Mother Always Keeps It Handy.

"My mother suffered a long time from distressing pains and general ill health due primarily to indigestion," says L. W. Spalding, Verona, Mo. "Two years ago I got her to try Kodol. She grew better at once and now, at the age of seventy-six, eats anything she wants, remarking, that she fears no bad effects as she has her bottle of Kodol handy." Don't waste time doctoring symptoms. Go after the cause. If your stomach is sound your health will be good. Kodol rests the stomach and strengthens the body by digesting your food. It is nature's own tonic. R. C. Dodson.

Preached to a Hatless Audience.

At the morning services at one of the M. E. churches at Williamsport last Sunday, Rev. W. E. Stevens, formerly pastor of M. E. church at this place, announced that notwithstanding his height of six feet many in the congregation complained of being unable to see him, owing to the intervening millinery. He therefore suggested that at future meetings the women remove their headgear, and that evening scarcely a woman in the audience, old or young, wore a hat or bonnet. Mr. Stevens also told his congregation that they need not be surprised if at any time he sat down to preach. Christ, he said, usually sat when he taught the multitudes, and he could see no reason why a minister should always stand up to preach.

The New York Tribune says: The Kansas farmers have overcome the physical inertia of the hobo. They did it with a gun. The deficiency of farm hands in Kansas is estimated at about 10,000 men. The harvest fields, with their golden seas of over-ripe grain are calling for men. A freight train westward bound was wrecked near the town of Pratt. On the train were 50 or 60 tramps bound for Colorado for their health. The farmers heard of it, and offered them $2 a day and plenty of food and shelter. They declined the offer. Thereupon the farmers tried shotgun persuasion, with the result that nearly all of the tramps are now toiling in the harvest fields of Pratt county, and they will be kept at it until the wheat is all garnered. The picturesque features of the episode is furnished by the women of the farms, who are acting as guards, each armed with a shotgun. If the Pratt county idea spreads it may offer a solution of the whole tramp problem.

Makes it Easier for Train Runners.

The double track at the BG tower above the city and at the BK tower in the vicinity of Ferney, was connected yesterday. The entire double track between Youngdale and Keating including the new bridge at Queens Run, is now in use, which makes it much easier for train runner and the operators.

Since the New York Central has been running their trains over the P. and E. and with only a single track in use in several places, the work on this division has kept every body on a strain. When the anthracite coal mines open again the traffic will be greatly increased.—Lock Haven Dem.

An exchange says a lawyer in a court room may call a man a liar, a scoundrel villain or thief, and no one will make a complaint when court adjourns. If a newspaper prints sound reflections on a man's character, there is a libel suit or a dead editor. This is owing to the fact that the people believe what the editor says.

The editor of the Dundee Observer has discovered that "whenever the cars run over a farmer's cow, it is always a thoroughbred the company has to pay for. All stock becomes thoroughbred after being run over by the train. There is nothing that improves stock so much as being crossed with a locomotive."

Of 90 boys criminals confined in the Kansas City county jail in the last six months, all but two were victims of the cigarette habit. The probation officer of the county reports further that all these boys who were induced to give up the cigarette habit were reformed and after their release lived rightly and did well. Those who stuck to the cigarette turned badly after their discharge.

Women are allowed to vote in Colorado, but it has been discovered that the Australian ballot law provides that the voting booths must be so constructed that the voter's leg be seen below the knees.—[Ex. This feature should certainly tend to get out a crowd on election day and to make the office of inspector of election a desirable one, adds a wicked editor.

The man who seen in life the opportunity to express himself in the largest terms, who after ascertaining what faculties he has determines to develop them to the highest possible efficiency, who is capable of seeing the sweetness and joy that lie all about him who, being proud, does not allow his body or mind to be defiled, he is the one who obtains the big rewards, the big successes.—Mental Growth and Control.
