EDITORIAL MENTION.

The "Naval Board of Awards" has designated Capt. Hobson, and Lieutenants Ward, Buck and Blue to receive "meritorious service" medals for bravery in the West Indian campaign.

The wisdom of Representative Babcock, chairman of the Republican Congressional Committee, in determining to expend the funds of the committee for speakers in the campaign is obvious. The voters are too prosperous, and therefore too busy, to have time to read campaign literature.

Charles de Lesseps, son of the great engineer, expresses gratification at the prospective transfer of the Panama canal to the United States. He believes the Americans will demonstrate the wisdom of his father in selecting the Panama route and predicts they will have completed the undertaking within six years.

Governor Hunt of Porto Rico is authority for the statement that there will be 130,000 voters in that country this fall. He also says that the close of the fiscal year showed better business, better health and better prospects than has ever been known in the history of the island.

The United States has supplanted the Rothschilds in the respect of European nations as being the money power of the world. Eventually Europeans will discover that the American capitalist is a pleasanter man to do business with than representatives of the Rothschild family.

General Horace Porter, United States Ambassador to France, has been spending his leave in this country and said, before his departure for the other side: "There has never been a period in our history when the wise, broad and clear-sighted statesmanship displayed at Washington has been more admired and respected by foreign powers."

Two pay-inspectors, Messrs. Peterson and Rand, have resigned from the Navy rather than accept sea duty in accordance with the policy inaugurated by Secretary Mooly. The Secretary says he believes the Navy will get a long very well without these gentlemen and he is prepared to accept and other resignations tendered him for the same reasons.

From colonists, devoted almost exclusively to agricultural pursuits, the United States has developed into a nation of 80,000,000 population, raising everything useful to their own wants, and selling a surplus worth $1,500,000,000 a year. Much of this has been accomplished under the protection policy of the Republican party. Is it surprising that the people are unwilling to change?

Pattison's Defeat Demanded.

The Republicans of Pennsylvania were unhappily divided in 1882, and Robert E. Pattison, a Democrat, was elected Governor, which was followed two years later by the election of Cleveland to the Presidency. One branch of Congress was Republican during Cleveland's first term and to that extent his hands were tied against putting his dangerous Free Trade theories into practice.

In 1886 the Republicans of Pennsylvania were united; the Democratic candidate for Governor was defeated, and in 1888 Gen. Harrison defeated Cleveland who ran for re-election while serving his first term as President.

In 1890 Pennsylvania Republicans were divided and Pattison again slipped into the Governorship, and two years later Cleveland was elected President. During the four years he was out Cleveland's wrath against Republican policies and principles increased as his gait became more painful, and when he came into power the combined influence of Free Traders, Populists, Free Silverites, Socialists, Anarchists and all other influences of like character were led by Cleveland in hate against Republican measures to overthrow them.

Cleveland's first sullen act was to haul down the American flag in Hawaii. It was run up again by McKinley, and will continue to float over Hawaii unless Cleveland should be made President in 1904. His next act was the repeal of the McKinley Protective tariff by the enactment of the Wilson Free Trade bill, and his third great measure was to open what were known as "Cleveland's Soup Factories," which were run for the purpose of affording relief to the hundreds of thousands thrown out of employment by the operations of the Wilson bill, and who could not find room in the overcrowded almshouses.

The memory of those wretched times are still so fresh that it may well be asked: Do American workmen want a repetition of them? As the election of Pattison was twice the precursor of the election of Cleveland, the first step towards restoring them is the election of Pattison as Governor of Pennsylvania.

As the election of Pattison to the Governorship is invariably followed, two years later, by the election of the Free Trader, Cleveland, to the Presidency, here are a few indisputable facts which seem to show why Pattison ought to be overwhelmingly defeated for Governor.

During the four years of Cleveland, under the Wilson Free Trade tariff, from 1892 to 1896, our total exports of domestic merchandise amounted to $3,346,828,808. See page 92, Statistical Abstract of the United States for 1901.

