904 and Senator Platt is authority for the statement that New York will do likewise.

The United States has paid its last tribute to the memory of Lord Pouncefoot. The Brooklyn, in command of Rear Admiral Cogan, has sailed for England with the body of the distinguished Ambassador on board.

President Roosevelt has recently emphasized his intention of "dealing with the trusts," but the business men of the country have no fear that his method of doing so will in any way resemble the anarchistic demagoguery of the democratic-populist school of economists.

The statistics of the Treasury Department for the fiscal year just closed, prove that the estimate furnished by Hon. Lyman J. Gage, then secretary of the Treasury, last November, have been borne out with remarkable accuracy.

In view of the continual reports of a scarcity of farm labor in the western states, it would seem that a most practical philanthropy might consist of some means whereby the laborers in the congested centers of the east might be transported to the localities where their services are in demand.

There is no truth in the story, going the rounds of the press, that the Department of Agriculture is about to undertake an experiment to determine if a lot of hogs, after having been kept for a time in hygienic and clean surroundings, will voluntarily return to mud wallows and hovels.

The Erie Times in commenting on the gubernatorial campaign which is now on in Pennsylvania says: It looks as if providence is still going to be upon the side of the Republicans in this campaign.

Philadelphia Inquirer: The newspapers have been concerned during the week over the fact that Senators Quay and Penrose made a journey to Harrisburg and paid a visit to Governor Stone.

What else did the Democrats expect? Have they had an idea that the Republican party is split up over the gubernatorial question? It is not. All Republicans will vote for Pennypacker, because in him they find not only a Republican but a man of integrity and in whom they can place every confidence.

There will be no political upheavals in Pennsylvania this year. The national administration must and will be supported, and such support can come only through a Republican victory.

The President has appointed Major Micah Jenkins, formerly of the Rough Riders, internal revenue collector for the district of South Carolina. This is the same Major Jenkins to whom Mr. Roosevelt presented a sword when he was in Charleston. Senator Tillman's nephew it will be remembered bumpkins advised the President to stay away.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, July 14th, 1902.

"There is absolutely nothing in the Democratic claim that the Republican party cannot 'make good' their promises in regard to the trusts and the Panama canal," said Senator Foraker, whom I met at the temporary White House on Friday.

"On the contrary, I believe that Congress will warmly support the President in his desire to secure legislation which will enable the government to curb the tendency of certain trusts to advance prices beyond reason. I am not prepared to say that all trusts are pernicious and I have never heard the President make such a claim.

The Sugar Trust, for instance, has materially reduced the price of sugar to the consumer and at the same time has employed a large number of American workmen at good wages. The Standard Oil Company has reduced the price of oil to the consumer to the minimum. It stands to reason that institutions doing a large business can afford to employ experts in all their departments and with their help reduce the cost of production to the lowest figure and at the same time realize the greatest returns from the by-products.

Referring to the Canal, Senator Foraker said that, in as far as he has been informed, everything possible was being done to facilitate its construction and that he believed there was nothing but demagoguery back of democratic claims to the contrary.

The Senator frankly admitted that there was a time when he feared that the democrats might gain control of the House at the fall elections but stated that now he had every confidence that such would not be the case. He regarded the democratic handling of the Philippine question as bongling and offensive to the people.

Great interest attaches, in Washington, to the statement of Senator Burton of Kansas, made at Topeka a week ago to-day, in which he said that, had thirty-five Republican Senators come to the beet sugar senators and said: "We are going to pass that bill", meaning the Cuban Reciprocity Bill, "they could have done so."

Senator Burton also said: "There are not fifteen Republican Senators out of the fifty-four who are in favor of the present bill, at heart." The charge is made that either a number of senators played the part of traitors, appearing to take sides with the President when they were really opposed to his policy, or else Senator Burton is vastly mistaken in his statement and there is some talk of a "round robin" requesting the Kansas Senator to make good his allegation by the publication of the names of those whom he claims encouraged the beet sugar Senators to hold out.

Senator Quay has reconciled conflicting political interests in Allegheny county and there is sweet peace there.

STATE AND COUNTY POLITICAL NOTES.