During the four years of McKinley, from 1890 to 1900, under the Dingley Protective tariff—which took the place of the Wilson Free Trade act—the total value of exports of domestic merchandise was $4,816,994,309, an excess of $1,470,165,501 over that of the four preceding years of Clevelandism. See same page, same publication.

During Cleveland's four years—1892 to 1896—the total value of exports of American domestic products, in excess of the total value of foreign products imported into the United States, was $396,858,986.

During the four years of McKinley—1896 to 1900—the total value of exports of American domestic products, in excess of the total value of foreign products imported into the United States, was $1,976,112,531, an excess of $1,579,253,845 over the four preceding years of Clevelandism. See Statistical Abstract of the U. S., page 92 for 1901.

Do American farmers, American workmen and producers of American merchandise desire a return to the Cleveland condition of things. If so the way is open by electing Pattison Governor of Pennsylvania next November.

The total amount of tin plate imported into the United States during the four years of Free Trade under Cleveland, from 1892 to 1896, was 60,629,894 pounds. During the four years under McKinley, from 1896 to 1900, our total import of tin plates was 16,567,146 pounds a decrease of 34,062,748 pounds.

During the four years of Cleveland and the Wilson Tariff—1892 to 1896—we manufactured 531,072,363 pounds of tin plate. During the four years of McKinley and the Dingley Tariff we manufactured 2,665,601,263 pounds of tin plate, an excess over the four preceding years of Clevelandism of 2,134,528,900 pounds. See page 368, Statistical Abstract of the U. S. for 1901.

During the four years of Cleveland and depression, from 1892 to 1896, we produced 32,385,198 tons of 2240 pounds to the ton of pig iron. During the next four years of McKinley and prosperity we produced 43,670,444 tons of 2240 pounds of pig iron, an increase of 11,285,246 tons. See page 367, Statistical Abstract for 1901.

The total quantity of tons of 2240 pounds of iron and steel railroad bars produced in the United States during Cleveland's term, from 1892 to 1896, was 5,016,209 tons. During the next four years under McKinley the total production was 7,023,833 tons, an increase of 2,007,624 tons over Cleveland's four years. Statistical Abstract, page 367 for 1901.

Do the manufacturers and producers of tin plate pig iron and iron and steel railway bars desire that the prosperous condition brought about by McKinley and the Dingley tariff shall continue. If so, as overwhelming victory for Penny-packer for Governor is necessary to that end.

The total surplus from operations of all the railroads in the United States during 1896, the last year of Cleveland and his Free Trade policy, was $1,534,169. During the year 1900, the last year under McKinley's policy of Protection, Progress and Prosperity, the total surplus from the operations of railroads in the United States was $87,657,933. See page 400, Statistical Abstract, 1901. Does any railroad man from window washer to president desire a return to the result of Clevelandism. The election of Pattison will do it.

During the four years of Free Trade under Cleveland, from 1892 to 1896, there were 57,412 failures of business establishments, with an average of $15,831 of liabilities for each failure. During the four years of McKinley, from 1896 to 1900, there was a total of 45,648 failures—a decrease of 11,764—with an average of $11,217 liabilities for each failure. See Statistical Abstract, 1901, page 414.

Are not these a few of the many reasons why the Democratic Convention at Erie solemnly resolved to waive all consideration of National politics and to consider the question of State politics only in this campaign. As the operation of National politics affect the interest of the people almost wholly and entirely—the question of State politics exercising practically no effect upon their welfare and comfort—can it be possible that the eyes of the people of Pennsylvania will be blinded by the determination of Robert E. Pattison to absolutely ignore the important question of National politics and purposes of the Democratic party.

Mr. Pattison may successfully elude meeting Hon. Wm. Jennings Bryan, when he visits Philadelphia, by running away to New York, but Pattison can't run away from the question of National politics in a campaign when Congressmen and a Senator are to be elected.

Just why Grover Cleveland should build up prosperity of Europe by destroying that of his own country is beyond my comprehension, and as Mr. Pattison is for the third time forerunner of Cleveland for the Presidency, every newspaper and every voter in Pennsylvania should call on him to explain.

JOHN W. FRAZIER.

Dysentery Cured Without the Aid of a Doctor.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was cured without having a doctor. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by L. Taggart.

The less luck a man has the more he despises it.

A Liberal Offer.

The undersigned will give a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to any one wanting a reliable remedy for disorders of the stomach, biliousness or constipation. This is a new remedy and a good one. L. Taggart.

Look Pleasant, Please.

Photographer C. C. Harlan, of Eaton, O., can do so now, though for years he couldn't, because he suffered untold agony from the worst form of indigestion. All physicians and medicines failed to help him till he tried Electric Bitters, which worked such wonders for him that he declares they are a godsend to sufferers from dyspepsia and stomach troubles. Unrivaled for diseases of the Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, they build up and give new life to the whole system. Try them. Only 50c. Guaranteed by L. Taggart druggist.

Not the things we endure but those we miss make life's tragedy.

Shatters All Records.

Twice in hospital, F. A. Gullede, Verbena, Ala., paid vast sum to doctors to cure a severe case of piles, causing 24 tumors. When all failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him. Subdues Inflammation, conquers Aches, kills Pains. Best salve in the world. 25c at L. Taggart's drug store.

Education is mitigated ignorance.

Just Look At Her.

Whence came that sprightly step, faultless skin, rich, rosy complexion, smiling face? She looks good, feels good. Here's her secret. She uses Dr. King's New Life Pills. Result—all organs active, digestion good, no headaches, no change for "blues." Try them yourself. Only 25c at L. Taggart's.

The golden rule measures exactly twelve inches to the foot.

A Worm Killer.

J. A. J. Montgomery, Puxico, Wayne Co., Mo., writes: "I have little twin girls, who have been bothered with worms all their lives. I tried everything to relieve them which failed until I used White's Cream Vermifuge; the first two doses brought four worms from one of them, the next two doses, twelve, one of them measuring twelve inches, the other child was only relieved of four worms. It is a most excellent medicine." White's Cream Vermifuge is good for children. It not only destroys worms. It helps the child to perfect growth, wards off sickness. 25c at L. Taggart's.

All the world loves a lover—except sometimes the girl the lover loves.

All Were Saved.

"For years I suffered such untold misery from Bronchitis," writes J. H. Johnston, of Broughton, Ga., "that often I was unable to work. Then, when everything else failed, I was wholly cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. My wife suffered intensely from Asthma, till it cured her, and all our experience goes to show it is the best Croup medicine in the world." A trial will convince you it's unrivaled for Throat and Lung diseases. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at L. Taggart's.

Tastes differ; otherwise self-love would be a drug on the market.

Watch for a Chill.

However slight at this time of year and in this climate, it is the forerunner of malaria. A disposition to yawn, and an all tired out feeling even comes before the chill. Hebine, by its prompt stimulative action on the liver, drives the malarial germs out of the system, purifies the blood, tones up the system and restores health. 50c at L. Taggart's.

Don't waste your time telling a small boy how very good you were at his age.

To My Friends.

It is with joy I tell you what Kodol did for me. I was troubled with my stomach for several months. Upon being advised to use Kodol, I did so, and words cannot tell the good it has done me. A neighbor had dyspepsia so that he had tried most everything. I told him to use Kodol. Words of gratitude have come to me from him because I recommended it.—Geo. W. Fry, Viola, Iowa. Health and strength, of mind and body, depended on the stomach, and normal activity of the digestive organs. Kodol, the great reconstructive tonic, cures all stomach and bowel troubles, indigestion, dyspepsia. Kodol digests the good food you eat. Take a dose after meals. R. C. Dodson.

In order to secure a woman's forgiveness a man must make a bluff at not wanting it.

Not Over-Wise.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl seated at a grass-hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safe guard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For sale by L. Taggart.

Love must be hopelessly blind when it considers a woman who looks like 30 cents worth her weight in gold.

A Necessary Precaution.

Don't neglect a cold. It is worse than unpleasant. It is dangerous. By using One Minute Cough Cure you can cure it at once. Allays inflammation, clears the head, soothes and strengthens the mucous membrane. Cures coughs, croup, throat and lung troubles. Absolutely safe. Act immediately. Children like it. R. C. Dodson.

The Turk and Life Insurance.

One man was complaining that he had insured twenty years before in a mutual benefit company which promised all sorts of things, and now the time was up he received less than he would have done if he had invested his money elsewhere. A wise Turk who was sitting close by said it reminded him of a camel belonging to a friend of his. It was a most intelligent brute, and the owner was convinced that if he found a really good teacher it could be taught to talk. Presently a Hodja appeared who said he was of the same opinion and would teach it, but it would take a long time, probably thirty years. The owner was delighted and agreed to pay the Hodja a fixed sum per annum and a big bonus when the animal talked, the Hodja promising to pay a heavy fine if it did not. A friend afterward went to the Hodja and said: "What on earth induced you to make that agreement? You know you can never teach the camel to talk." "Oh," said the Hodja, "I know that, but during the thirty years either I shall die or the owner will or the camel. Anyhow, I am all right, as I have my fixed income."—New York Commercial Advertiser.

Old Wedding Customs.

In Switzerland the bride on her wedding day will permit no one, not even her parents, to kiss her upon the lips. In many of the provinces the cook pours hot water over the threshold after the bridal couple have gone in order to keep it warm for another bride. A favorite wedding day in Scotland is Dec. 31, so that the young couple can leave their old life with the old year and begin their married life with the new one, surely a pretty idea. The Italians permit no wedding gifts that are sharp or pointed, from which practice emanates our superstition that the gift of a knife severs friendship. One of the most beautiful of all marriage customs is that of the bride immediately after the ceremony flinging her bouquet among her maiden friends. She who catches it is supposed to be the next bride.

Word Blindness.

Some curious instances of the physical defects of "word blindness" are given in the Lancet. The disease is fortunately uncommon. In one case the sufferer, an Englishman, thirty-four years of age, who knew Greek, Latin and French well, suddenly lost all knowledge of English, though he could read and understand Greek perfectly and Latin and French in a rather smaller degree. Another and almost more curious case was that of a man who lost the power of reading at sight. This patient was able to write accurately from dictation, but was completely unable to read what he had written. Word blindness is apparently akin to color blindness, but is certainly attended by much more inconvenient consequences.

Odd Plants.

"What an inquiring mind Miss Lightly has!" exclaimed the cynic. "We were at an Italian table 'd'hot last evening, and she said, with a very kittenish air: 'Oh, did you ever see macaroni growing? I should think a whole field of those lovely white stalks would be too awfully pretty.'" "What did you say, old man?" said his partner.

"Oh, I just said no, that I had never come nearer to it than seeing a bread tree in flower."

Then the partner stepped to the telephone, and they carried the cynic home in the ambulance.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

A Bit of John Bright's Sarcasm.

A noble lord once said on the occasion of Mr. Bright's illness that Providence was punishing him for misuse of talents by inflicting a disease of the brain. The following was Mr. Bright's sarcastic rejoinder when he resumed his seat: "It may be so, but in any case it will be some consolation to the friends and family of the noble lord to know that the disease is one which even Providence could not inflict upon him."

Spinach.

Spinach derives its name from the Spanish monks, who first used it during fast days. It belongs to the beet family and is generally served as a vegetable, although it makes a delicate and appetizing salad. In the spring, when mint is fresh and green, a few leaves added to the spinach will improve the flavor, whether it is served as a vegetable or a salad.

Couldn't Be Guilty of That.

"Never," said the person of good advice to the delicately nurtured Boston youth, "never say 'I can't.'" "Indeed, sir," responded the intellectual lad, "I trust that my diction is not so open to criticism. If you will but be attentive to my conversation, you will observe that I say 'can't.'"—Baltimore American.

The Wife.

"Suppose I were an absolutely perfect woman," she remarked sharply. "Do you know what you'd do then?" "No," answered her husband. "What?" "You'd growl because you had nothing to growl about."—Chicago Post.

He Didn't.

"Do you believe in signs?" "No. A dentist's sign reading 'Teeth Extracted Without Pain' fell the other day just as I went under it and knocked out two teeth of mine!"—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

Thought He Was Smart.
